6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That § 19.2-319 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 19.2-319. When execution of sentence to be suspended; bail; appeal from denial.

9 If a person sentenced by a circuit court to death or confinement in the state correctional facility 10 indicates an intention to apply for a writ of error, the circuit court shall postpone the execution of such 11 sentence for such time as it may deem proper.

12 In any other criminal case wherein judgment is given by any court to which a writ of error lies, and 13 in any case of judgment for any civil or criminal contempt, from which an appeal may be taken or to 14 which a writ of error lies, the court giving such judgment may postpone the execution thereof for such 15 time and on such terms as it deems proper.

16 In any case after conviction if the sentence, or the execution thereof, is suspended in accordance with 17 this section, or for any other cause, the court, or the judge thereof, may, and in any case of a 18 misdemeanor shall, set bail in such penalty and for appearance at such time as the nature of the case 19 may require; provided that, if the conviction was for a violent felony as defined in § 19.2-297.1 and the 20 defendant was sentenced to serve a period of incarceration not subject to suspension, then the court shall 21 presume, subject to rebuttal, that no condition or combination of conditions of bail will reasonably 22 assure the appearance of the convicted person or the safety of the public.

23 In any case in which the court denies bail, the reason for such denial shall be stated on the record of 24 the case. A writ of error from the Court of Appeals shall lie to any such judgment refusing bail or 25 requiring excessive bail, except that in any case where a person has been sentenced to death, a writ of 26 error shall lie from the Supreme Court. Upon review by the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court, if 27 the decision by the trial court to deny bail is overruled, the appellate court shall either set bail or 28 remand the matter to circuit court for such further action regarding bail as the appellate court directs.
