9 Prior to disposition of assets, any nonprofit entity shall provide to the Attorney General written 10 notice, on a form provided by the Attorney General, of its intent to dispose of such assets, including the 11 terms of the proposal. The notice shall be given at least 60 days in advance of the effective date of such 12 proposed transaction in order that the Attorney General may exercise his common law and statutory 13 authority over the activities of these organizations. The Attorney General may employ expert assistance
14 in reviewing any proposed transaction and such reasonable expenses incurred by the Attorney General 15 shall be paid by a party to the proposed transaction.

16 Within 10 days of receipt of the notice from the entity, the Attorney General shall cause a public 17 notice of the transaction to be published in a newspaper in which legal notices may be published in that 18 jurisdiction.

27 §§ 38.2-203 and 38.2-1322 through 38.2-1328 and subdivision A 1 of § 38.2-4316. Such notice need not 31 referenced herein will not be able to meet its obligations to subscribers or enrollees.
