HOUSE BILL NO. 2160AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE(Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice on January 26, 2009)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Delegate Toscano)

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 16.1-277.01, 16.1-277.02, and 16.1-278.3 of the Code of Virginia and to amend the Code of Virginia by adding sections numbered 16.1-283.1, 63.2-1228.1, and 63.2-1228.2, relating to post-adoption contact and communication.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 16.1-277.01, 16.1-277.02, and 16.1-278.3 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding sections numbered 16.1-283.1, 63.2-1228.1, and 63.2-1228.2 as follows:

§ 16.1-277.01. Approval of entrustment agreement.

A. In any case in which a child has been entrusted pursuant to § 63.2-903 or § 63.2-1817 to the local board of social services or to a child welfare agency, a petition for approval of the entrustment agreement by the board or agency:

1. Shall be filed within a reasonable period of time, no later than eighty-nine days after the execution of an entrustment agreement for less than ninety days, if the child is not returned to the caretaker from whom he was entrusted within that period;

2. Shall be filed within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed thirty days after the execution of an entrustment agreement for ninety days or longer or for an unspecified period of time, if such entrustment agreement does not provide for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child; and

3. May be filed in the case of a permanent entrustment agreement which provides for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child.

The board or agency shall file a foster care plan pursuant to § 16.1-281 to be heard with any petition for approval of an entrustment agreement.

B. Upon the filing of a petition for approval of an entrustment agreement pursuant to subsection A of § 16.1-241, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child in accordance with the provisions of § 16.1-266, and shall schedule the matter for a hearing to be held as follows: within forty-five days of the filing of a petition pursuant to subdivision A 1, A 2 or A 3 of this section, except where an order of publication has been ordered by the court, in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-five days of the filing of the petition. The court shall provide notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to the following, each of whom shall be a party entitled to participate in the proceeding:

1. The local board of social services or child welfare agency;

2. The child, if he is twelve years of age or older;

3. The guardian ad litem for the child; and

4. The child's parents, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis to the child.

No such notification shall be required, however, if the judge certifies on the record that the identity of the parent or guardian is not reasonably ascertainable. A birth father shall be given notice of the proceedings if he is an acknowledged father pursuant to § 20-49.1, adjudicated pursuant to § 20-49.8, or presumed pursuant to § 63.2-1202, or has registered with the Putative Father Registry pursuant Article 7 (§ 63.2-1249 et seq.). An affidavit of the mother that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. Failure to register with the Putative Father Registry pursuant to Article 7 (§ 63.2-1249 et seq.) of Chapter 12 of Title 63.2 shall be evidence that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable. The hearing shall be held and an order may be entered, although a parent, guardian, legal custodian or person standing in loco parentis fails to appear and is not represented by counsel, provided personal or substituted service was made on the person, or the court determines that such person cannot be found, after reasonable effort, or in the case of a person who is without the Commonwealth, the person cannot be found or his post office address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort. However, when a petition seeks approval of a permanent entrustment agreement which provides for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child, a summons shall be served upon the parent or parents and the other parties specified in § 16.1-263. The summons or notice of hearing shall clearly state the consequences of a termination of residual parental rights. Service shall be made pursuant to § 16.1-264. The remaining parent's parental rights may be terminated even though that parent has not entered into an entrustment agreement if the court finds, based upon clear and convincing evidence, that it is in the best interest of the child and that (i) the 60 identity of the parent is not reasonably ascertainable; (ii) the identity and whereabouts of the parent are 61 known or reasonably ascertainable, and the parent is personally served with notice of the termination 62 proceeding pursuant to § 8.01-296 or § 8.01-320; (iii) the whereabouts of the parent are not reasonably 63 ascertainable and the parent is given notice of the termination proceedings by certified or registered mail 64 to the last known address and such parent fails to object to the proceedings within 15 days of the 65 mailing of such notice; or (iv) the whereabouts of the parent are not reasonably ascertainable and the 66 parent is given notice of the termination proceedings through an order of publication pursuant to 67 §§ 8.01-316 and 8.01-317, and such parent fails to object to the proceedings.

