pursuant to § 54.1-2105.1; and

62 15.16. Certification, if applicable, that the association has filed with the Real Estate Board the annual 63 report required by § 55-516.1; which certification shall indicate the filing number assigned by the Real
64 Estate Board and the expiration date of such filing.

65 Failure to receive copies of such documents shall not excuse any failure to comply with the 66 provisions thereof.

67 The disclosure packet, once received by the seller from the association, shall be delivered by the seller to the purchaser. The association shall have no obligation to deliver the disclosure packet to the purchaser of the lot. The disclosure packet required by this section, shall not, in and of itself, be deemed a security within the meaning of § 13.1-501.

71 B. The purchaser may submit a copy of the contract to the association with a request for assurance that the information required by this section previously furnished remains materially unchanged, or, if 72 73 there have been material changes, a statement specifying such changes. The purchaser shall be provided 74 with such assurances or such statement within 10 days of the receipt of such request by the association. 75 The purchaser may be required to pay a fee for the preparation and issuance of the requested assurances. The fee shall reflect the actual cost incurred by the association in providing such assurances but shall 76 77 not exceed $0.10 per page of copying costs or a total of $50 for all costs incurred in updating the 78 association disclosure packet. The association may also collect from the purchaser the actual costs incurred of any mailing or delivery requested by the purchaser pursuant to this subsection. In no event, 79 however, shall the association require reimbursement of any costs not expressly authorized in this 80 subsection. Nor shall the association charge any other fee for the preparation or issuance of such 81 association disclosure packet or making such packet available by electronic means except as expressly 82 83 provided in this subsection.

84 C. The association may charge a fee for the preparation and issuance of the disclosure packet 85 required by this section. Any fee shall reflect the actual cost of the preparation of the packet, but shall 86 not exceed $0.10 per page of copying costs or a total of $100 for all costs incurred in preparing the 87 association disclosure packet, except that the association, upon mutual agreement with the seller, may 88 collect for actual costs incurred, in addition to any fee charged pursuant to this subsection (i) a rush fee, 89 not to exceed $25, for furnishing the resale certificate within three business days from the actual receipt 90 of the request; (ii) the actual cost of any mailing or delivery requested by the seller pursuant to this 91 subsection; and (iii) any actual cost incurred at the request and with the consent of the purchaser. 92 Neither the association nor its management agent, if any, shall require cash or certified funds unless the 93 lot owner is delinquent in any payments due to the association in excess of 30 days or if a check of the lot owner made payable to the association was returned for insufficient funds within the last six months. 94 95 In no event, however, shall the association require reimbursement of any costs not expressly authorized 96 in this subsection. Nor shall the association charge any other fee for the preparation or issuance of such 97 association disclosure packet or making such packet available by electronic means except as expressly 98 provided in this subsection.

D. When a disclosure packet has been issued as required by this section, the association shall, as to the purchaser, be bound by the statements set forth therein as to the status of the assessment account and the status of the lot with respect to any violation of any of the instruments referred to in subdivision 102 1213 of subsection A as of the date of the statement unless the purchaser had actual knowledge that the contents of the disclosure packet were in error.

104 E. If the association has been requested to furnish the disclosure packet required by this section and 105 has been paid the appropriate fee, its failure to provide the disclosure packet in substantially the form provided herein within 14 days from the actual receipt of the request by an officer, director or agent of 106 107 the association shall be deemed a waiver of any claim for delinquent assessments or of any violation of 108 the declaration, bylaws, rules and regulations, or architectural guidelines existing as of the date of the request with respect to the subject lot. The association shall be liable to the seller in an amount equal to 109 110 the actual damages sustained by the seller in an amount not to exceed $500. The purchaser shall 111 nevertheless be obligated to abide by the declaration, bylaws, rules and regulations, and architectural 112 guidelines of the association as to all matters arising after the date of the settlement of the sale. The 113 settlement agent, as defined in § 6.1-2.20, when transmitting funds to the association or otherwise upon request, shall provide the association with (i) the name of the seller, (ii) the name and address of the 114 115 purchaser, (iii) the address of the subject property, (iv) the date of settlement, and (v) a brief explanation 116 of the application of any funds transmitted. Providing a copy of the HUD-1 settlement statement, unless 117 otherwise prohibited, shall satisfy these requirements.

118 F. The contract disclosures required by § 55-511 and the disclosure packet required by this section need not be provided in the case of:

120 1. A disposition of a lot by gift;

SB964

- 121 2. A disposition of a lot pursuant to court order if the court so directs; 122
 - 3. A disposition of a lot by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure;
- 123 4. A disposition of a lot that is zoned for or otherwise restricted to nonresidential use; or 124 5. A disposition of a lot to a person or entity who is not acquiring the lot for his own residence or 125 for the construction thereon of a dwelling unit to be occupied as his own residence, unless requested by 126 such person or entity. If such disclosures are not requested, a statement in the contract of sale that the 127 purchaser is not acquiring the lot for such purpose shall be conclusive and may be relied upon by the 128 seller of the lot. The person or entity acquiring the lot shall nevertheless be obligated to abide by the 129 declaration, bylaws, rules and regulations, and architectural guidelines of the association as to all 130 matters.

131 G. In any transaction in which a disclosure packet is required and a trustee acts as the seller in the 132 sale or resale of a lot, the trustee shall obtain the disclosure packet from the association and provide the 133 packet to the purchaser.

§ 55-513.1. Flag display; necessary supporting structures; affirmative defense.

136 A. Unless specifically prohibited by the association's rules and regulations or architectural guidelines 137 provided in the disclosure packet required pursuant to § 55-512, the association shall not prohibit any lot 138 owner from displaying the flag of (i) the United States, (ii) the Commonwealth, (iii) any active branch 139 of the armed forces of the United States, or (iv) any military valor or service award of the United 140 States. For the purposes of this subsection, displaying the flag shall include the display of flags on 141 mailboxes or similar structures.

142 B. In any action brought by the association under § 55-513, the lot owner shall be entitled to assert 143 as an affirmative defense that the required disclosure of any limitations pertaining to the display of flags 144 or any flagpole or similar structure necessary to display such flags was not contained in the disclosure 145 packet required pursuant to § 55-512. 146

§ 55-513.2. Display of political signs.

147 A. Except as provided in subsection B or as otherwise expressly provided in the declaration, no 148 declaration or association's rules and regulations or architectural guidelines shall restrict or prohibit 149 the display by a lot owner on his lot of a candidate sign or a sign that advertises the support or defeat 150 of any question submitted to the voters in accordance with Title 24.2. For the purposes of this section, 151 "candidate sign" means a sign on behalf of a candidate for public office or a slate of candidates for 152 public office.

153 B. An association may restrict the display of such signs (i) in the common areas or (ii) in 154 accordance with federal or state law. An association may establish reasonable restrictions as to the size, 155 place, duration, and manner of placement or display of such signs, except that no restriction on the 156 duration of the display of such signs shall be less than (a) 30 days before the primary election, general 157 election or vote on the proposition or (b) seven days after the primary election, general election, or vote

158 on the proposition.
