7. Budget Amendment Necessary: No, this savings strategy is included in the Governor's 2009 Introduced Budget Bill, Item 90.5.

8. Fiscal Implications: On-going savings to the state results from costs associated with designing, printing, and distributing absentee voting applications.

Local governments may incur indeterminate costs or savings. There may be increased demand for local governments to print and mail additional absentee ballots, but the number of election day ballots needed would decrease. Demand for increased local staff may be necessary prior to election. Fewer voting machines needed could produce cost savings on election day.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Local governments, State Board of Elections

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No