68 C. At the hearing held pursuant to this section, the court shall hear evidence on the petition filed and 69 shall review the foster care plan for the child filed by the local board or child welfare agency in 70 accordance with § 16.1-281.

71 D. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall make a finding, based upon a preponderance of 72 the evidence, whether approval of the entrustment agreement is in the best interest of the child.
73 However, if the petition seeks approval of a permanent entrustment agreement which provides for the 74 termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child, the court shall make a 75 finding, based upon clear and convincing evidence, whether termination of parental rights is in the best 76 interest of the child. If the court makes either of these findings, the court may make any of the orders of 77 disposition permitted in a case involving an abused or neglected child pursuant to § 16.1-278.2. Any 78 such order transferring legal custody of the child shall be made in accordance with the provisions of 79 subdivision A 5 of § 16.1-278.2 and shall be subject to the provisions of subsection D1 of this section.
80 This order shall include, but need not be limited to, the following findings: (i) that there is no less 81 drastic alternative to granting the requested relief; and (ii) that reasonable efforts have been made to 82 prevent removal and that continued placement in the home would be contrary to the welfare of the 83 child, if the order transfers legal custody of the child to a local board of social services. At any time 84 subsequent to the transfer of legal custody of the child pursuant to this section, a birth parent or 85 parents of the child and the pre-adoptive parent or parents may enter into a written post-adoption 86 contact and communication agreement in accordance with the provisions of §§ 16.1-283.1 and 87 63.2-1228.1. The court shall not require a written post-adoption contact and communication agreement 88 as a precondition to entry of an order in any case involving the child.

89 The effect of the court's order approving a permanent entrustment agreement is to terminate an 90 entrusting parent's residual parental rights. Any order terminating parental rights shall be accompanied 91 by an order (i) continuing or granting custody to a local board of social services or to a licensed 92 child-placing agency or (ii) granting custody or guardianship to a relative or other interested individual.
93 Such an order continuing or granting custody to a local board of social services or to a licensed 94 child-placing agency shall indicate whether that board or agency shall have the authority to place the 95 child for adoption and consent thereto. A final order terminating parental rights pursuant to this section 96 renders the approved entrustment agreement irrevocable. Such order may be appealed in accordance with 97 the provisions of § 16.1-296.

98 D1. Any order transferring custody of the child to a relative or other interested individual pursuant to 99 subsection D of this section shall be entered only upon a finding, based upon a preponderance of the 100 evidence, that the relative or other interested individual is one who (i) after an investigation as directed 101 by the court, is found by the court to be willing and qualified to receive and care for the child; (ii) is 102 willing to have a positive, continuous relationship with the child; (iii) is committed to providing a 103 permanent, suitable home for the child; and (iv) is willing and has the ability to protect the child from 104 abuse and neglect; and the order shall so state. The court's order transferring custody to a relative or 105 other interested individual should further provide for, as appropriate, any terms and conditions which 106 would promote the child's interest and welfare; ongoing provision of social services to the child and the 107 child's custodian; and court review of the child's placement.

108 E. The local board or licensed child-placing agency to which authority is given to place the child for 109 adoption and consent thereto after an order terminating parental rights is entered pursuant to this section
110 shall file a written Adoption Progress Report with the juvenile court on the progress being made to 111 place the child in an adoptive home. The report shall be filed with the court every six months from the 112 date of the final order terminating parental rights until a final order of adoption is entered on behalf of 113 the child in the circuit court. At the conclusion of the hearing at which termination of parental rights is 114 ordered and authority is given to the local board or licensed child-placing agency to place the child for 115 adoption, the juvenile court shall schedule a date by which the board or agency shall file the first 116 Adoption Progress Report required by this section. A copy of the Adoption Progress Report shall be
117 sent by the court to the guardian ad litem for the child. The court may schedule a hearing on the report 118 with or without the request of a party.

119 § 16.1-277.02. Petition for relief of care and custody.

