SENATE BILL NO. 1264

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE
(Proposed by the Senate Committee on Commerce and Labor on February 9, 2009)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Senator Norment)

A BILL to amend and reenact § 40.1-29 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the payment of wages or salaries by prepaid cards.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 40.1-29 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 40.1-29. Time and medium of payment; withholding wages; written statement of earnings; agreement for forfeiture of wages; proceedings to enforce compliance; penalties.

A. 1. All employers operating a business shall establish regular pay periods and rates of pay for employees except executive personnel. All such employers shall pay salaried employees at least once each month and employees paid on an hourly rate at least once every two weeks or twice in each month, except that (i) a student who is currently enrolled in a work-study program or its equivalent administered by any secondary school, institution of higher education or trade school, and (ii) employees whose weekly wages total more than 150 percent of the average weekly wage of the Commonwealth as defined in § 65.2-500, upon agreement by each affected employee, may be paid once each month if the institution or employer so chooses. Upon termination of employment an employee shall be paid all wages or salaries due him for work performed prior thereto; such payment shall be made on or before the date on which he would have been paid for such work had his employment not been terminated.

2. Any such employer who knowingly fails to make payment of wages in accordance with this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation. The Commissioner shall notify any employer who he alleges has violated any provision of this section by certified mail. Such notice shall contain a description of the alleged violation. Within 15 days of receipt of notice of the alleged violation, the employer may request an informal conference regarding such violation with the Commissioner. In determining the amount of any penalty to be imposed, the Commissioner shall consider the size of the business of the employer charged and the gravity of the violation. The decision of the Commissioner shall be final.

B. Payment of wages or salaries shall be (i) in lawful money of the United States, (ii) by check payable at face value upon demand in lawful money of the United States, (iii) by electronic automated fund transfer in lawful money of the United States into an account in the name of the employee at a financial institution designated by the employee, or (iv) by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account from which the employee is able to withdraw or transfer funds with full disclosure by the employer of any applicable fees and affirmative consent thereto by the employee. ~~Failure of~~ However, an employer that elects not to pay wages or salaries in accordance with clause (i) or (ii) to an employee who is hired after January 1, 2010, shall be permitted to pay wages or salaries by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account in accordance with clause (iv), even though such employee has not affirmatively consented thereto, if the employee fails to designate an account at a financial institution or consent to payment by credit to a prepaid debit card or card account under in accordance with clause (iii) or clause (iv) shall require payment of wages and salaries to be made in accordance with clause (i) or clause (ii) of this subsection and the employer arranges for such card or card account to be issued through a network system through which the employee shall have the ability to make at least one free withdrawal or transfer per pay period using such card or card account at financial institutions participating in such network system. However, payment may be made under clause (iv) to an employee who has not affirmatively consented thereto if (a) payment cannot be made under clause (iii) because the employee has failed to designate a financial institution and (b) the employee is employed at any facility where the operation of amusement devices is authorized pursuant to a certificate of inspection issued under § 36-98.3 and any regulations promulgated thereunder.

C. No employer shall withhold any part of the wages or salaries of any employee except for payroll, wage or withholding taxes or in accordance with law, without the written and signed authorization of the employee. An employer, upon request of his employee, shall furnish the latter a written statement of the gross wages earned by the employee during any pay period and the amount and purpose of any deductions therefrom.

D. No employer shall require any employee, except executive personnel, to sign any contract or agreement which provides for the forfeiture of the employee's wages for time worked as a condition of employment or the continuance therein, except as otherwise provided by law.

E. An employer who willfully and with intent to defraud fails or refuses to pay wages in accordance with this section is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if the value of the wages earned and not paid by 60 the employer is less than $10,000 and is guilty of a Class 6 felony if the value of the wages earned and 61 not paid is $10,000 or more or, regardless of the value of the wages earned and not paid, if the 62 conviction is a second or subsequent conviction under this section. For purposes of this section, the 63 determination as to the "value of the wages earned" shall be made by combining all wages the employer

64 failed or refused to pay pursuant to this section.

65 F. The Commissioner may require a written complaint of the violation of this section and, with the 66 written and signed consent of an employee, may institute proceedings on behalf of an employee to 67 enforce compliance with this section, and to collect any moneys unlawfully withheld from such 68 employee which shall be paid to the employee entitled thereto. In addition, following the issuance of a
69 final order by the Commissioner or a court, the Commissioner may engage private counsel, approved by 70 the Attorney General, to collect any moneys owed to the employee or the Commonwealth. Upon entry
71 of a final order of the Commissioner, or upon entry of a judgment, against the employer, the 72 Commissioner or the court shall assess attorney's fees of one-third of the amount set forth in the final 73 order or judgment.

74 G. In addition to being subject to any other penalty provided by the provisions of this section, any 75 employer who fails to make payment of wages in accordance with subsection A shall be liable for the 76 payment of all wages due, plus interest at an annual rate of eight percent accruing from the date the 77 wages were due.

78 H. Civil penalties owed under this section shall be paid to the Commissioner for deposit into the 79 general fund of the State Treasurer. The Commissioner shall prescribe procedures for the payment of 80 proposed assessments of penalties which are not contested by employers. Such procedures shall include
81 provisions for an employer to consent to abatement of the alleged violation and pay a proposed penalty
82 or a negotiated sum in lieu of such penalty without admission of any civil liability arising from such 83 alleged violation.

84 Final orders of the Commissioner, the general district courts or the circuit courts may be recorded,
85 enforced and satisfied as orders or decrees of a circuit court upon certification of such orders by the 86 Commissioner or the court as appropriate.
