Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 6.1-249, 6.1-330.55, 6.1-330.78, and 59.1-200 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 6.1 a chapter numbered 21, consisting of sections numbered 6.1-480 through 6.1-507, as follows:

§ 6.1-249. Compliance with chapter; license required.

A. No person shall engage in the business of lending any principal amounts to individuals for personal, family, household or other nonbusiness purposes, and charge, contract for, or receive, directly or indirectly, on or in connection with any loan, any interest, charges, compensation, consideration or expense which in the aggregate is greater than the interest permitted by § 6.1-330.55, except as provided in and authorized by this chapter or Chapter 18 (§ 6.1-444 et seq.) of this title and without first having obtained a license from the Commission.

B. However, subject to §§ 6.1-251 and 6.1-281 of this chapter, the prohibition in subsection A of this section shall not be construed to prevent any person, other than a licensee, from making a mortgage loan pursuant to §§ 6.1-330.69 and 6.1-330.70 or §§ 6.1-330.71 and 6.1-330.72 in any principal amount ~~or from extending credit as described in § 6.1-330.78 in any amount.~~

§ 6.1-330.55. Contracts for more than legal rate of interest.

Except as otherwise permitted by law, no contract shall be made for the payment of interest on a loan greater than twelve percent per year.

For statutes which permit payment of interest greater than twelve percent per year, reference is hereby made to Article 6 (§ 6.1-330.60 et seq.), Article 7 (§ 6.1-330.64), Article 8 (§ 6.1-330.65 et seq.), Article 9 (§ 6.1-330.69 et seq.), Article 10 (§ 6.1-330.75 et seq.) and Article 11 (§ 6.1-330.77 et seq.) of this chapter. Further reference is hereby made to Chapter 6 (§ 6.1-244 et seq.) of this title, relating to powers of consumer finance companies; to Chapter 18 (§ 6.1-444 et seq.) of this title, relating to payday lenders; to § 38.2-1806, relating to interest chargeable by insurance agents; to §§ 38.2-4700 through 38.2-4712, relating to interest chargeable by premium finance companies; ~~and to § 58.1-3018, relating to interest and origination fees payable under third-party taxpayer agreements; and to Chapter 21 (§ 6.1-480 et seq.) of this title, relating to interest chargeable by motor vehicle equity lenders.~~

In the case of any loan upon which a person is not permitted to plead usury, interest and other charges may be imposed and collected as agreed by the parties.

Those provisions of this chapter providing that a loan or extension of credit may be enforced as agreed in the contract of indebtedness, shall not be construed to preclude the charging or collecting of other loan fees and charges permitted by law, in addition to the stated interest rate, and such other loan fees and charges need not be included in the rate of interest stated in the contract of indebtedness.

§ 6.1-330.78. Open-end sales and loan plans.

A. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter other than § 6.1-330.71, and except as provided in subsection E, any seller ~~or lender engaged in the extension of~~ of goods to be used for personal, family, or household purposes may extend credit to the purchaser thereof, for the sole purpose of financing the bona fide purchase price of such goods, under an open-end credit or similar plan under which a finance charge is imposed upon the obligor, if payment in full of the unpaid balance is not received at the place designated by the creditor prior to the next billing date (which shall be at least twenty-five days later than the prior billing date), may impose finance charges and other charges and fees at such rates and in such amounts and manner as may be agreed upon by the seller ~~or lender~~ and the obligor.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 6.1-330.71 and subject to the provisions of § 8.9A-204.1, any loan made under this section may be secured in whole or in part by a subordinate mortgage or deed of trust on residential real estate improved by the construction thereon of housing consisting of one to four family dwelling units.

