Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:*1. That § 19.2-392.2 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 19.2-392.2. Expungement of police and court records.

A. If a person is charged with the commission of a crime or any offense defined in Title 18.2, and

1. Is acquitted; or

2. A nolle prosequi is taken or the charge is otherwise dismissed, including dismissal by accord and satisfaction pursuant to § 19.2-151, he may file a petition setting forth the relevant facts and requesting expungement of the police records and the court records relating to the charge.

A1. Any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor may file a petition setting forth the relevant facts and requesting expungement of police records and court records relating to the charge and conviction after at least 10 years have passed since the person was convicted of the offense he seeks to have expunged. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any person who has been convicted of (i) any criminal offense within the period between the date of the conviction he seeks to have expunged and the petition; (ii) a violation of § 18.2-266 or 46.2-341.24; (iii) any offense involving domestic violence for which a person is denied any firearm rights under 18 U.S.C. § 922(g); or (iv) any offense for which registration is required pursuant to § 9.1-902. The Department of State Police shall maintain a record of any expungement granted pursuant to this subsection, and any conviction that is expunged under this subsection shall be considered a prior conviction for purposes of prosecution of any subsequent offense for which such prior conviction aggravates punishment.

B. If any person whose name or other identification has been used without his consent or authorization by another person who has been charged or arrested using such name or identification, he may file a petition with the court disposing of the charge for relief pursuant to this section.

C. The petition with a copy of the warrant or indictment if reasonably available shall be filed in the circuit court of the county or city in which the petitioner was convicted or in which the case was disposed of by acquittal or being otherwise dismissed and shall contain, except where not reasonably available, the date of arrest and the name of the arresting agency. Where this information is not reasonably available, the petition shall state the reason for such unavailability. The petition shall further state the specific criminal charge to be expunged, the date of final disposition of the charge as set forth in the petition, the petitioner's date of birth, and the full name used by the petitioner at the time of arrest.

D. A copy of the petition shall be served on the attorney for the Commonwealth of the city or county in which the petition is filed. The attorney for the Commonwealth may file an objection or answer to the petition within 21 days after it is served on him.

E. The petitioner shall obtain from a law-enforcement agency one complete set of the petitioner's fingerprints and shall provide that agency with a copy of the petition for expungement. The law-enforcement agency shall submit the set of fingerprints to the Central Criminal Records Exchange (CCRE) with a copy of the petition for expungement attached. The CCRE shall forward under seal to the court a copy of the petitioner's criminal history, a copy of the source documents that resulted in the CCRE entry that the petitioner wishes to expunge, and the set of fingerprints. Upon completion of the hearing, the court shall return the fingerprint card to the petitioner.

F. After receiving the criminal history record information from the CCRE, the court shall conduct a hearing on the petition. If the court finds that the continued existence and possible dissemination of information relating to (i) the arrest of the petitioner, ~~causes or may cause circumstances which constitute a manifest injustice to the petitioner~~ or (ii) the arrest and conviction of the petitioner in the case of a petition filed pursuant to the provisions of subsection A1 prejudice the petitioner's opportunities for employment, education, or professional licensure, it shall enter an order requiring the expungement of the police and court records, including electronic records, relating to the charge and shall communicate the order to the Department of State Police. Otherwise, it shall deny the petition. However, if the petitioner has no prior criminal record and the arrest was for a misdemeanor violation 90 upon motion and notice made within three years of the entry of such order.
