In any action brought under this subdivision, the refusal by any person, or any employee, agent, or servant thereof, to sell any goods or services advertised or offered for sale at the price or upon the terms advertised or offered, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this subdivision. This paragraph shall not apply when it is clearly and conspicuously stated in the advertisement or offer by which such goods or services are advertised or offered for sale, that the supplier or offeror has a limited quantity or amount of such goods or services for sale, and the supplier or offeror at the time of such advertisement or offer did in fact have or reasonably expected to have at least such quantity or amount for sale;

79 of $5 (i) on an account maintained by the supplier and (ii) resulting from such consumer's overpayment

§ 59.1-443.3. Freezing access to credit reports.

A. As used in this section:

"Consumer" means any individual residing in the Commonwealth.

"Consumer reporting agency" has the meaning assigned by § 603(f) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681a(f).

"Credit report" means any written or oral report, recommendation, or representation of a consumer reporting agency as to the creditworthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity of any consumer, and includes any information that is sought or given for the purpose of serving as the basis for determining eligibility for credit to be used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

"Security freeze" means a notice, at the request of the consumer and subject to certain exceptions, that prohibits the consumer reporting agency from releasing all or any part of the consumer's credit report or any information derived from it without the express authorization of the consumer.

B. A consumer may elect to place a security freeze on his credit report by requesting a consumer reporting agency, by certified mail or other secure method as authorized by a consumer reporting agency, to place a security freeze on the consumer's credit report. If a consumer requests a security freeze, the consumer reporting agency shall disclose the process of placing and temporarily lifting a freeze, and the process for allowing access to information from the consumer's credit report for a specific party or period of time while the freeze is in place. A consumer reporting agency shall require proper identification of the person making a request to establish a security freeze. The consumer reporting agency shall place a security freeze on a consumer's credit report not later than five business days after receipt of such request.

C. The consumer reporting agency shall send a written confirmation of the security freeze to such consumer within five business days and shall provide the consumer with a unique personal identification number or password to be used by the consumer when providing authorization for the release of such consumer's credit report to a specific party or for a period of time.

D. If the consumer wishes to authorize the disclosure of his credit report to a third party, or for a period of time, while such security freeze is in effect, the consumer shall contact the consumer reporting agency and provide:

1. Proper identification;

2. The unique personal identification number or password described in subsection C; and

3. Proper information regarding the third party who is to receive the credit report or the time period for which the credit report shall be available.

E. Any consumer reporting agency that receives a request from a consumer to temporarily lift his security freeze shall do so within 48 hours after receipt of the request.

F. A consumer reporting agency shall remove or temporarily lift a security freeze placed on a consumer's credit report only upon consumer request pursuant to subsection D or H or if the consumer's credit report was frozen due to a material misrepresentation of fact by the consumer. If a consumer reporting agency intends to remove a security freeze because the credit report was frozen due to a material misrepresentation of fact by the consumer, the consumer reporting agency shall notify the consumer in writing prior to removing the security freeze.

G. If a third party requests access to a credit report on which a security freeze is in effect, and this request is in connection with an application for credit or any other use, and the consumer does not allow his credit report to be accessed for that specific party or period of time, the third party may treat the application as incomplete.

H. A security freeze shall remain in place until the consumer requests that it be removed. A consumer reporting agency shall remove a security freeze within 48 hours of receiving a request for removal from the consumer, which request shall include both proper identification of the person making a request to remove the security freeze and the unique personal identification number or password provided by the consumer reporting agency as described in subsection C.