C. Any application form or preapproved written solicitation for an open-end credit card account to be used for personal, family, or household purposes which is mailed on or after January 1, 1988, to a

59 consumer residing in this Commonwealth by or on behalf of a creditor, whether or not the creditor is 60 located in this Commonwealth, other than an application form or solicitation included in a magazine,
 61 newspaper, or other publication distributed by someone other than the creditor, shall contain or be 62 accompanied by any of the following disclosures:

63 1. A disclosure of each of the following if applicable:

64 a. Any periodic rate or rates that may be applied to the account, expressed as an annual percentage
 65 rate or rates. If the account is subject to a variable rate, the creditor may instead disclose the rate as of a
 66 specific date and indicate that the rate may vary, or identify the index and any amount or percentage
 67 added to, or subtracted from, that index and used to determine the rate.

68 b. Any membership or participation fee that may be imposed for availability of a credit card account.

69 c. Any transaction fee that may be imposed on purchases, or any other charge or fee that may be 70 imposed, expressed as an amount or as a percentage of the transaction, as applicable.

71 d. Any grace period or free period during which the consumer may repay the full balance reflected 72 on a billing statement which is attributable to purchases of goods or services from the creditor or from 73 merchants participating in the credit card plan, without the imposition of additional finance charges. The 74 creditor shall either disclose the number of days of that period, calculated from the closing date of the 75 prior billing cycle to the date designated in the billing statement sent to the consumer as the date by 76 which that payment must be received to avoid additional finance charges, or describe the manner in 77 which the period is calculated. If the creditor does not provide such a period for purchases, the 78 disclosure shall so indicate;

79 2. A disclosure that satisfies the initial disclosure requirements of Regulation Z; or

80 3. If a creditor is now or hereafter required under federal law to make disclosures of the terms
 81 applicable to a credit card account in connection with application forms or solicitations, the creditor
 82 shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this subsection if the creditor complies with 83 the federal disclosure requirements. The disclosure of any transaction fee that may be imposed on 84 purchases, or any other charge or fee, shall be written on any such application form or preapproved
 85 written solicitation.

86 D. An open-end credit or similar plan between a seller or lender and an obligor shall be governed
 87 solely by federal law, and by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia unless otherwise expressly 88 agreed in writing by the parties.

89 E. ~~Except as provided in subsection F,~~ a A licensee, as defined in § 6.1-444, shall not engage in the 90 extension of credit under an open-end credit or similar plan described in this section, and a third party
 91 shall not engage in the extension of credit under an open-end credit or similar plan described in this 92 section at any office, suite, room, or place of business where a licensee conducts the business of making
 93 payday loans. In addition to any other remedies or penalties provided for a violation of this section, any 94 such extension of credit made by a licensee or third party in violation of this subsection shall be 95 unenforceable against the borrower.

96 F. ~~No prohibition in subsection E shall apply to an extension of credit under an open-end credit or~~
 97 ~~similar plan that is secured by a security interest in a motor vehicle, as such term is defined in~~
 98 ~~§ 46.2-100.~~

99 G. If a licensee, as defined in § 6.1-444, surrenders its license under Chapter 18 (§ 6.1-444 et seq.)
 100 of this title or has its license revoked, and if following such surrender or revocation of its license the 101 former licensee engages in the extension of credit under an open-end credit or similar plan as described
 102 in this section, then the Commission shall not issue to such former licensee, or to any affiliate of the 103 former licensee, a license under Chapter 18 of this title for a period of 10 years from the date such 104 license is surrendered or revoked. As used in this subsection, "affiliate of the former licensee" means a 105 business entity that owns or controls, is owned or controlled by, or is under common ownership or 106 control with, the former licensee.

107 CHAPTER 21.

108 MOTOR VEHICLE EQUITY LOANS.

113 "Licensee" means a person to whom a license has been issued under this chapter.

114 "Motor vehicle" means an automobile, motorcycle, mobile home, truck, van, or other vehicle
 115 operated on public highways and streets.

116 "Motor vehicle equity loan" means a closed-end loan for a fixed term that is secured by an interest
 117 in a motor vehicle made pursuant to the terms of a motor vehicle equity loan agreement.

