10	Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:
11 12	1. That § 44-146.19 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 44-146.19. Powers and duties of political subdivisions.
12	A. Each political subdivision within the Commonwealth shall be within the jurisdiction of and served
14	by the Department of Emergency Management and be responsible for local disaster mitigation,
15	preparedness, response and recovery. Each political subdivision shall maintain in accordance with state
16	disaster preparedness plans and programs an agency of emergency management which, except as
17	otherwise provided under this chapter, has jurisdiction over and services the entire political subdivision.
18 19	B. Each political subdivision shall have a director of emergency management who, after the term of the person presently serving in this capacity has expired and in the absence of an executive order by the
20	Governor, shall be the following:
21	1. In the case of a city, the mayor or city manager, who shall appoint a coordinator of emergency
22	management with consent of council;
23	2. In the case of a county, a member of the board of supervisors selected by the board or the chief
24	administrative officer for the county, who shall appoint a coordinator of emergency management with
25 26	the consent of the governing body; 3. A coordinator of emergency management shall be appointed by the council of any town to ensure
20 27	integration of its organization into the county emergency management organization;
28	4. In the case of the Town of Chincoteague and of towns with a population in excess of 5,000
29	having an emergency management organization separate from that of the county, the mayor or town
30	manager shall appoint a coordinator of emergency services with consent of council;
31 32	5. In Smyth County and in York County, the chief administrative officer for the county shall appoint
32 33	a director of emergency management, with the consent of the governing body, who shall appoint a coordinator of emergency management with the consent of the governing body.
34	C. Whenever the Governor has declared a state of emergency, each political subdivision within the
35	disaster area may, under the supervision and control of the Governor or his designated representative,
36	control, restrict, allocate or regulate the use, sale, production and distribution of food, fuel, clothing and
37	other commodities, materials, goods, services and resource systems which fall only within the boundaries
38 39	of that jurisdiction and which do not impact systems affecting adjoining or other political subdivisions, enter into contracts and incur obligations necessary to combat such threatened or actual disaster, protect
40	the health and safety of persons and property and provide emergency assistance to the victims of such
41	disaster. In exercising the powers vested under this section, under the supervision and control of the 42	Governor, the political subdivision may proceed without regard to time-consuming procedures and
43	formalities prescribed by law (except mandatory constitutional requirements) pertaining to the
44 45	performance of public work, entering into contracts, incurring of obligations, employment of temporary workers, rental of equipment, purchase of supplies and materials, levying of taxes, and appropriation and
45 46	expenditure of public funds.
47	D. The director of each local organization for emergency management may, in collaboration with (i)
48	other public and private agencies within the Commonwealth or (ii) other states or localities within other
49	states, develop or cause to be developed mutual aid arrangements for reciprocal assistance in case of a
50	disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted. Such arrangements shall be consistent with state plans and
51 52	programs and it shall be the duty of each local organization for emergency management to render assistance in accordance with the provisions of such mutual aid arrangements
52 53	assistance in accordance with the provisions of such mutual aid arrangements. E. Each local and interjurisdictional agency shall prepare and keep current a local or
54	interjurisdictional emergency operations plan for its area. The plan shall include, but not be limited to,
55	responsibilities of all local agencies and shall establish a chain of command. Every four years, each
56	local and interjurisdictional agency shall conduct a comprehensive review and revision of its emergency
57	operations plan to ensure that the plan remains current, and the revised plan shall be formally adopted
58	by the locality's governing body. In the case of an interjurisdictional agency, the plan shall be formally adopted by the governing body of each of the localities encompassed by the agency. Each political subdivision having a nuclear power station or other nuclear facility within 10 miles of its boundaries shall, if so directed by the Department of Emergency Management, prepare and keep current an appropriate emergency plan for its area for response to nuclear accidents at such station or facility.

F. All political subdivisions shall provide an annually updated emergency management assessment tothe State Coordinator of Emergency Management on or before July 1 of each year.

G. By July 1, 2005, all localities with a population greater than 50,000 shall establish an alert and warning plan for the dissemination of adequate and timely warning to the public in the event of an emergency or threatened disaster. The governing body of the locality, in consultation with its local emergency management organization, shall amend its local emergency operations plan that may include rules for the operation of its alert and warning system, to include sirens, Emergency Alert System (EAS), NOAA Weather Radios, or other personal notification systems, amateur radio operators, or any combination thereof.

H. Localities that have established an agency of emergency management shall have authority to require the review of, and suggest amendments to, the emergency plans of nursing homes, assisted living facilities, adult day care centers, and child day care centers that are located within the locality. A locality

75 may charge a reasonable administrative fee for such review.