120 A. Requests for petitions for relief of the care and custody of a child shall be referred initially to the 121 local department of social services for investigation and the provision of services, if appropriate, in accordance with the provisions of § 63.2-319 or Chapter 15 (§ 63.2-1500 et seq.) of Title 63.2. Upon the filing of a petition for relief of a child's care and custody pursuant to subdivision A 4 of § 16.1-241, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child in accordance with the provisions of § 16.1-266, and shall schedule the matter for a hearing on the petition. Such hearing on the petition may include partial or final disposition of the matter. The court shall provide notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to the following, each of whom shall be a party entitled to participate in the proceeding:

1. The child, if he is twelve years of age or older;
2. The guardian ad litem for the child;
3. The child's parents, custodian or other person standing in loco parentis to the child. No such notification shall be required, however, if the judge certifies on the record that the identity of the parent is not reasonably ascertainable. An affidavit of the mother that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The hearing on the petition shall be held pursuant to this section although a parent fails to appear and is not represented by counsel, provided personal or substituted service was made on the parent, or the court determines that such person cannot be found, after reasonable effort, or in the case of a person who is without the Commonwealth, the person cannot be found or his post office address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort. However, in the case of a hearing to grant a petition for permanent relief of custody and terminate a parent's residual parental rights, notice to the parent whose rights may be affected shall be provided in accordance with the provisions of §§ 16.1-263 and 16.1-264; and

4. The local board of social services. Upon receiving notice of the hearing pursuant to this section, the local board of social services shall investigate the matter and provide services, as appropriate, in accordance with the provisions of § 63.2-319 or Chapter 15 (§ 63.2-1500 et seq.) of Title 63.2.

B. At the hearing, the local board of social services, the child, the child's parents, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis and any other family or household member of the child to whom notice was given shall have the right to confront and cross-examine all adverse witnesses and evidence and to present evidence on their own behalf.

C. At the conclusion of the hearing on the petition, the court shall make a finding, based upon a preponderance of the evidence, whether there is good cause shown for the petitioner's desire to be relieved of the child's care and custody, unless the petition seeks permanent relief of custody and termination of parental rights. If the petition seeks permanent relief of custody and termination of parental rights, the court shall make a finding, based upon clear and convincing evidence, whether termination of parental rights is in the best interest of the child. If the court makes either of these findings, the court may enter:

1. A preliminary protective order pursuant to § 16.1-253;
2. An order that requires the local board of social services to provide services to the family as required by law;
3. An order that is consistent with any of the dispositional alternatives pursuant to § 16.1-278.3; or
4. Any combination of these orders.

Any such order transferring legal custody of the child shall be made in accordance with the provisions of subdivision A 5 of § 16.1-278.2 and shall be subject to the provisions of subsection C1 of this section. This order shall include, but need not be limited to, the following findings: (i) that there is no less drastic alternative to granting the requested relief; and (ii) that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent removal and that continued placement in the home would be contrary to the welfare of the child, if the order transfers legal custody of the child to a local board of social services. Any order terminating residual parental rights shall be accompanied by an order continuing or granting custody to a local board of social services, to a licensed child-placing agency or the granting of custody or guardianship to a relative or other interested individual. Such an order continuing or granting custody to a local board of social services or to a licensed child-placing agency shall indicate whether that board or agency shall have the authority to place the child for adoption and consent thereto. At any time subsequent to the transfer of legal custody of the child pursuant to this section, a birth parent or parents of the child and the pre-adoptive parent or parents may enter into a written post-adoption contact and communication agreement in accordance with the provisions of §§ 16.1-283.1 and 63.2-1228.1. The court shall not require a written post-adoption contact and communication agreement as a precondition to entry of an order in any case involving the child.

The court shall schedule a subsequent hearing within seventy-five days of the hearing held pursuant to this section: (i) to enter a final order of disposition pursuant to § 16.1-278.3 or (ii) if the child is placed in foster care, for review of the foster care plan filed pursuant to § 16.1-281. If a party is required to be present at the subsequent hearing, and (i) is present at the hearing on the petition, the party shall be given notice of the date set for the subsequent hearing; (ii) if not present, shall be 183 summoned as provided in § 16.1-263.