118 "Motor vehicle equity loan agreement" means an agreement under which a lender makes a motor
 119 vehicle equity loan to a consumer for a specific amount of money with a specific repayment schedule, 120 and does not provide that the borrower has the right to borrow additional money.

"Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, cooperative, limited liability company, trust, joint venture, or other legal or commercial entity.

"Principal" means any person who, directly or indirectly, owns or controls (i) 10 percent or more of the outstanding stock of a stock corporation or (ii) a 10 percent or greater interest in any other type of entity.

§ 6.1-481. License required.

A. No person shall engage in the business of making motor vehicle equity loans to any consumer residing in the Commonwealth, whether or not the person has a location in the Commonwealth, except in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and without having first obtained a license under this chapter from the Commission. If a motor vehicle equity loan is made in violation of this section, the loan and the lender's security interest in the motor vehicle shall be void, and the lender shall have no right to collect or receive any principal, interest, or charges whatsoever. Any funds or property taken or received by an unlicensed lender shall be returned to the borrower. If the property is sold by the lender, the lender shall provide the borrower with the fair market value of the property.

B. No person shall engage in the business of arranging or brokering motor vehicle equity loans for any consumer residing in the Commonwealth, whether or not the person has a location in the Commonwealth.

§ 6.1-482. Applicability.

A. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any bank, savings institution, or credit union that does not elect to become licensed under this chapter. Electing to become licensed under this chapter, however, shall constitute a waiver of the benefit of any and all laws of the Commonwealth and other states, territories, possessions, and districts of the United States and federal laws preemptive of, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this chapter.

B. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to extensions of credit secured by purchase money security interests.

§ 6.1-483. Application for license; form; content; fee.

A. An application for a license under this chapter shall be made in writing, under oath and on a form provided by the Commissioner.

B. The application shall include:

1. The name and address of the applicant; and (i) if the applicant is a partnership, firm, or association, the name and address of each partner or member; (ii) if the applicant is a corporation or limited liability company, the name and address of each director, member, registered agent, and principal; or (iii) if the applicant is a business trust, the name and address of each trustee and beneficiary;

2. The name and address of each manager and officer;

3. The addresses of the locations of the business to be licensed; and

4. Such other information concerning the financial responsibility, background, experience, and activities of the applicant and the persons referred to in this section as the Commissioner may require.

C. The application shall be accompanied by payment of an application fee of $1,000.

D. The application fee shall not be refundable in any event. The fee shall not be abated by surrender, suspension, or revocation of the license.

§ 6.1-484. Bond required.

The application for a license shall also be accompanied by a bond filed with the Commissioner with corporate surety authorized to execute such bond in this Commonwealth, in the sum of $50,000 or such greater sum as the Commissioner may require. The form of the bond shall be approved by the Commission. Such bond shall be continuously maintained thereafter in full force. Such bond shall be conditioned upon the applicant or licensee performing all written agreements with borrowers or prospective borrowers, correctly and accurately accounting for all funds received by him in his licensed business, and conducting his licensed business in conformity with this chapter and all applicable law. Any person who may be damaged by noncompliance of the licensee with any condition of such bond may proceed on such bond against the principal or surety thereon, or both, to recover damages. The aggregate liability under the bond shall not exceed the penal sum of the bond.

§ 6.1-485. Investigation of applications.

The Commissioner may make such investigations as he deems necessary to determine if the applicant has complied with all applicable provisions of law and regulations adopted thereunder.

§ 6.1-486. Qualifications.

A. Upon the filing and investigation of an application for a license, and compliance by the applicant with the provisions of §§ 6.1-483 and 6.1-484, the Commission shall issue and deliver to the applicant the license applied for to engage in business under this chapter at the locations specified in the application if it finds:

1. That the financial responsibility, character, reputation, experience, and general fitness of the

182 applicant and its members, senior officers, directors, trustees, and principals are such as to warrant
183 belief that the business will be operated efficiently and fairly, in the public interest, and in accordance 184 with law; and

185 2. That the applicant has unencumbered liquid assets per location available for the operation of the 186 business of at least $50,000.

