59 Every general district court shall have jurisdiction of proceedings for partition of personal property,

61 When joint owners of personal property of the value of more than twenty dollars but not more than 62 maximum jurisdictional limits of the court as provided in § 16.1-77 (1) cannot agree upon a partition
63 thereof, any party in interest may compel partition, the proceeding for which shall be commenced by a 64 petition presented to a general district court as prescribed in subsection 5 of § 8.01-262. A copy of the 65 petition, together with a notice of the time and place the petitioner will ask for a hearing thereon, shall 66 be served on each of the defendants at least ten days prior to the day of hearing. The court shall hear 67 and decide the matter without the appointment or use of commissioners.

75 § 16.1-88.2. Evidence of medical reports or records; testimony of health care provider or custodian of 76 records.

77 In a civil suit tried in a general district court ~~or filed in a general district court and removed to~~
78 ~~circuit court where the claim does not exceed the jurisdictional amount set forth in § 16.1-77~~ to recover
79 damages for personal injuries or to resolve any dispute with an insurance company or health care 80 provider, either party may present evidence as to the extent, nature and treatment of the injury, the 81 examination of the person so injured and the costs of such treatment and examination by a report from 82 the treating or examining health care provider as defined in § 8.01-581.1 and the records of a hospital or 83 similar medical facility at which the treatment or examination was performed. Such medical report shall 84 be admitted if the party intending to present evidence by the use of a report gives the opposing party or 85 parties a copy of the report and written notice of such intention 10 days in advance of trial and if 86 attached to such report is a sworn statement of the treating or examining health care provider that: (i)
87 the person named therein was treated or examined by such health care provider; (ii) the information 88 contained in the report is true and accurate and fully descriptive as to the nature and extent of the 89 injury; and (iii) that any statement of costs contained in the report is true and accurate. Such hospital or 90 other medical facility record shall be admitted if attached to it is a sworn statement of the custodian
91 thereof that the same is a true and accurate copy of the record of such hospital or other medical facility.
92 If, thereafter, the plaintiff or defendant summons the health care provider or custodian making such 93 statement to testify in proper person or by deposition taken de bene esse, the court shall determine 94 which party shall pay the fee and costs for such appearance or depositions, or may apportion the same
95 among the parties in such proportions as the ends of justice may require. If such health care provider or 96 custodian is not subject to subpoena for cross-examination in court or by a deposition de bene esse, then
97 the court shall allow a reasonable opportunity for the party seeking the subpoena for such health care 98 provider or custodian to obtain his testimony as the ends of justice may require.

99 § 16.1-107. Requirements for appeal.

100 No appeal shall be allowed unless and until the party applying for the same or someone for him
101 shall give bond, in an amount and with sufficient surety approved by the judge or by his clerk if there 102 is one, to abide by such judgment as may be rendered on appeal if such appeal is perfected, or if not so 103 perfected, then to satisfy the judgment of the court in which it was rendered. Such bond shall be posted
104 within 30 days from the date of judgment, except for an appeal from the judgment of a general district
105 court on an unlawful detainer pursuant to § 8.01-129. However, no appeal bond shall be required of a 106 plaintiff in a civil case where the defendant has not asserted a counterclaim, the Commonwealth or when 107 an appeal is proper to protect the estate of a decedent, an infant, a convict, or an insane person, or the 108 interest of a county, city, town or transportation district created pursuant to Chapter 45 (§ 15.2-4500 et 109 seq.) of Title 15.2.

110 If such bond is furnished by or on behalf of any party against whom judgment has been rendered for 111 money or property or both, the bond shall be conditioned for the performance and satisfaction of such 112 judgment or order as may be entered against such party on appeal, and for the payment of all costs and 113 damages which may be awarded against him in the appellate court. If the appeal is by a party against 114 whom there is no recovery except for costs, the bond shall be conditioned for the payment of such costs 115 and damages as may be awarded against him on the appeal.

116 In addition to the foregoing, any party applying for appeal shall, within 30 days from the date of the 117 judgment, pay to the clerk of the court from which the appeal is taken the amount of the writ tax of the court to which the appeal is taken and costs as required by subdivision A 13 of § 17.1-275, including all fees for service of process of the notice of appeal in the circuit court pursuant to § 16.1-112.

§ 16.1-114.1. Principles applicable in trial of appeals; defective or irregular warrants or motions.

Actions or proceedings appealed or removed from district courts shall be tried according to the principles of law and equity, and when the same conflict the principles of equity shall prevail. No warrant, motion or other pleading shall be dismissed by reason of a mere defect, irregularity or omission in the proceedings in the district court, or in the form of any such pleading, when the same may be corrected by a proper order of the court of record. In any such case the court of record shall retain the same, with full power to direct all necessary amendments, to enter orders and direct proceedings to correct such defects, irregularities and omissions, to promote substantial justice to all parties, and to bring about a trial of the merits of the controversy. In any case where an appeal is taken by a defendant the circuit court may direct amendments to increase the amount of the claim above the jurisdictional amount set forth in § 16.1-77. This section shall be liberally construed, to the end that justice is not delayed or denied by reason of errors in the pleadings or in the form of the proceedings.

§ 16.1-122. Appeal.

If the money or property claimed in any such proceeding is more than $4,500 in value, the proceeding may be removed to a circuit court and heard and disposed of therein as provided in § 16.1-92. If the property or money claimed in any such proceeding is more than fifty dollars in value, an appeal of right may be had to the judgment or order of the court as provided in § 16.1-106. The limits for removal of cases under the Tort Claims Act (§ 8.01-195.1 et seq.) shall be governed by the jurisdictional amounts set forth in that act.

§ 55-232. Procedure when distress levied and tenant unable to give forthcoming bond; what defense may be made.

A. On affidavit by a tenant, whose property has been levied on under a warrant of distress, that (i) he is unable to give the bond required in § 8.01-526 and (ii) he has a valid defense under subsection B of this section, or has the right to remove the action to the circuit court under § 16.1-92, the officer levying the warrant shall permit the property to remain in the possession and at the risk of the tenant, and shall return the warrant forthwith, together with the affidavit, to the court to which such warrant is returnable. Thereupon the landlord, after ten days' notice in writing to the tenant, may make a motion before such court for a judgment for the amount of the rent and for a sale of the property levied on, as aforesaid. The tenant may make such defense as he is authorized to make, including defenses permitted under such subsection B to an action or motion on the bond when one is given; or he may remove the case to the circuit court under § 16.1-92. Upon making such defense, or the removal of the case to the circuit court, the officer shall permit the property to remain in the possession of and at the risk of the tenant. However, if the amount in controversy is in excess of $1,000, removal to the circuit court shall be conditional upon the tenant's giving a forthcoming bond, with sufficient corporate or cash surety, in a penalty double the amount in controversy, with condition to pay any judgment rendered against the tenant, and all costs and damages which may accrue to the landlord as a result of any delay caused by such removal. If the property is perishable, or expensive to keep, the court, or the judge thereof in vacation, may order it to be sold, and on the final trial of the cause, the court shall dispose of the property, or proceeds of sale, according to the rights of the parties.

B. In an action or motion on a forthcoming bond, when it is taken under a distress warrant, the defendants may make defense on the ground that the distress was for rent not due in whole or in part, or was otherwise illegal.

2. That §§ 8.01-127, 8.01-127.1, and 16.1-92 of the Code of Virginia are repealed.
