SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 431

Agreed to by the Senate, January 17, 2007
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, January 19, 2007

WHEREAS, Eleanor Rogers White, a beloved, respected, and active citizen, is recognized for her exemplary life and service to the community of Annandale on the occasion of her 100th birthday; and

WHEREAS, born on February 2, 1907, in Franconia, Eleanor White will happily celebrate her 100th birthday with her family and friends; and

WHEREAS, Eleanor Rogers married Lloyd Franklin White in Washington, D.C., on August 10, 1930, and the couple had three wonderful children, Donald, Charlotte, and Kenneth, and were blessed with 11 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and to date two great-great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, devoted to her family and especially attentive to its young members, Eleanor White, an accomplished bridge player, taught most of her grandchildren to play a variety of card games; and

WHEREAS, an avid gardener and lover of flowers who specialized in the growing of chrysanthemums and who had a special purple variety of gladiola named in her honor, Eleanor White was asked by the Annandale Florist to supply its shop with her beautiful specimens; and

WHEREAS, over the years, Eleanor White has been an enthusiastic participant in the Fairfax County Fair Food Contest and has won blue ribbons for nearly all of her entries; and

WHEREAS, Eleanor White, a faithful member of Annandale United Methodist Church, has been active in its many missions, and has proven invaluable in raising the funds to build and improve the church in its service to the community; and

WHEREAS, committed to her community, Eleanor White has been an inspiration to her family and her many admirers in Annandale, who continue to benefit from her wisdom and experience; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby congratulate Eleanor Rogers White on a century of love and commitment to her family and her fellow citizens; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Eleanor Rogers White as an expression of the General Assembly's best wishes for future health and happiness.
