Patron—Griffith

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 18.2-60.3 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 18.2-60.3. Stalking; penalty.

A. Any person, except a law-enforcement officer, as defined in § 9.1-101, and acting in the performance of his official duties, and a registered private investigator, as defined in § 9.1-138, who is regulated in accordance with § 9.1-139 and acting in the course of his legitimate business, who ~~on more than one occasion~~ engages in conduct directed at another person with the intent to place, or when he knows or reasonably should know that the conduct places that other person in reasonable fear of death, criminal sexual assault, or bodily injury to that other person or to that other person's family or household member commits the offense of stalking. Any person who (i) commits an offense of stalking on more than one occasion or (ii) while in the commission of an offense of stalking, verbally threatens the other person with criminal sexual assault, bodily injury, or death is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. Any person who commits an offense of stalking after having been previously convicted pursuant to this subsection is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

B. ~~A third or subsequent conviction occurring within five years of a conviction for an offense under this section or for a similar offense under the law of any other jurisdiction shall be a Class 6 felony.~~ Any person who commits an offense of stalking and who has been two or more times previously convicted pursuant to subsection A is guilty of a Class 6 felony, provided all such offenses were committed within a five-year period. Any person who commits an offense of stalking and who has been previously convicted of an offense in violation of § 18.2-57.2 or a similar offense under any other jurisdiction, when the offense in violation of § 18.2-57.2 or similar offense occurred within five years of the stalking offense, is guilty of a Class 6 felony.

C. A person may be convicted under this section irrespective of the jurisdiction or jurisdictions within the Commonwealth wherein the conduct ~~described in subsection A~~ occurred, if the person engaged in that conduct on at least one occasion in the jurisdiction where the person is tried. For purposes of punishment of multiple offenses or convictions of stalking, a conviction for a similar offense under the law of any other jurisdiction shall be considered a prior offense and conviction. Evidence of any such conduct that occurred outside the Commonwealth may be admissible, if relevant, in any prosecution under this section provided that the prosecution is based upon conduct occurring within the Commonwealth.

D. Upon finding a person guilty under this section, the court shall, in addition to the sentence imposed, issue an order prohibiting contact between the defendant and the victim or the victim's family or household member.

E. The Department of Corrections, sheriff or regional jail director shall give notice prior to the release from a state correctional facility or a local or regional jail of any person incarcerated upon conviction of a violation of this section, to any victim of the offense who, in writing, requests notice, or to any person designated in writing by the victim. The notice shall be given at least fifteen days prior to release of a person sentenced to a term of incarceration of more than thirty days or, if the person was sentenced to a term of incarceration of at least forty-eight hours but no more than thirty days, twenty-four hours prior to release. If the person escapes, notice shall be given as soon as practicable following the escape. The victim shall keep the Department of Corrections, sheriff or regional jail director informed of the current mailing address and telephone number of the person named in the writing submitted to receive notice.

All information relating to any person who receives or may receive notice under this subsection shall remain confidential and shall not be made available to the person convicted of violating this section.

For purposes of this subsection, "release" includes a release of the offender from a state correctional facility or a local or regional jail (i) upon completion of his term of incarceration or (ii) on probation or parole.

No civil liability shall attach to the Department of Corrections nor to any sheriff or regional jail
