| 9 | Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice |
| 10 | |
| 11 | Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: |
| 12 | 1. That §§ 20-108.1, 20-108.2, 63.2-1921, 63.2-1952, and 63.2-1960 of the Code of Virginia are |
| 13 | amended and reenacted, and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Article 10 of |
| 14 15 | Chapter 19 of Title 63.2 a section numbered 63.2-1961 as follows: |
| 15 16 | § 20-108.1. Determination of child or spousal support. A. In any proceeding on the issue of determining spousal support, the court shall consider all |
| 17 | evidence presented relevant to any issues joined in that proceeding. The court's decision shall be |
| 18 | rendered based upon the evidence relevant to each individual case. |
| 19 | B. In any proceeding on the issue of determining child support under this title or Title 16.1 or Title |
| 20 | 63.2, the court shall consider all evidence presented relevant to any issues joined in that proceeding. The |
| 21 | court's decision in any such proceeding shall be rendered upon the evidence relevant to each individual |
| 22 | case. However, there shall be a rebuttable presumption in any judicial or administrative proceeding for |
| 23 | child support, including cases involving split custody or shared custody, that the amount of the award |
| 24 | which would result from the application of the guidelines set out in § 20-108.2 is the correct amount of |
| 25 | child support to be awarded. Liability for support shall be determined retroactively for the period |
| 26 | measured from the date that the proceeding was commenced by the filing of an action with any court |
| 27 | provided the complainant exercised due diligence in the service of the respondent or, if earlier, the date |
| 28 | an order of the Department of Social Services entered pursuant to Title 63.2 and directing payment of |
| 29 30 | support was delivered to the sheriff or process server for service on the obligor. |
| 30 31 | In order to rebut the presumption, the court shall make written findings in the order, which findings may be incorporated by reference, that the application of such guidelines would be unjust or |
| 31 32 | inappropriate in a particular case. The finding that rebuts the guidelines shall state the amount of support |
| 33 | that would have been required under the guidelines, shall give a justification of why the order varies |
| 34 | from the guidelines, and shall be determined by relevant evidence pertaining to the following factors |
| 35 | affecting the obligation, the ability of each party to provide child support, and the best interests of the |
| 36 | child: |
| 37 | 1. Actual monetary support for other family members or former family members; |
| 38 | 2. Arrangements regarding custody of the children, including the cost of visitation travel; |
| 39 | 3. Imputed income to a party who is voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily under-employed; |
| 40 | provided that income may not be imputed to the custodial parent when a child is not in school, child |
| 41 | care services are not available and the cost of such child care services are not included in the |
| 42 | computation and provided further, that any consideration of imputed income based on a change in a |
| 43 | party's employment shall be evaluated with consideration of the good faith and reasonableness of |
| 44 45 | employment decisions made by the party;4. Debts of either party arising during the marriage for the benefit of the child; |
| 4 5 46 | 5. Direct payments ordered by the court for maintaining life insurance coverage pursuant to |
| 47 | subsection D, education expenses, or other court-ordered direct payments for the benefit of the child; |
| 48 | 6. Extraordinary capital gains such as capital gains resulting from the sale of the marital abode; |
| 49 | 7. Any special needs of a child resulting from any physical, emotional, or medical condition; |
| 50 | 8. Independent financial resources of the child or children; |
| 51 | 9. Standard of living for the child or children established during the marriage; |
| 52 | 10. Earning capacity, obligations, financial resources, and special needs of each parent; |
| 53 | 11. Provisions made with regard to the marital property under § 20-107.3, where said property earns |
| 54 | income or has an income-earning potential; |
| 55 | 12. Tax consequences to the parties including claims for exemptions, child tax credit, and child care |
| 56 57 | credit for dependent children; |
| 57 58 | 13. A written agreement, stipulation, consent order, or decree between the parties which includes the amount of child support; and |
| 50 | amount of child support, and |

59 14. Such other factors as are necessary to consider the equities for the parents and children.

C. In any proceeding under this title or Title 16.1 or Title 63.2 on the issue of determining child support, the court shall have the authority to order a party to provide health care coverage, as defined in § 63.2-1900, for dependent children if reasonable under all the circumstances and health care coverage for a spouse or former spouse.

D. In any proceeding under this title, Title 16.1 or Title 63.2 on the issue of determining child support, the court shall have the authority to order a party to (i) maintain any existing life insurance policy on the life of either party provided the party so ordered has the right to designate a beneficiary and (ii) designate a child or children of the parties as the beneficiary of all or a portion of such life insurance for so long as the party so ordered has a statutory obligation to pay child support for the child or children.

