5. Summary/Purpose:

Under current law, board of equalization members are limited to nine-year terms, and three years must elapse before a member can be reappointed.

The effective date is not specified.

6. No Fiscal Impact. (See Line 8.)

7. Budget amendment necessary: No.

8. Fiscal implications:

This bill would have no impact on the administrative costs or revenue of the state or local governments.

9. Specific agency or political subdivisions affected:

Local governments

10. Technical amendment necessary: No.

11. Other comments:

After a general reassessment of real estate values in a locality the board of equalization for that locality hears complaints that landowners may have about the assessed value, such as a lack of uniformity in assessments, errors in acreage, or that the assessed value is greater than the fair market value of the property. The board has the power to review and revise the assessed value.

Upon appointment, and every four years during their term, members are required to take a course offered by the Department of Taxation. Current law limits their term to nine years, and three years must elapse before a member can be reappointed.

This bill would eliminate the nine-year term limitation, but members would continue to have to meet continuing education requirements.
