§ 24.2-603.1. Postponement of certain elections; state of emergency; extension of polling hours.

A. For purposes of this section, "election" means (i) any local or state referendum, (ii) any primary, special, or general election for local or state office except a general election for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General and the General Assembly, (iii) any primary for federal office including any primary for the nomination of candidates for the office of President of the United States, or (iv) any federal special election to fill a vacancy in the United States Senate or the United States House of Representatives. In the event of a state of emergency declared by the Governor pursuant to Chapter 3.2 (§ 44-146.13 et seq.) of Title 44 or declared by the President of the United States or the governor of another state pursuant to law and confirmed by the Governor by an executive order, the Governor may postpone an election by executive order in areas affected by the emergency to a date, notwithstanding the provisions of § 24.2-682, not to exceed 14 days from the original date of the election.

If a local governing body determines that a longer postponement is required, it may petition a three-judge panel of the Virginia Supreme Court, to include the Chief Justice as the presiding Justice, for an extension. The Chief Justice shall choose the other two Justices by lot. The Court may postpone the election to a date it deems appropriate, notwithstanding the provisions of § 24.2-682, not to exceed 30 days from the original date of the election.

Only those persons duly registered to vote as of the original date of the election shall be entitled to 60 vote in the rescheduled election.

61 If, as a direct result of the emergency, any ballots already cast at the polling places or equipment on 62 which ballots have been cast, or any voted absentee ballots already received by the appropriate election 63 officials or any equipment on which absentee ballots have already been cast have been destroyed or 64 otherwise damaged so that such ballots cannot be counted by the counting device or counted manually,
65 the Governor ~~(i)~~ (a) shall specify that such ballots or votes previously cast by machinery or paper need 66 to be recast on or by the rescheduled election date so that they may be counted and ~~(ii)~~ (b) shall direct 67 the appropriate election officials to immediately send replacement absentee ballots to all absentee voters
68 whose voted ballots are known to have been so destroyed or damaged. Such instructions may be issued
69 by executive order separately from the executive order postponing the election. Any absentee ballots 70 duly cast and received by the rescheduled election date and able to be counted shall be valid and 71 counted when determining the results of the rescheduled election; however, if more than one absentee 72 ballot is received from any voter, only the first absentee ballot received and able to be counted shall be 73 counted. Any person who was duly registered to vote as of the original date of the election, and who 74 has not voted, or who is permitted to recast their ballot due to the emergency, may vote by absentee
75 ballot in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 7 (§ 24.2-700 et seq.) of this title in the rescheduled
76 election. Official ballots shall not be invalidated on the basis that they contain the original election date.

77 If the postponement of the election is ordered after voting at the polls on the original election date
78 has already commenced, all qualified voters in a precinct in which any voted ballots, voting equipment 79 containing voted ballots or pollbooks recording who has already voted in that precinct have been 80 destroyed or damaged as a direct result of the emergency, so that the votes cannot be counted or it 81 cannot be determined who has already voted, shall be allowed to vote in the rescheduled election, and 82 no votes cast at the polls on the original election date shall be counted. If the postponement of the 83 election is ordered after voting at the polls on the original election date has already commenced and no 84 ballots cast at the polls, voting equipment containing voted ballots or pollbooks recording who has 85 already voted in that election in that precinct have been destroyed or damaged as a direct result of the 86 emergency, only qualified voters who had not yet voted shall be eligible to vote on the rescheduled
87 election day and all votes cast on the original and postponed election dates shall be counted at the close 88 of the polls on the rescheduled election day.

89 The provisions of § 24.2-663 requiring the voiding of all ballots received from any voter who votes 90 more than once in the same election shall not apply to ballots otherwise lawfully cast or recast pursuant 91 to this section; however, no more than one ballot may be counted from any voter in the same election.
92 If one ballot has already been counted, any additional ballots from the same voter shall be void and 93 shall not be counted. The provisions of § 24.2-1004 or any other law prohibiting any voter from voting
94 more than once in the same election, or any oath attesting to the same, shall not apply to ballots
95 otherwise lawfully cast or recast pursuant to this section.

96 No results shall be tallied or votes counted in any postponed election before the closing of the polls
97 on the rescheduled election date. Officers of election in unaffected areas shall count and report the 98 results for the postponed election after the close of the polls on the rescheduled election date. The 99 counting may take place at the precinct or another location determined by the local electoral board.

100 B. In the event of a state of emergency declared by the Governor pursuant to Chapter 3.2
101 (§ 44-146.13 et seq.) of Title 44 or declared by the President of the United States or the governor of 102 another state pursuant to law and confirmed by the Governor by an executive order, or a disaster or 103 emergency circumstance not constituting a declared state of emergency that directly interferes with the 104 electoral process or that interferes with the right or ability of voters to travel to the polls, the Secretary
105 of the State Board of Elections or the state chair of a political party may petition the Circuit Court for 106 the City of Richmond or the circuit court in an affected county, city, or town to extend the hours for 107 which the polls shall be open in the affected region.

108 1. A court may extend the hours that the polls will remain open, for a time determined by the court
109 to be appropriate to address the circumstances, for any geographic area, provided that such a 110 determination results in the same closing time for all precincts within each affected county, city, or 111 town. The court order shall also have the effect of extending all other postelection deadlines specified in 112 this chapter for an equivalent period of time in each affected county, city, or town. The court order 113 shall be issued no later than one hour before the closing time in effect for the affected polls at that 114 time. In no event shall the closing time be extended by more than four hours.

115 2. The circuit court shall notify each affected local electoral board that the hours that the polls shall 116 remain open shall be extended, which notice shall show: the nature of the emergency; the localities
117 affected thereby; and the new time that the polls shall close.

118 C. The State Board shall prescribe appropriate procedures to implement this section.