184 C1. Any order transferring temporary custody of the child to a relative or other interested individual 185 pursuant to subsection C of this section shall be entered only upon a finding, based upon a 186 preponderance of the evidence, that the relative or other interested individual is one who (i) is found by 187 the court to be willing and qualified to receive and care for the child; (ii) is willing to have a positive, 188 continuous relationship with the child; and (iii) is willing and has the ability to protect the child from 189 abuse and neglect. The court's order transferring temporary custody to a relative or other interested 190 individual should further provide for compliance with any preliminary protective order entered on behalf 191 of the child in accordance with the provisions of § 16.1-253; and, as appropriate, ongoing provision of 192 social services to the child and the child's custodian; and court review of the child's placement with the 193 relative or other individual. Any final order transferring custody of the child to a relative or other 194 interested individual pursuant to this section shall, in addition, be entered only after an investigation as 195 directed by the court and upon a finding, stated in the court's order, that the relative or other interested 196 individual is one who satisfies clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) of this subsection and is committed to providing 197 a permanent, suitable home for the child.

198 D. The local board or licensed child-placing agency to which authority is given to place the child for 199 adoption and consent thereto after an order terminating parental rights is entered pursuant to this section
200 shall file a written Adoption Progress Report with the juvenile court on the progress being made to 201 place the child in an adoptive home. The report shall be filed with the court every six months from the 202 date of the final order terminating parental rights until a final order of adoption is entered on behalf of 203 the child in the circuit court. At the conclusion of the hearing at which termination of parental rights is 204 ordered and authority is given to the local board or licensed child-placing agency to place the child for 205 adoption, the juvenile court shall schedule a date by which the board or agency shall file the first 206 Adoption Progress Report required by this section. A copy of the Adoption Progress Report shall be 207 sent by the court to the guardian ad litem for the child. The court may schedule a hearing on the report 208 with or without the request of a party.

209 § 16.1-278.3. Relief of care and custody.

210 A. Within seventy-five days of a hearing on a petition for relief of the care and custody of any child 211 pursuant to § 16.1-277.02 at which the court found (i) good cause for the petitioner's desire to be 212 relieved of a child's care and custody or (ii) that permanent relief of custody and termination of residual 213 parental rights is in the best interest of the child, a dispositional hearing shall be held, if a final order 214 disposing of the matter was not entered at the conclusion of the hearing on the petition held pursuant to 215 § 16.1-277.02.

216 B. Notice of the dispositional hearing shall be provided to the local department of social services, the 217 guardian ad litem for the child, the child if he is at least twelve years of age, and the child's parents, 218 custodian or other person standing in loco parentis. However, if a parent's residual parental rights were 219 terminated at the hearing on the petition held pursuant to § 16.1-277.02, no such notice of the hearing
220 pursuant to this section shall be provided to the parent. The hearing shall be held and a dispositional 221 order may be entered, although a parent, guardian, legal custodian or person standing in loco parentis 222 fails to appear and is not represented by counsel, provided personal or substituted service was made on 223 the person, or the court determines that the person cannot be found, after reasonable effort, or in the 224 case of a person who is without the Commonwealth, the person cannot be found or his post office 225 address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort. However, in the case of a hearing to grant a 226 petition for permanent relief of custody and terminate a parent's residual parental rights, notice to the 227 parent whose rights may be affected shall be provided in accordance with the provisions of §§ 16.1-263 228 and 16.1-264.

229 C. The court may make any of the orders of disposition permitted in a case involving an abused or 230 neglected child pursuant to § 16.1-278.2. Any such order transferring legal custody of the child shall be 231 made in accordance with the provisions of subdivision A 5 of § 16.1-278.2 and shall be subject to the 232 provisions of subsection D1 of this section. This order shall include, but need not be limited to, the 233 following findings: (i) that there is no less drastic alternative to granting the requested relief; and (ii) 234 that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent removal and that continued placement in the home 235 would be contrary to the welfare of the child, if the order transfers legal custody of the child to a local 236 board of social services. Any preliminary protective orders entered on behalf of the child shall be 237 reviewed at the dispositional hearing and may be incorporated, as appropriate, in the dispositional order.
238 If the child has been placed in foster care, at the dispositional hearing the court shall review the foster 239 care plan for the child filed by the local board of social services or child welfare agency in accordance 240 with § 16.1-281.