182 1. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the use of a credit report by any of the following:
183 1. A person with whom the consumer has or has had an account, contract, or debtor-creditor
184 relationship, or the person's subsidiary, affiliate, agent, or assignee, for the purpose of (i) reviewing the 185 account, including activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and 186 account upgrades and enhancements; (ii) conducting activities related to account maintenance,
187 monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements; or (iii) collecting the 188 financial obligation owing for the account, contract, or debt;
189 2. A subsidiary, affiliate, agent, assignee, or prospective assignee of a person to whom access has
190 been granted under subsection F for purposes of facilitating the extension of credit or other permissible
191 use;
192 3. Any person acting pursuant to a court order, warrant, or subpoena;
193 4. A state or local agency, or its agents or assigns, which administers a program for establishing 194 and enforcing child support obligations;
195 5. A state or local agency, or its agents or assigns, acting to investigate fraud, including Medicaid
196 fraud, or acting to investigate or collect delinquent taxes or assessments, including interest and 197 penalties, unpaid court orders, or to fulfill any of its other statutory responsibilities;
198 6. A federal, state, or local governmental entity, including law-enforcement agency, court, or their
199 agents or assigns;
200 7. A person for the purposes of prescreening as defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C.
201 § 1681, et seq.;
202 8. Any person for the sole purpose of providing for a credit file monitoring subscription service to 203 which the consumer has subscribed;
204 9. A consumer reporting agency for the purpose of providing a consumer with a copy of the 205 consumer's credit report upon the consumer's request;
206 10. Any depository financial institution for checking, savings, and investment accounts; and 207 11. Any property and casualty insurance company for use in setting or adjusting a rate, adjusting a
208 claim, or underwriting for property and casualty insurance purposes.
209 J. This section shall not prevent a consumer reporting agency from charging a fee of no more than 210 $10 to a consumer for establishing a security freeze, removing a security freeze, temporarily lifting a
211 security freeze for a period of time, or temporarily lifting a security freeze for a specific party,
212 regarding access to a credit report, except that a consumer reporting agency shall not charge any fee to
213 a victim of identity theft who has submitted a copy of a valid investigative or incident report or
214 complaint with a law-enforcement agency about the unlawful use of the victim's identifying information
215 by another person.
216 K. The following persons are not required to place a security freeze on a consumer's credit report
217 pursuant to this section:
218 1. A check services or fraud prevention services company, which reports on incidents of fraud or
219 issues authorizations for the purpose of approving or processing negotiable instruments, electronic fund
220 transfers, or similar methods of payment;
221 2. A deposit account information service company, which issues reports regarding account closures
222 due to fraud, substantial overdrafts, ATM abuse, or other similar negative information regarding a
223 consumer to inquiring banks or other financial institutions for use only in reviewing a consumer request
224 for a deposit account at the inquiring bank or financial institution; and 225 3. A consumer reporting agency that does all of the following:
226 a. Acts only to resell credit information by assembling and merging information contained in a
227 database of one or more credit reporting agencies; or 228 b. Does not maintain a permanent database of credit information from which new credit reports are 229 produced.
230 L. A consumer reporting agency shall not suggest or otherwise state or imply to a third party that 231 the consumer's security freeze reflects a negative credit score, history, report, or rating.
232 M. If a security freeze is in place, a consumer reporting agency shall not change any of the official
233 information in a credit report regarding the name, date of birth, social security number, and address of 234 a consumer without sending a written confirmation of the change to the consumer within 30 days of the 235 change being posted to the consumer's file. Written confirmation is not required for technical
236 modifications of a consumer's official information, including name and street abbreviations, complete
237 spellings, or transposition of numbers or letters. In the case of an address change, the written 238 confirmation shall be sent to both the new address and the former address.
239 N. A violation of this section shall constitute a prohibited practice pursuant to the provisions of 240 § 59.1-200 and shall be subject to all of the enforcement provisions of the Virginia Consumer Protection
241 Act (§ 59.1-196 et seq.).
242 § 59.1-444. Damages.
243 A person aggrieved by a violation of any provision of this chapter, except §§ 59.1-443.2 and

244 59.1-443.3, shall be entitled to institute an action to recover damages in the amount of $100 per 245 violation. In addition, if the aggrieved party prevails, he may be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and 246 court costs. Actions under this section shall be brought in the general district court for the city or county
247 in which the transaction or other violation that gave rise to the action occurred. A violation of the
248 provisions of § 59.1-443.2 or 59.1-443.3 is a prohibited practice under the Virginia Consumer Protection
249 Act (§ 59.1-196 et seq.).