187 B. If the Commission fails to make such findings, no license shall be issued and the Commissioner 188 shall notify the applicant of the denial and the reasons for such denial.

189 § 6.1-487. Licenses; places of business; changes.

190 A. Each license shall state the address or addresses at which the business is to be conducted and 191 shall state fully the legal name of the licensee as well as any fictitious name by which the licensee is 192 operating in the Commonwealth. Each license shall be posted prominently in each place of business of 193 the licensee. Licenses shall not be transferable or assignable, by operation of law or otherwise. No
194 licensee shall use any name in the Commonwealth other than the legal name or fictitious name set forth
195 on the license issued by the Commission.

196 B. No licensee shall open an additional office or relocate any place of business without prior 197 approval of the Commission. Applications for such approval shall be made in writing on a form
198 provided by the Commissioner and shall be accompanied by payment of a $150 nonrefundable
199 application fee. The application shall be approved unless the Commission finds that the applicant has 200 not conducted business under this chapter efficiently, fairly, in the public interest, and in accordance 201 with law. After approval, the applicant shall give written notice to the Commissioner within 10 days of 202 the commencement of business at the additional location or relocated place of business.

203 C. Every licensee shall within 10 days notify the Commissioner, in writing, of the closing of any 204 business location and of the name, address, and position of each new senior officer, member, trustee, 205 partner, or director and provide such other information with respect to any such change as the 206 Commissioner may reasonably require.

207 D. Every license shall remain in force until it has been surrendered, revoked, or suspended. The 208 surrender, revocation, or suspension of a license shall not affect any preexisting legal right or 209 obligation of such licensee.

210 § 6.1-488. Acquisition of control; application.

211 A. Except as provided in this section, no person shall acquire, directly or indirectly, 25 percent or
212 more of the voting shares of a corporation or 25 percent or more of the ownership of any other person
213 licensed to conduct business under this chapter unless such person first:

214 1. Files an application with the Commission in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe from 215 time to time;

216 2. Delivers such other information to the Commissioner as the Commissioner may require concerning 217 the financial responsibility, background, experience, and activities of the applicant, its directors, senior 218 officers, principals, and members, and of any proposed new directors, senior officers, principals, or 219 members of the licensee; and

220 3. Pays a nonrefundable application fee of $1,000.

221 B. Upon the filing and investigation of an application, the Commission shall permit the applicant to 222 acquire the interest in the licensee if it finds that the applicant, its members if applicable, its directors,
223 senior officers, trustees, and principals, and any proposed new directors, members, senior officers,
224 trustees, and principals have the financial responsibility, character, reputation, experience, and general
225 fitness to warrant belief that the business will be operated efficiently and fairly, in the public interest,
226 and in accordance with law. The Commission shall grant or deny the application within 60 days from 227 the date a completed application accompanied by the required fee is filed unless the period is extended
228 by order of the Commissioner reciting the reasons for the extension. If the application is denied, the 229 Commission shall notify the applicant of the denial and the reasons for the denial.

230 C. The provisions of this section shall not apply to (i) the acquisition of an interest in a licensee,
231 directly or indirectly, including an acquisition by merger or consolidation by or with a person licensed
232 under this chapter; (ii) the acquisition of an interest in a licensee, directly or indirectly, by merger or 233 consolidation by or with a person affiliated through common ownership with the licensee; or (iii) the 234 acquisition of an interest in a licensee by bequest, descent, survivorship, or operation of law. The 235 person acquiring an interest in a licensee in a transaction that is exempt from filing an application by 236 this subsection shall send written notice to the Commissioner of such acquisition within 30 days of its 237 closing.

238 § 6.1-489. Retention of books, accounts, and records.

239 A. Every licensee shall maintain in its licensed offices such books, accounts, and records as the 240 Commissioner may reasonably require in order to determine whether such licensee is complying with 241 the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted in furtherance thereof. Such books, 242 accounts, and records shall be maintained apart and separate from any other business in which the 243 licensee is involved. To safeguard the privacy of consumers, records containing personal financial information shall be shredded, incinerated, or otherwise disposed of in a secure manner. Licensees may arrange for service from a business record destruction vendor.