241 D. If the parent or other custodian seeks to be relieved permanently of the care and custody of any 242 child and the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that termination of the parent's parental rights 243 is in the best interest of the child, the court may terminate the parental rights of that parent. If the 244 remaining parent has not petitioned for permanent relief of the care and custody of the child, the remaining parent's parental rights may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of § 16.1-283. Any order terminating parental rights shall be accompanied by an order (i) continuing or granting custody to a local board of social services or to a licensed child-placing agency, or (ii) granting custody or guardianship to a relative or other interested individual. Such an order continuing or granting custody to a local board of social services or to a licensed child-placing agency shall indicate whether that board or agency shall have the authority to place the child for adoption and consent thereto. Proceedings under this section shall be advanced on the docket so as to provide for their earliest practicable disposition. At any time subsequent to the transfer of legal custody of the child pursuant to this section, a birth parent or parents of the child and the pre-adoptive parent or parents may enter into a written post-adoption contact and communication agreement in accordance with the provisions of §§ 16.1-283.1 and 63.2-1228.1. The court shall not require a written post-adoption contact and communication agreement as a precondition to entry of an order in any case involving the child.

D1. Any order transferring custody of the child to a relative or other interested individual pursuant to subsection C or D of this section shall be entered only upon a finding, based upon a preponderance of the evidence, that the relative or other interested individual is one who, after an investigation as directed by the court, (i) is found by the court to be willing and qualified to receive and care for the child; (ii) is willing to have a positive, continuous relationship with the child; (iii) is committed to providing a permanent, suitable home for the child; and (iv) is willing and has the ability to protect the child from abuse and neglect; and the order shall so state. The court's order transferring custody to a relative or other interested individual should further provide for, as appropriate, any terms or conditions which would promote the child's interest and welfare; ongoing provision of social services to the child and the child's custodian; and court review of the child's placement.

E. The local board or licensed child-placing agency to which authority is given to place the child for adoption and consent thereto after an order terminating parental rights is entered pursuant to this section shall file a written Adoption Progress Report with the juvenile court on the progress being made to place the child in an adoptive home. The report shall be filed with the court every six months from the date of the final order terminating parental rights until a final order of adoption is entered on behalf of the child in the circuit court. At the conclusion of the hearing at which termination of parental rights is ordered and authority is given to the local board or licensed child-placing agency to place the child for adoption, the juvenile court shall schedule a date by which the board or agency shall file the first Adoption Progress Report required by this section. A copy of the Adoption Progress Report shall be sent by the court to the guardian ad litem for the child. The court may schedule a hearing on the report with or without the request of a party.

F. A dispositional order entered pursuant to this section is a final order from which an appeal may be taken in accordance with § 16.1-296.

§ 16.1-283.1. Authority to enter into voluntary post-adoption contact and communication agreement.

A. In any case in which a child has been placed in foster care as a result of court commitment, an entrustment agreement entered into by the parent or parents, or other voluntary relinquishment by the parent or parents, the child's birth parent or parents may enter into a written post-adoption contact and communication agreement with the pre-adoptive parent or parents. A post-adoption contact and communication agreement may include, but is not limited to, provisions related to contact and communication between the child, the birth parent or parents, and the adoptive parent or parents, and provisions for the sharing of information about the child, including sharing of photographs of the child and information about the child's education, health, and welfare.

B. Any agreement entered into by the birth parent or parents and the pre-adoptive parents shall contain the birth parent's or parents' acknowledgment that the adoption of the child is irrevocable, even if the adoptive parents do not abide by the post-adoption contact and communication agreement, and the adoptive parent's or parents' acknowledgment that the agreement grants the birth parent or parents the right to seek to enforce the post-adoption contact and communication provisions set forth in the agreement. The petitioner for adoption shall file such agreement with other documents filed in the circuit court having jurisdiction over the child's adoption.

