Department of Planning and Budget 2009 Fiscal Impact Statement

House of Origin Introduced Substitute Engrossed Second House In Committee Substitute Engrossed Engrossed Second House Engrossed
<ol> <li>Second House In Committee SubstituteX_ Enrolled</li> <li>Patron: Tata</li> <li>Committee: Passed both houses</li> <li>Title: Textbooks; reasonable fee or charge</li> <li>Summary: Provides that local school boards may assess a reasonable fee or charge loss of or damage to a textbook, so long as such textbook has been provided to the free of charge.</li> <li>No fiscal impact. Final.</li> <li>Budget Amendment Necessary: No.</li> <li>Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided the free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" ame cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned to instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ol>
<ol> <li>Patron: Tata</li> <li>Committee: Passed both houses</li> <li>Title: Textbooks; reasonable fee or charge</li> <li>Summary: Provides that local school boards may assess a reasonable fee or charge loss of or damage to a textbook, so long as such textbook has been provided to the free of charge.</li> <li>No fiscal impact. Final.</li> <li>Budget Amendment Necessary: No.</li> <li>Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided the free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" amount cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned to instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ol>	ssed
<ol> <li>Committee: Passed both houses</li> <li>Title: Textbooks; reasonable fee or charge</li> <li>Summary: Provides that local school boards may assess a reasonable fee or charge loss of or damage to a textbook, so long as such textbook has been provided to the free of charge.</li> <li>No fiscal impact. Final.</li> <li>Budget Amendment Necessary: No.</li> <li>Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or of damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided the free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" amount cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for those However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned the instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ol>	ed
<ol> <li>Title: Textbooks; reasonable fee or charge</li> <li>Summary: Provides that local school boards may assess a reasonable fee or charge loss of or damage to a textbook, so long as such textbook has been provided to the free of charge.</li> <li>No fiscal impact. Final.</li> <li>Budget Amendment Necessary: No.</li> <li>Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or of damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided the free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" among cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for those the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for the determined of the determined of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ol>
<ol> <li>Summary: Provides that local school boards may assess a reasonable fee or chargloss of or damage to a textbook, so long as such textbook has been provided to the free of charge.</li> <li>No fiscal impact. Final.</li> <li>Budget Amendment Necessary: No.</li> <li>Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or of damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided the free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" among cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned to instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ol> loss of or damage to a textbook, so long as such textbook has been provided to the free of charge.  6. No fiscal impact. Final.  7. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.  8. Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or of damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided to free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" among cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for the However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned to instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.  9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.  10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.
<ul> <li>7. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.</li> <li>8. Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or of damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided the free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" among cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned the instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of instimaterials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>8. Fiscal Implications: This legislation permits school divisions to assess a fee or of damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided the free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" and cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned the instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of instimaterials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ul> damages or loss of school property for instructional materials that were provided to free of charge. This bill enables school divisions to recuperate a "reasonable" amore cover the replacement costs for such materials, which could generate a savings for However, this bill does not define the "reasonable" value that should be assigned to instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, the of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.  9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.  10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.
<ul> <li>instructional materials. Therefore, the Department of Education has indicated the savings cannot be determined, since there is no way to estimate the number of inst materials that will be subject to the provisions of this legislation. Nevertheless, th of this bill is not expected to have a general fund impact.</li> <li>9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local school divisions.</li> <li>10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.</li> </ul>	were provided to students easonable" amount to
10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.	s indicated the local number of instructional
·	ol divisions.
11. Other Comments: None.

Date: 2/18/2009 dpbsbj Document: G:\Legislation\2009\Posted\HB1923er.doc