E. Except when the parties have otherwise agreed, in any proceeding under this title, Title 16.1 or Title 63.2 on the issue of determining child support, the court shall have the authority to and may, in its discretion, order one party to execute all appropriate tax forms or waivers to grant to the other party the right to take the income tax dependency exemption for any tax year or future years, for any child or children of the parties for federal and state income tax purposes.

F. In any proceeding under this title, Title 16.1, or Title 63.2 on the issue of determining child support, the court shall order that, for any party who is sentenced to a term of incarceration during the period he is obligated to pay support, the amount of the award be modified in order to reflect the amount calculated under the child support guidelines set forth in § 20-108.2. The modification may be made from the date the party is sentenced to a term of incarceration.

80 \overrightarrow{FG} . Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any amendments to this section shall not be retroactive to a date before the effective date of the amendment, and shall not be the basis for a material change in circumstances upon which a modification of child support may be based.

83 § 20-108.2. Guideline for determination of child support; quadrennial review by Child Support 84 Guidelines Review Panel; executive summary.

85 A. There shall be a rebuttable presumption in any judicial or administrative proceeding for child 86 support under this title or Title 16.1 or 63.2, including cases involving split custody or shared custody, 87 that the amount of the award which would result from the application of the guidelines set forth in this 88 section is the correct amount of child support to be awarded. In order to rebut the presumption, the 89 court shall make written findings in the order as set out in § 20-108.1, which findings may be 90 incorporated by reference, that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a 91 particular case as determined by relevant evidence pertaining to the factors set out in § 20-108.1. The 92 Department of Social Services shall set child support at the amount resulting from computations using the guidelines set out in this section pursuant to the authority granted to it in Chapter 19 (§ 63.2-1900 et 93 94 seq.) of Title 63.2 and subject to the provisions of § 63.2-1918.

95 B. For purposes of application of the guideline, a basic child support obligation shall be computed 96 using the schedule set out below. For combined monthly gross income amounts falling between amounts 97 shown in the schedule, basic child support obligation amounts shall be extrapolated. However, unless 98 one of the following exemptions applies where the sole custody child support obligation as computed 99 pursuant to subdivision G 1 is less than $65 per month, there shall be a presumptive minimum child support obligation of $65 per month payable by the payor parent. Exemptions from this presumptive 100 101 minimum monthly child support obligation shall include: parents unable to pay child support because they lack sufficient assets from which to pay child support and who, in addition, are institutionalized in 102 a psychiatric facility; are imprisoned with no chance of parole; are imprisoned with no opportunity for 103 an institutional work assignment; are medically verified to be totally and permanently disabled with no 104 evidence of potential for paying child support, including recipients of Supplemental Security Income 105 (SSI); or are otherwise involuntarily unable to produce income. "Number of children" means the number 106 107 of children for whom the parents share joint legal responsibility and for whom support is being sought. 108 SCHEDULE OF MONTHLY BASIC CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS

C. For purposes of this section, "gross income" means all income from all sources, and shall include, but not be limited to, income from salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits except as listed below, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, veterans' benefits, spousal support, rental income, gifts, prizes or awards.

323 If a parent's gross income includes disability insurance benefits, it shall also include any amounts 324 paid to or for the child who is the subject of the order and derived by the child from the parent's 325 entitlement to disability insurance benefits. To the extent that such derivative benefits are included in a 326 parent's gross income, that parent shall be entitled to a credit against his or her ongoing basic child 327 support obligation for any such amounts, and, if the amount of the credit exceeds the parent's basic child 328 support obligations, the credit may be used to reduce arrearages.

329 Gross income shall be subject to deduction of reasonable business expenses for persons with income330 from self-employment, a partnership, or a closely held business. "Gross income" shall not include:

- 1. Benefits from public assistance and social services programs as defined in § 63.2-100;
- 2. Federal supplemental security income benefits;
- 3. Child support received; or 331 332

4. Income received by the payor from secondary employment income not previously included in "gross income," where the payor obtained the income to discharge a child support arrearage established by a court or administrative order and the payor is paying the arrearage pursuant to the order.
"Secondary employment income" includes but is not limited to income from an additional job, from self-employment, or from overtime employment. The cessation of such secondary income upon the payment of the arrearage shall not be the basis for a material change in circumstances upon which a modification of child support may be based.

For purposes of this subsection: (i) spousal support received shall be included in gross income and spousal support paid shall be deducted from gross income when paid pursuant to an order or written agreement and (ii) one-half of any self-employment tax paid shall be deducted from gross income.

Where there is an existing court or administrative order or written agreement relating to the child or children of a party to the proceeding, who are not the child or children who are the subject of the present proceeding, then there is a presumption that there shall be deducted from the gross income of the party subject to such order or written agreement, the amount that the party is actually paying for the support of a child or children pursuant to such order or agreement.