C. In no event shall failure to enter into a post-adoption contact and communication agreement with identified adoptive parents after authority to consent to the child's adoption is granted to a local board of social services or a child welfare agency, or failure to comply with a post-adoption contact and communication agreement, affect the validity of (i) the consent to the adoption, (ii) the voluntary relinquishment of parental rights, (iii) the voluntary or involuntary termination of parental rights, or (iv) the finality of the adoption.

D. No birth parent or parents of a child or pre-adoptive parent or parents of a child shall be required to enter into a post-adoption contact and communication agreement.

§ 63.2-1228.1. Post-adoption contact and communication agreements.

A. The circuit court may approve a post-adoption contact and communication agreement authorized

306 pursuant to § 16.1-283.1 and filed with the court for a petition for adoption if:

307 1. The court determines that the child's best interest would be served by approving the post-adoption 308 contact and communication agreement;

309 2. The adoptive parent or parents and birth parent or parents have consented to a post-adoption 310 contact and communication agreement filed with the court;

311 3. The agency sponsoring the adoption and the child's guardian ad litem have recommended that the 312 post-adoption contact and communication agreement be approved as being in the best interest of the 313 child, or, if there is no agency sponsoring the adoption, the agency that prepared the adoption report 314 has been informed of the post-adoption contact and communication agreement and has recommended in 315 the agency's report to the circuit court that the post-adoption contact and communication agreement be 316 approved; and

317 4. Where the child is 14 years of age or older, consent to the post-adoption contact and 318 communication agreement is obtained from the child.

319 B. A post-adoption contact and communication agreement shall include the following:

320 1. The birth parent's or parents' acknowledgment that the adoption of the child is irrevocable, even if 321 the adoptive parent or parents do not abide by the post-adoption contact and communication agreement; 322 and

323 2. The adoptive parent's or parents' acknowledgment that the agreement grants the birth parent or 324 parents rights to seek to enforce the post-adoption contact and communication provisions set forth in the 325 agreement.

326 C. A post-adoption contact and communication agreement may include, but is not limited to, 327 provisions related to contact and communication between the child, the birth parent or parents, and the 328 adoptive parent or parents, and provisions for the sharing of information about the child, including 329 sharing of photographs of the child and information about the child's education, health, and welfare.

330 D. To be enforceable, any agreement under this section shall be approved by the circuit court and 331 incorporated into the final order of adoption.

332 E. The circuit court shall not require execution of a post-adoption contact and communication 333 agreement as a condition for approving any adoption.

334 § 63.2-1228.2. Jurisdiction to approve post-adoption contact and communication agreements.

335 A. Unless otherwise stated in the final order of adoption, the circuit court of the jurisdiction in 336 which the final order of adoption was entered shall retain jurisdiction to modify or enforce the terms of 337 a post-adoption contact and communication agreement entered into pursuant to § 63.2-1228.1.

338 B. A birth parent or parents or adoptive parent or parents who have executed a post-adoption 339 contact and communication agreement as described in this section may file a petition with the circuit 340 court of the jurisdiction in which the final order of adoption was entered:

341 1. To modify the post-adoption contact and communication agreement; and 342 2. To compel a birth or adoptive parent to comply with the post-adoption contact and communication 343 agreement. The court may not award monetary damages as a result of the filing of a petition for 344 modification of or compliance with the agreement. The court may modify the agreement at any time 345 before or after the adoption if the court, after notice and opportunity to be heard by the birth parent or 346 parents and the adoptive parent or parents, determines that the child's best interest require the 347 modification of the agreement. Before the court modifies an agreement or hears a motion to compel 348 compliance, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child's best interest.

349 C. The circuit court shall not grant a request to modify the terms of a post-adoption contact and 350 communication agreement unless the moving party establishes that there has been a change of 351 circumstances and the agreement is no longer in the child's best interest; provided, however, that no 352 modification shall affect the irrevocability of the adoption.

353 D. Failure to comply with the terms of a post-adoption contact and communication agreement or an 354 order entered into pursuant to § 63.2-1228.1 shall not affect (i) the consent to the adoption, (ii) the 355 voluntary relinquishment of parental rights, (iii) the voluntary or involuntary termination of parental
