SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 327
AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
(Proposed by the Senate Committee on Rules on February 2, 2007)

(Patrons Prior to Substitute— Senators Puller and Quayle [SJR 363])

Continuing the Joint Subcommittee to Study the Commonwealth's Program for Prisoner Reentry to Society. Report.

WHEREAS, Senate Joint Resolution No. 273 (2005) established the Joint Subcommittee to study the Commonwealth's program for prisoner reentry to society; and

WHEREAS, the joint subcommittee was directed to continue the work of the Prisoner Reentry Policy Academy and to identify and develop strategies that address the essential needs of offenders prior to and upon release from prison to reduce the incidence of reincarceration and increase the success of their reintegration into the community; and

WHEREAS, Senate Joint Resolution No. 126 (2006) last continued the study and Senate Joint Resolution 95 (2006) was incorporated to direct the joint subcommittee to complete its work and to identify and develop strategies to overcome the adverse effects of incarceration on children, families, communities, and the economy and monitor any budget provisions and changes in the law recommended over the past year to ensure maximum effectiveness; and

WHEREAS, with the incorporation of Senate Joint Resolution 95 (2006), the joint subcommittee was also charged with comparing the overall benefits with the costs of incarcerating nonviolent offenders, determining whether the current sentencing system, together with statutory mandatory minimum sentences and prosecutorial practices, provided appropriate punishment without over-reliance on incarceration, and evaluating the extent to which racial and ethnic disparity can be reduced in the criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, the National Governors Association launched the Prisoner Reentry State Policy Academy (Policy Academy) in 2003, and Virginia was selected to participate in the program; and

WHEREAS, participation in the Policy Academy has initiated the Virginia prisoner reentry planning process, and the Governor has established the Virginia Prisoner Reentry Policy Academy by Executive Order 22 (2006); and

WHEREAS, an increasing number of prisoners return to the community unprepared for reintegration and poorly connected to their community-based social structures, are more likely to have health or substance abuse problems, and face limited availability of jobs, housing, and social services; and

WHEREAS, returning prisoners may generate greater costs to communities, including costs associated with crime and public safety, greater public health risks, and high rates of unemployment and homelessness; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Prisoner Reentry Policy Academy has established several pilot programs to evaluate the effectiveness of programs and services for prisoners reentering society, and the joint subcommittee has issued several proposals for public discussion to address issues and concerns that recently released prisoners face; and

WHEREAS, the results of the pilot programs, upon which the joint subcommittee plans to build its recommendations together with responses to its proposals, will be available in the summer of 2007; and

WHEREAS, the joint subcommittee needs additional time to confer with representatives of the Virginia Prisoner Reentry Policy Academy and to synthesize the recommendations and its proposals prior to determining the necessity for policy, fiscal, and legislative changes; and

WHEREAS, incarceration and issues facing prisoners returning to society affect all elements of society within the Commonwealth and its economy, and it is prudent to evaluate the probable efficacy and appropriateness of proposed policies and programs; now, therefore, be it