349 Where a party to the proceeding has a natural or adopted child or children in the party's household 350 or primary physical custody, and the child or children are not the subject of the present proceeding, 351 there is a presumption that there shall be deducted from the gross income of that party the amount as 352 shown on the Schedule of Monthly Basic Child Support Obligations contained in subsection B that 353 represents that party's support obligation based solely on that party's income as being the total income 354 available for the natural or adopted child or children in the party's household or primary physical 355 custody, who are not the subject of the present proceeding. Provided, however, that the existence of a party's financial responsibility for such a child or children shall not of itself constitute a material change 356 357 in circumstances for modifying a previous order of child support in any modification proceeding. Any 358 adjustment to gross income under this subsection shall not create or reduce a support obligation to an 359 amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal adequate housing and 360 provide other basic necessities for the child, as determined by the court.

361 In cases in which retroactive liability for support is being determined, the court or administrative 362 agency may use the gross monthly income of the parties averaged over the period of retroactivity.

363 D. Except for good cause shown or the agreement of the parties, in addition to any other child support obligations established pursuant to this section, any child support order shall provide that the 364 365 parents pay in proportion to their gross incomes, as used for calculating the monthly support obligation, any reasonable and necessary unreimbursed medical or dental expenses that are in excess of $250 for 366 367 any calendar year for each child who is the subject of the obligation. The method of payment of those 368 expenses shall be contained in the support order. Each parent shall pay his respective share of expenses 369 as those expenses are incurred. Any amount paid under this subsection shall not be adjusted by, nor 370 added to, the child support calculated in accordance with subsection G. For the purposes of this section, 371 medical or dental expenses shall include but not be limited to eyeglasses, prescription medication, prosthetics, orthodontics, and mental health or developmental disabilities services, including but not 372 373 limited to services provided by a social worker, psychologist, psychiatrist, counselor, or therapist.

E. Any costs for healthcare coverage as defined in § 63.2-1900 and dental care coverage, when actually being paid by a parent, to the extent such costs are directly allocable to the child or children, and which are the extra costs of covering the child or children beyond whatever coverage the parent providing the coverage would otherwise have, shall be added to the basic child support obligation.

378 F. Any child-care costs incurred on behalf of the child or children due to employment of the 379 custodial parent shall be added to the basic child support obligation. Child-care costs shall not exceed 380 the amount required to provide quality care from a licensed source. When requested by the noncustodial 381 parent, the court may require the custodial parent to present documentation to verify the costs incurred 382 for child care under this subsection. Where appropriate, the court shall consider the willingness and 383 availability of the noncustodial parent to provide child care personally in determining whether child-care 384 costs are necessary or excessive. Upon the request of either party, and upon a showing of the tax 385 savings a party derives from child-care cost deductions or credits, the court shall factor actual tax 386 consequences into its calculation of the child-care costs to be added to the basic child support obligation. 387 G. 1. Sole custody support. The sole custody total monthly child support obligation shall be 388 established by adding (i) the monthly basic child support obligation, as determined from the schedule 389 contained in subsection B, (ii) costs for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E, 390 and (iii) work-related child-care costs and taking into consideration all the factors set forth in subsection 391 B of § 20-108.1. The total monthly child support obligation shall be divided between the parents in the 392 same proportion as their monthly gross incomes bear to their monthly combined gross income. The 393 monthly obligation of each parent shall be computed by multiplying each parent's percentage of the 394 parents' monthly combined gross income by the total monthly child support obligation.

However, the monthly obligation of the noncustodial parent shall be reduced by the cost for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E when paid directly by the noncustodial parent.
Unreimbursed medical and dental expenses shall be calculated and allocated in accordance with subsection D.

399 2. Split custody support. In cases involving split custody, the amount of child support to be paid 400 shall be the difference between the amounts owed by each parent as a noncustodial parent, computed in 401 accordance with subdivision 1, with the noncustodial parent owing the larger amount paying the 402 difference to the other parent. Unreimbursed medical and dental expenses shall be calculated and 403 allocated in accordance with subsection D.

For the purpose of this section and § 20-108.1, split custody shall be limited to those situations where each parent has physical custody of a child or children born of the parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents. For the purposes of calculating a child support obligation where split custody exists, a separate family unit exists for each parent, and child support for that family unit shall be calculated upon the number of children in that family unit who are born of the parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents.

410 Where split custody exists, a parent is a custodial parent to the children in that parent's family unit and 411 is a noncustodial parent to the children in the other parent's family unit.

412 3. Shared custody support.

(a) Where a party has custody or visitation of a child or children for more than 90 days of the year, as such days are defined in subdivision G 3 (c), a shared custody child support amount based on the ratio in which the parents share the custody and visitation of any child or children shall be calculated in accordance with this subdivision. The presumptive support to be paid shall be the shared custody support amount, unless a party affirmatively shows that the sole custody support amount calculated as provided in subdivision G 1 is less than the shared custody support amount. If so, the lesser amount shall be the support to be paid. For the purposes of this subsection, the following shall apply:

(i) Income share. "Income share" means a parent's percentage of the combined monthly gross income of both parents. The income share of a parent is that parent's gross income divided by the combined gross incomes of the parties.

