Offered January 23, 2007

Celebrating the life of Helen Talbert Huber.

Patrons—Bell and Edwards; Delegates: Nutter and Shuler

WHEREAS, Helen Talbert Huber, a respected citizen of Blacksburg, died on January 15, 2007; and WHEREAS, Helen Huber was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, to Herbert and Elizabeth Talbert and raised in Russiaville, Indiana; and

WHEREAS, Helen Huber graduated with honors from DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana, where she later served on the faculty in the Department of Psychology and the Bureau of Testing and Research; and

WHEREAS, a woman of many talents and interests, Helen Huber worked as an administrator at F.W.
Dodge Corporation in New York City; Secretary to the Post Exchange Officer at Quantico, Virginia; a radio disc jockey in Jacksonville, North Carolina; administrator of the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act program in the school system in New Rochelle, New York; and as a legal secretary in several law firms in White Plains, New York; and

WHEREAS, a gifted writer, Helen Huber was co-author of Homemaker/Home Health Aide, still a standard text for home care aide courses and programs; and

WHEREAS, known for her great charm and quick wit, Helen Huber will be sorely missed by her husband, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and many other family members and friends;
now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the passing of a fine Virginian, Helen Talbert Huber; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Helen Talbert Huber as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for her memory.
