In addition, the bill authorizes the Governor to provide financial assistance to Virginia state agencies and political subdivisions that provide emergency aid to another state. 8. Fiscal implications: According to the Office of Commonwealth Preparedness, the fiscal impact of the proposed legislation would be negligible. The Commonwealth Preparedness Office will absorb this additional cost.

Regarding the mutual aid and sum sufficient language modifications, a fiscal impact is not expected since the Governor already has the authority to enter into mutual aid agreements with other states.
