- 69 1. Carriers of the United States mail;
70 2. Officers or guards of any state correctional institution;
71 3. [Repealed.]

72 4. Conservators of the peace, except that the following conservators of the peace shall not be 73 permitted to carry a concealed handgun without obtaining a permit as provided in subsection D hereof:

75 carrier of passengers for hire; or (d) commissioners in chancery;

76 5. Noncustodial employees of the Department of Corrections designated to carry weapons by the 78 6. Harbormaster of the City of Hopewell.

79 D. (Effective until July 1, 2007 - see Editor's notes) Any person 21 years of age or older may apply 80 in writing to the clerk of the circuit court of the county or city in which he resides, or if he is a
81 member of the United States Armed Forces, the county or city in which he is domiciled, for a five-year 82 permit to carry a concealed handgun. There shall be no requirement regarding the length of time an 83 applicant has been a resident or domiciliary of the county or city. The application shall be made under 84 oath before a notary or other person qualified to take oaths and shall be made only on a form prescribed 85 by the Department of State Police, in consultation with the Supreme Court, requiring only that 86 information necessary to determine eligibility for the permit. The clerk shall enter on the application the 87 date on which the application and all other information required to be submitted by the applicant is 88 received. The court shall consult with either the sheriff or police department of the county or city and 89 receive a report from the Central Criminal Records Exchange. As a condition for issuance of a 90 concealed handgun permit, the applicant shall submit to fingerprinting if required by local ordinance in 91 the county or city where the applicant resides and provide personal descriptive information to be 92 forwarded with the fingerprints through the Central Criminal Records Exchange to the Federal Bureau of 93 Investigation for the purpose of obtaining criminal history record information regarding the applicant, 94 and obtaining fingerprint identification information from federal records pursuant to criminal 95 investigations by state and local law-enforcement agencies. Where feasible and practical, the local 96 law-enforcement agency may transfer information electronically to the State Police instead of inked 97 fingerprint cards. Upon completion of the criminal history records check, the State Police shall return the 98 fingerprint cards to the submitting local agency or, in the case of scanned fingerprints, destroy the 99 electronic record. The local agency shall then promptly notify the person that he has 21 days from the 100 date of the notice to request return of the fingerprint cards, if any. All fingerprint cards not claimed by 101 the applicant within 21 days of notification by the local agency shall be destroyed. All optically scanned 102 fingerprints shall be destroyed upon completion of the criminal history records check without requiring 103 that the applicant be notified. Fingerprints taken for the purposes described in this section shall not be 104 copied, held or used for any other purposes. The court shall issue the permit and notify the State Police 105 of the issuance of the permit within 45 days of receipt of the completed application unless it is 106 determined that the applicant is disqualified. Any order denying issuance of the permit shall state the 107 basis for the denial of the permit and the applicant's right to and the requirements for perfecting an 108 appeal of such order pursuant to subsection L. An application is deemed complete when all information 109 required to be furnished by the applicant is delivered to and received by the clerk of court before or 110 concomitant with the conduct of a state or national criminal history records check. If the court has not 111 issued the permit or determined that the applicant is disqualified within 45 days of the date of receipt 112 noted on the application, the clerk shall certify on the application that the 45-day period has expired, 113 and send a copy of the certified application to the applicant. The certified application shall serve as a de 114 facto permit, which shall expire 90 days after issuance, and shall be recognized as a valid concealed 115 handgun permit when presented with a valid government-issued photo identification pursuant to 116 subsection H, until the court issues a five-year permit or finds the applicant to be disqualified. If the 117 applicant is found to be disqualified after the de facto permit is issued, the applicant shall surrender the 118 de facto permit to the court and the disqualification shall be deemed a denial of the permit and a
119 revocation of the de facto permit. If the applicant is later found by the court to be disqualified after a 120 five-year permit has been issued, the permit shall be revoked. The clerk of court may withhold from public disclosure the social security number contained in a permit application in response to a request to inspect or copy any such permit application, except that such social security number shall not be withheld from any law-enforcement officer acting in the performance of his official duties.

D. (Effective July 1, 2007 - see Editor's notes) Any person 21 years of age or older may apply in writing to the clerk of the circuit court of the county or city in which he resides, or if he is a member of the United States Armed Forces, the county or city in which he is domiciled, for a permit to carry a concealed handgun. There shall be no requirement regarding the length of time an applicant has been a resident or domiciliary of the county or city. The application shall be made under oath before a notary or other person qualified to take oaths and shall be made only on a form prescribed by the Department of State Police, in consultation with the Supreme Court, requiring only that information necessary to determine eligibility for the permit. The clerk shall enter on the application the date on which the application and all other information required to be submitted by the applicant is received. The court shall consult with either the sheriff or police department of the county or city and receive a report from the Central Criminal Records Exchange. As a condition for issuance of a concealed handgun permit, the applicant shall submit to fingerprinting if required by local ordinance in the county or city where the applicant resides and provide personal descriptive information to be forwarded with the fingerprints through the Central Criminal Records Exchange to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for the purpose of obtaining criminal history record information regarding the applicant, and obtaining fingerprint identification information from federal records pursuant to criminal investigations by state and local law-enforcement agencies. Where feasible and practical, the local law-enforcement agency may transfer information electronically to the State Police instead of inked fingerprint cards. Upon completion of the criminal history records check, the State Police shall return the fingerprint cards to the submitting local agency or, in the case of scanned fingerprints, destroy the electronic record. The local agency shall then promptly notify the person that he has 21 days from the date of the notice to request return of the fingerprint cards, if any. All fingerprint cards not claimed by the applicant within 21 days of notification by the local agency shall be destroyed. All optically scanned fingerprints shall be destroyed upon completion of the criminal history records check without requiring that the applicant be notified. Fingerprints taken for the purposes described in this section shall not be copied, held or used for any other purposes. The court shall issue the permit and notify the State Police of the issuance of the permit within 45 days of receipt of the completed application unless it is determined that the applicant is disqualified. Any order denying issuance of the permit shall state the basis for the denial of the permit and the applicant's right to and the requirements for perfecting an appeal of such order pursuant to subsection L. An application is deemed complete when all information required to be furnished by the applicant is delivered to and received by the clerk of court before or concomitant with the conduct of a state or national criminal history records check. If the court has not issued the permit or determined that the applicant is disqualified within 45 days of the date of receipt noted on the application, the clerk shall certify on the application that the 45-day period has expired, and send a copy of the certified application to the applicant. The certified application shall serve as a de facto permit, which shall expire 90 days after issuance, and shall be recognized as a valid concealed handgun permit when presented with a valid government-issued photo identification pursuant to subsection H, until the court issues a permit or finds the applicant to be disqualified. If the applicant is found to be disqualified after the de facto permit is issued, the applicant shall surrender the de facto permit to the court and the disqualification shall be deemed a denial of the permit and a revocation of the de facto permit. If the applicant is later found by the court to be disqualified after a permit has been issued, the permit shall be revoked. The clerk of court may withhold from public disclosure the social security number contained in a permit application in response to a request to inspect or copy any such permit application, except that such social security number shall not be withheld from any law-enforcement officer acting in the performance of his official duties.

D1. (Effective July 1, 2007 - see Editor's note) Whenever any person moves from the address shown on the concealed handgun permit, he shall, within 30 days, notify the issuing court of his change of address.
