6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 53.1-120 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 53.1-120. Sheriff to provide for courthouse and courtroom security; designation of deputies for such 9 purpose; assessment.

10 A. Each sheriff shall ensure that the courthouses and courtrooms within his jurisdiction are secure 11 from violence and disruption and shall designate deputies for this purpose. A list of such designations
12 shall be forwarded to the Director of the Department of Criminal Justice Services.

13 B. The chief circuit court judge, the chief general district court judge and the chief juvenile and 14 domestic relations district court judge shall be responsible by agreement with the sheriff of the 15 jurisdiction for the designation of courtroom security deputies for their respective courts. If the 16 respective chief judges and sheriff are unable to agree on the number, type and working schedules of 17 courtroom security deputies for the court, the matter shall be referred to the Compensation Board for 18 resolution in accordance with existing budgeted funds and personnel.

19 C. The sheriff shall have the sole responsibility for the identity of the deputies designated for 20 courtroom security.

21 D. Any county or city, through its governing body, may assess a sum not in excess of $5 $10 as part 22 of the costs in each criminal or traffic case in its district or circuit court in which the defendant is 23 convicted of a violation of any statute or ordinance. If a town provides court facilities for a county, the 24 governing body of the county shall return to the town a portion of the assessments collected based on 25 the number of criminal and traffic cases originating and heard in the town. The imposition of such 26 assessment shall be by ordinance of the governing body that may provide for different sums in the 27 circuit courts and district courts. The assessment shall be collected by the clerk of the court in which the 28 case is heard, remitted to the treasurer of the appropriate county or city and held by such treasurer to be 29 appropriated by the governing body to the sheriff's office. The assessment shall be used solely for the 30 funding of courthouse security personnel, and, if requested by the sheriff, equipment and other personal 31 property used in connection with courthouse security.
