Offered January 14, 2009

Prefiled January 12, 2009

A BILL to amend and reenact § 8.01-407 of the Code of Virginia, relating to elected or appointed officials; limit on attorney-issued subpoenas.

Patrons—Shannon; Senator: Petersen

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That § 8.01-407 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 8.01-407. How summons for witness issued, and to whom directed; prior permission of court to summon certain officials and judges; attendance before commissioner of other state; attorney-issued summons.

A. A summons may be issued, directed as prescribed in § 8.01-292, commanding the officer to summon any person to attend on the day and at the place that such attendance is desired, to give evidence before a court, grand jury, arbitrators, magistrate, notary, or any commissioner or other person appointed by a court or acting under its process or authority in a judicial or quasi-judicial capacity. The summons may be issued by the clerk of the court if the attendance is desired at a court or in a proceeding pending in a court. The clerk shall not impose any time restrictions limiting the right to properly request a summons up to and including the date of the proceeding:

If attendance is desired before a commissioner in chancery or other commissioner of a court, the summons may be issued by the clerk of the court in which the matter is pending, or by such commissioner in chancery or other commissioner;

If attendance is desired before a notary or other officer taking a deposition, the summons may be issued by such notary or other officer at the instance of the attorney desiring the attendance of the person sought;

If attendance is sought before a grand jury, the summons may be issued by the attorney for the Commonwealth, or the clerk of the court, at the instance of the attorney for the Commonwealth.

Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if attendance is desired in a civil proceeding pending in a court or at a deposition in connection with such proceeding, including medical malpractice review panels, and a claim before the Workers' Compensation Commission, a summons may be issued by an attorney-at-law who is an active member of the Virginia State Bar at the time of issuance, as an officer of the court. An attorney-issued summons shall be on a form approved by the Supreme Court, signed by the attorney and shall include the attorney's address. The summons and any transmittal sheet shall be deemed to be a pleading to which the provisions of § 8.01-271.1 shall apply. A copy of the summons and, if served by a sheriff, all service of process fees, shall be mailed or delivered to the clerk's office of the court in which the case is pending or the Workers' Compensation Commission, as applicable, on the day of issuance by the attorney. The law governing summonses issued by a clerk shall apply mutatis mutandis. When an attorney-at-law transmits one or more attorney-issued subpoenas to a sheriff to be served in his jurisdiction, such subpoenas shall be accompanied by a transmittal sheet. The transmittal sheet, which may be in the form of a letter, shall contain for each subpoena: (i) the person to be served, (ii) the name of the city or county in which the subpoena is to be served, in parentheses, (iii) the style of the case in which the subpoena was issued, (iv) the court in which the case is pending, and (v) the amount of fees tendered or paid to each clerk in whose court the case is pending together with a photocopy of the payment instrument or clerk's receipt. If copies of the same transmittal sheet are used to send subpoenas to more than one sheriff for service of process, then subpoenas shall be grouped by the jurisdiction in which they are to be served. For each person to be served, an original subpoena and copy thereof shall be included. If the attorney desires a return copy of the transmittal sheet as proof of receipt, he shall also enclose an additional copy of the transmittal sheet together with an envelope addressed to the attorney with sufficient first class postage affixed. Upon receipt of such transmittal, the transmittal sheet shall be date-stamped and, if the extra copy and above-described envelope are provided, the copy shall also be date-stamped and returned to the attorney-at-law in the above-described envelope.

However, when such transmittal does not comply with the provisions of this section, the sheriff may promptly return such transmittal if accompanied by a short description of such noncompliance. An attorney may not issue a summons in any of the following civil proceedings: (i) habeas corpus under Article 3 (§ 8.01-654 et seq.) of Chapter 25 of this title, (ii) delinquency or abuse and neglect proceedings under Article 3 (§ 16.1-241 et seq.) of Chapter 11 of Title 16.1, (iii) issuance of a

59 protective order pursuant to Article 4 (§ 16.1-246 et seq.) or Article 9 (§ 16.1-278 et seq.) of Chapter 11
60 of Title 16.1, or Chapter 9.1 (§ 19.2-152.8 et seq.) of Title 19.2, (iv) civil forfeiture proceedings, (v)
61 habitual offender proceedings under Article 9 (§ 46.2-351 et seq.) of Chapter 3 of Title 46.2, (vi)
62 administrative license suspension pursuant to § 46.2-391.2 and (vii) petition for writs of mandamus or 63 prohibition in connection with criminal proceedings. A sheriff shall not be required to serve an 64 attorney-issued subpoena that is not issued at least five business days prior to the date that attendance is 65 desired.

66 In other cases, if attendance is desired, the summons may be issued by the clerk of the circuit court
67 of the county or city in which the attendance is desired.

68 A summons shall express on whose behalf, and in what case or about what matter, the witness is to 69 attend. Failure to respond to any such summons shall be punishable by the court in which the 70 proceeding is pending as for contempt. When any subpoena is served less than five calendar days before
71 appearance is required, the court may, after considering all of the circumstances, refuse to enforce the 72 subpoena for lack of adequate notice. If any subpoena is served less than five calendar days before
73 appearance is required upon any judicial officer generally incompetent to testify pursuant to § 19.2-271,
74 such subpoena shall be without legal force or effect unless the subpoena has been issued by a judge.

75 B. No subpoena shall, without permission of the court first obtained, issue for the attendance (i) of 76 the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Attorney General of this Commonwealth, a judge of any court
77 thereof; the President or Vice President of the United States; any member of the President's Cabinet; any 78 ambassador or consul; or any military officer on active duty holding the rank of admiral or general; or
79 (ii) of any other elected or appointed official of a public body, as that term is defined in § 2.2-3701, not
80 listed in clause (i) unless the subject matter of the subpoena is unrelated to his official duties.

81 C. This section shall be deemed to authorize a summons to compel attendance of a citizen of the 82 Commonwealth before commissioners or other persons appointed by authority of another state when the 83 summons requires the attendance of such witness at a place not out of his county or city.
