| 10 | Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: |
| 11 | 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 18.2-67.9:1 as follows: |
| 12 | § 18.2-67.9:1. Use of videotaped statements of complaining witnesses as evidence. |
| 13 14 | A. In any criminal proceeding involving alleged abuse or neglect of a child pursuant to this article or Article A (§ 18.2.362 at sec.) of Chapter 8 of this title a recording of a statement of the alleged |
| 14 | or Article 4 (§ 18.2-362 et seq.) of Chapter 8 of this title, a recording of a statement of the alleged victim of the offense, made prior to the proceeding, may be admitted, subject to other rules governing |
| 16 | the admissibility of evidence, if the requirements of subsection B are met and the court determines that: |
| 17 | 1. The alleged victim is 12 years of age or younger at the time the statement is made; |
| 18 | 2. The recording has both a visual and an oral component, and every person appearing in, and |
| 19 20 | every voice recorded on, the tape is identified; 3. The recording is on videotape or was recorded by other electronic means capable of making an |
| 20 21 | accurate recording; |
| 22 | 4. The recording has not been altered, except as may be directed by the court; |
| 23 | 5. No attorney for any party to the proceeding was present in the interview room when the statement |
| 24 | was made; |
| 25 26 | 6. The person conducting the interview of the alleged victim was a mental health professional or mental service provider as defined in § 54.1-2400.1, or a social worker as defined in § 54.1-3700; |
| 2 7 | 7. All persons participating in the interview are available to testify or be cross-examined at the |
| 28 | proceeding when the recording is offered; and |
| 29 20 | 8. The alleged victim testifies at the proceeding, either in person or by means of closed-circuit |
| 30 31 | television. B. Following the testimony of the alleged victim, either party may seek to introduce the recording, |
| 32 | subject to the judge's discretion that the interview was administered in conformity with accepted |
| 33 | professional standards of practice for interviews of child victims. |
| 34 | C. The recorded statement may be introduced for evidentiary purposes but may not be introduced as |
| 35 36 | independent evidence of a crime. D. A recorded statement may not be admitted under this section unless the proponent of the |
| 30 37 | recording notifies the adverse party of his intent to offer the recording at least 10 days prior to the |
| 38 | proceeding and the adverse party is given sufficient and timely opportunity to view the recording and |
| 39 | make objections before it is shown at the proceeding. The attorney for the Commonwealth must disclose |
| 40 | to the defendant the existence of any such recording and all exculpatory information contained therein. |
