4 Approved

5 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:6 1. That § 22.1-207.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

7 § 22.1-207.1. Family life education.

8 The Board of Education shall develop by December 1, 1987, standards of learning and curriculum
9 guidelines for a comprehensive, sequential family life education curriculum in grades K through 12.
10 Such curriculum guidelines shall include instruction as appropriate for the age of the student in family 11 living and community relationships; the benefits, challenges, responsibilities, and value of marriage for 12 men, women, children, and communities; abstinence education; the value of postponing sexual activity;
13 the benefits of adoption as a positive choice in the event of an unwanted pregnancy; human sexuality;
14 human reproduction; dating violence, the characteristics of abusive relationships, steps to take to avoid 15 sexual assault, and the availability of counseling and legal resources, and, in the event of such sexual 16 assault, the importance of immediate medical attention and advice, as well as the requirements of the 17 law; the etiology, prevention and effects of sexually transmitted diseases; and mental health education
18 and awareness.

19 All such instruction shall be designed to promote parental involvement, foster positive self concepts
20 and provide mechanisms for coping with peer pressure and the stresses of modern living according to 21 the students' developmental stages and abilities. The Board shall also establish requirements for 22 appropriate training for teachers of family life education, which shall include training in instructional
23 elements to support the various curriculum components.

24 For the purposes of this section, "abstinence education" means an educational or motivational
25 component which has as its exclusive purpose teaching the social, psychological, and health gains to be 26 realized by teenagers' abstaining from sexual activity before marriage.