423 (ii) Custody share. "Custody share" means the number of days that a parent has physical custody, 424 whether by sole custody, joint legal or joint residential custody, or visitation, of a shared child per year 425 divided by the number of days in the year. The actual or anticipated "custody share" of the parent who has or will have fewer days of physical custody shall be calculated for a one-year period. The "custody 426 share" of the other parent shall be presumed to be the number of days in the year less the number of 427 428 days calculated as the first parent's "custody share." For purposes of this calculation, the year may begin 429 on such date as is determined in the discretion of the court, and the day may begin at such time as is 430 determined in the discretion of the court. For purposes of this calculation, a day shall be as defined in 431 subdivision G 3 (c).

(iii) Shared support need. "Shared support need" means the presumptive guideline amount of needed support for the shared child or children calculated pursuant to subsection B of this section, for the combined gross income of the parties and the number of shared children, multiplied by 1.4.

435 (iv) Sole custody support. "Sole custody support" means the support amount determined in 436 accordance with subdivision G 1.

437 (b) Support to be paid. The shared support need of the shared child or children shall be calculated 438 pursuant to subdivision G 3 (a) (iii). This amount shall then be multiplied by the other parent's custody 439 share. To that sum for each parent shall be added the other parent's cost of health care coverage to the 440 extent allowable by subsection E, plus the other parent's work-related child-care costs to the extent allowable by subsection F. This total for each parent shall be multiplied by that parent's income share. 441 442 The support amounts thereby calculated that each parent owes the other shall be subtracted one from the 443 other and the difference shall be the shared custody support one parent owes to the other, with the payor 444 parent being the one whose shared support is the larger. Unreimbursed medical and dental expenses 445 shall be calculated and allocated in accordance with subsection D.

(c) Definition of a day. For the purposes of this section, "day" means a period of 24 hours; however, where the parent who has the fewer number of overnight periods during the year has an overnight period with a child, but has physical custody of the shared child for less than 24 hours during such overnight period, there is a presumption that each parent shall be allocated one-half of a day of custody for that period.

(d) Minimum standards. Any calculation under this subdivision shall not create or reduce a support obligation to an amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal adequate housing and provide other basic necessities for the child. If the gross income of either party is equal to or less than 150 percent of the federal poverty level promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services from time to time, then the shared custody support calculated pursuant to this subsection shall not be the presumptively correct support and the court may consider whether the sole custody support or the shared custody support is more just and appropriate.

(e) Support modification. When there has been an award of child support based on the shared custody formula and one parent consistently fails to exercise custody or visitation in accordance with the parent's custody share upon which the award was based, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the support award should be modified.

462 (f) In the event that the shared custody support calculation indicates that the net support is to be paid 463 to the parent who would not be the parent receiving support pursuant to the sole custody calculation, 464 then the shared support shall be deemed to be the lesser support.

H. The Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall ensure that the guideline set out in this section is reviewed by October 31, 2001, and every four years thereafter, by the Child Support Guidelines Review Panel, consisting of 15 members comprised of four legislative members and 11 nonlegislative citizen members. Members shall be appointed as follows: three members of the House Committee for Courts of Justice, upon the recommendation of the chairman of such committee, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Delegates in accordance with the principles of proportional representation contained in the Rules of the House of Delegates; one member of the Senate Committee

472 for Courts of Justice, upon the recommendation of the chairman of such committee, to be appointed by 473 the Senate Committee on Rules; and one representative of a juvenile and domestic relations district 474 court, one representative of a circuit court, one representative of the Department of Social Services' 475 Division of Child Support Enforcement, three members of the Virginia State Bar, two custodial parents, 476 two noncustodial parents, and one child advocate, upon the recommendation of the Secretary of Health 477 and Human Resources, to be appointed by the Governor. The Panel shall determine the adequacy of the 478 guideline for the determination of appropriate awards for the support of children by considering current 479 research and data on the cost of and expenditures necessary for rearing children, and any other resources 480 it deems relevant to such review. The Panel shall report its findings to the General Assembly as 481 provided in the procedures of the Division of Legislative Automated Systems for the processing of 482 legislative documents and reports before the General Assembly next convenes following such review.

483 Legislative members shall serve terms coincident with their terms of office. Nonlegislative citizen 484 members shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. All members may be reappointed. Appointments to 485 fill vacancies, other than by expiration of a term, shall be made for the unexpired terms. Vacancies shall 486 be filled in the same manner as the original appointments.
