

2009 SESSION

ENROLLED

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 831

Celebrating the life of Leslie Herdegen Rohrer.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 6, 2009
Agreed to by the Senate, February 12, 2009

WHEREAS, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer of Richmond County, a longtime champion of many health-care issues on behalf of her fellow citizens as a lobbyist at the General Assembly, died on November 11, 2008; and

WHEREAS, born in Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer graduated from Rockford College in Illinois with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1974 and worked toward a master's degree in business administration at the University of Richmond from 1984 to 1986; and

WHEREAS, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer moved to Richmond in the 1970s and became involved with the legislative process and the General Assembly while working on behalf of Grace House; and

WHEREAS, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer worked for many years as the legislative director of the Virginia Trial Lawyers Association, and she served as chair of the Richmond Behavioral Health Authority; and

WHEREAS, as an experienced and professional lobbyist, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer was passionate in her fight to promote nurses and excellent nursing care, autism programs for children, the rights of persons with mental-health problems, and quality health care in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, as an articulate and knowledgeable advocate for the health-care community for over 20 years, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer was instrumental in the passage of important legislation on hospice care and mental-health insurance coverage for all Virginians; and

WHEREAS, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer worked tirelessly to make a difference in the lives of countless Virginians, and she was especially proud of helping to gain the authority for nurse-practitioners to sign medical prescriptions without a physician's co-signature; and

WHEREAS, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer's expertise was valuable in evaluating mental-health treatment and insurance issues before the legislature in the aftermath of the Virginia Tech tragedy; and

WHEREAS, throughout her career, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer received numerous awards and accolades, including the 2005 Gartlan Award for her many contributions to the Virginia Association of Community Services Boards, which provides Virginians with mental-health services; the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners will honor her posthumously with its Nurse Practitioner Advocate of the Year award in 2009; and

WHEREAS, a loving and compassionate woman, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by her devoted husband Bert L. Rohrer; her mother, Elizabeth Funk, and her brother, Jefford Funk; her stepchildren and other family members; her many friends at the General Assembly; and the citizens of the Commonwealth; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly note with great sadness the passing of an outstanding Virginian, Leslie Herdegen Rohrer; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Leslie Herdegen Rohrer as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for her memory.

ENROLLED

HJ831ER