1	HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 181
2	Offered January 9, 2008
3	Prefiled January 9, 2008
4	Proposing an amendment to Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia, relating to districts
5	for the House of Representatives and General Assembly and establishment of the Virginia
6	Redistricting Commission.
7
0	Patron—Barlow
8 9	Referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections
10
11	RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, a majority of the members elected to
12	each house agreeing. That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same
13	hereby is, proposed and referred to the General Assembly at its first regular session held after the next
14	general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the
15	provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:
16	Amend Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia as follows:
17	ARTICLE II
18 19	FRANCHISE AND OFFICERS Section 6. Apportionment Districts for the House of Representatives and General Assembly; the Virginia
20	Redistricting Commission.
2 1	(a) Members of the House of Representatives of the United States and members of the Senate and of
22	the House of Delegates of the General Assembly shall be elected from electoral districts established by
23	the General Assembly Virginia Redistricting Commission. Every electoral district shall be composed of
24	contiguous and compact territory and shall be so constituted as to give, as nearly as is practicable,
25	representation in proportion to the population of the district. The General Assembly shall reapportion the
26	Commonwealth into electoral districts in accordance with this section in the year 2011 and every ten
27 28	years thereafter. Any such reapportionment law shall take effect immediately and not be subject to the limitations
20 29	contained in Article IV, Section 13, of this Constitution.
30	(b) After the next and every subsequent decennial census of the United States, the districts for the
31	House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates shall be established, and the members of the
32	House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates shall be apportioned among the districts,
33	respectively, by the Virginia Redistricting Commission.
34	(c) The Commission shall consist of eleven members. The members of the Commission, including one
35 36	member to serve as chairman, shall be appointed by the most recently retired chief justice of the Virginia Supreme Court. There shall be one member appointed from each congressional district if
30 37	Virginia has eleven congressional districts, or with due consideration to geographic diversity if there are
38	more or fewer congressional districts. If the most recently retired chief justice declines to make
39	appointments, the most recently retired justice who agrees to make the appointments shall do so.
40	(d) Persons appointed to the Commission shall be retired justices or judges of the Supreme Court,
41	Court of Appeals, or courts of record of the Commonwealth. No person shall be appointed to the
42	Commission who is engaged in the active practice of law, who is a member, appointee, or employee of
43 44	the Congress of the United States or the General Assembly, or who is older than eighty years at the time of appointment. Persons who serve on the Commission shall be ineligible thereafter to be
45	appointed, confirmed, elected, or employed by the General Assembly to or in any position or office.
46	(e) Appointments to the Commission shall be made on or before December 1 of the year in which
47	such census is taken and shall be certified to the Secretary of the Commonwealth on or before
48	December 15 of that year.
49	(f) Vacancies in the membership of the Commission occurring prior to the certification by the
50	Commission of the districts for the House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates or during
51	any period in which the districts established by the Commission may be or are under challenge in court
52 53	shall be filled within five days of their occurrence in the same manner as the original appointments were made.
55 54	(g) The Commission shall meet to organize as soon as may be practicable after certification of the
55	appointments of its members, but not later than January 1 of the year following the year in which the
56	census is taken. At the organizational meeting the members of the Commission shall determine such
57	organizational matters as they deem appropriate. Thereafter, a meeting of the Commission may be
58	called by the chairman or upon the request of six members, and six members of the Commission shall

59 constitute a quorum at any meeting thereof for the purpose of taking any action.

60 (h) The Commission, by a majority of the whole number of its members, shall certify the 61 establishment of Senate and House of Delegates districts and the apportionment of members of the 62 Senate and the House of Delegates, respectively, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth within thirty 63 days after the Governor receives the official United States decennial census for Virginia.

(i) The Commission, by a majority of the whole number of its members, shall certify the establishment of House of Representatives districts to the Secretary of the Commonwealth within sixty days after the Governor receives the official United States decennial census for Virginia.

(j) The Commission, convened in an open public meeting and by a majority of the whole number of 67 its members, shall certify the establishment of districts. The Commission shall give at least 68 69 twenty-four-hours' public notice of the meeting. Any vote by the Commission upon a proposal to certify 70 the establishment of a district plan shall be taken by roll call and shall be recorded, and the vote of any 71 member in favor of any district plan shall nullify any vote which that member shall previously have cast 72 during the life of the Commission in favor of a different district plan. If the Commission is unable to 73 certify the establishment of districts by the time required due to the inability of a plan to achieve six 74 votes, the two district plans receiving the greatest number of votes, but not fewer than four votes, shall 75 be submitted to the Supreme Court, which shall select and certify whichever of the two plans so 76 submitted conforms most closely to the requirements of this Constitution and the Constitution and laws 77 of the United States.

(k) The Commission shall hold at least three public hearings in different parts of the Commonwealth on districts for the House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates. The Commission shall, subject to the constraints of time and convenience, review plans for the establishment of districts submitted by members of the public.

82 (1) Meetings of the Commission shall be held at convenient times and locations and, with the 83 exception of the public hearings required by subsection (k) and any meeting at which the establishment 84 of districts is certified as prescribed by subsections (h), (i), and (j), may be closed to the public.

(m) The General Assembly shall appropriate the funds necessary for the efficient operation of the Commission and shall provide that the Division of Legislative Services, or its successor agency, shall serve as staff to the Commission.

(n) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary of this Constitution and except as otherwise required by the Constitution or laws of the United States, no court of the Commonwealth other than the Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction over any judicial proceeding challenging the appointment of members to the Commission, or any action, including the establishment of districts, by the Commission under the provisions of this section.

(0) The districts established for the House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates shall be used thereafter at any general election of members of the House of Representatives, Senate, and House of Delegates and shall remain unaltered through the next year ending in zero in which a federal census for the Commonwealth is taken and until new districts are established in the year following the year ending in zero.

(p) If a plan certified by the Commission is declared unlawful, the Commission shall reorganize and adopt another district plan in the same manner as herein required and within the period of time prescribed by the court or within such shorter period as may be necessary to ensure that the new plan is effective for the next succeeding primary and general election for all members of the United States House of Representatives, Senate, or House of Delegates.

103 (q) The districts delineated in the decennial reapportionment law certified by the Commission shall be implemented for the November general election for the United States House of Representatives, Senate, 104 105 or House of Delegates, respectively, that is held immediately prior to the expiration of the term being served in the year that the reapportionment law is required to be enacted districts are certified by the 106 107 Commission. A member in office at the time that a decennial redistricting law is enacted the districts are 108 certified shall complete his term of office and shall continue to represent the district from which he was 109 elected for the duration of such term of office so long as he does not move his residence from the 110 district from which he was elected. Any vacancy occurring during such term shall be filled from the same district that elected the member whose vacancy is being filled. 111