B. Each licensee shall retain, for at least three years after final payment is made on any motor vehicle equity loan, copies of the loan application, loan agreement, and such other papers or records relating to the motor vehicle equity loan as may be required by rule or regulation.

C. When the Bureau requests a written response, books, records, documentation, or other information from a licensee in connection with the Bureau's investigation, enforcement, or examination of compliance with applicable laws and regulations, the licensee shall deliver a written response as well as any requested books, records, documentation, or information within the time period specified in the Bureau's request. If no time period is specified, a written response as well as any requested books, records, documentation, or information shall be delivered by the licensee to the Bureau not later than 30 days from the date of such request. In determining the specified time period for responding to the Bureau and when considering a request for an extension of time to respond, the Bureau shall take into consideration the volume and complexity of the requested written response, books, records, documentation, or information and such other factors as the Bureau determines to be relevant under the circumstances.

§ 6.1-490. Annual report.

Each licensee under this chapter shall annually, on or before March 25, file a written report with the Commissioner regarding the number of loans made, the number of borrowers' motor vehicles repossessed and details about repossessed motor vehicles that are sold, loan amounts, and any other information as the Commissioner may require concerning his business and operations during the preceding calendar year as to each licensed place of business. Reports shall be made under oath and shall be in the form prescribed by the Commissioner.

§ 6.1-491. Filing of written report with Commissioner; events impacting activities of licensee.

Within 15 days of becoming aware of the occurrence of any of the events listed below, a licensee shall file a written report with the Commissioner describing such event and its expected impact, if any, on the activities of the licensee in the Commonwealth:

1. The filing of bankruptcy, reorganization, or receivership proceedings by or against the licensee;
2. The institution of revocation or suspension proceedings against the licensee by any governmental authority;

3. The denial of the opportunity to engage in business by any governmental authority;

4. Any felony indictment of the licensee or any of its members, employees, officers, directors, trustees, or principals;

5. Any felony conviction of the licensee or any of its members, employees, officers, directors, trustees, or principals;

6. The licensee surrenders its license to engage in business in another state in lieu of threatened or pending license revocation, license suspension, or other regulatory or enforcement action;

7. The institution of an action against the licensee under the Virginia Consumer Protection Act (§ 59.1-196 et seq.) by the Attorney General or any other governmental authority; or

8. Such other events as the Commission may determine and identify by regulation.

§ 6.1-492. Investigations; examinations.

The Commission may, by its designated officers and employees, as often as it deems necessary, investigate and examine the affairs, business, premises, and records of any person licensed or required to be licensed under this chapter insofar as they pertain to any business for which a license is required by this chapter. Examinations of licensees shall be conducted at least once in each three-year period. In the course of such investigations and examinations, the owners, members, officers, directors, partners, trustees, beneficiaries, and employees of such person being investigated or examined shall, upon demand of the person making such investigation or examination, afford full access to all premises, books, records, and information that the person making such investigation or examination deems necessary. For the foregoing purposes, the person making such investigation or examination shall have authority to administer oaths, examine under oath all the aforementioned persons, and compel the production of papers and objects of all kinds.

§ 6.1-493. Annual fees.

A. In order to defray the costs of their examination, supervision, and regulation, every licensee under this chapter shall pay an annual fee calculated in accordance with a schedule set by the Commission. The schedule shall bear a reasonable relationship to the business volume of such licensees, the actual costs of their examinations, and to other factors relating to their supervision and regulation. All such fees shall be assessed on or before August 1 for every calendar year. All such fees shall be paid by the licensee to the State Treasurer on or before September 1 following each assessment.

B. In addition to the annual fee prescribed in subsection A, when it becomes necessary to examine or investigate the books and records of a licensee under this chapter at a location outside the 308 approved by the Commission.

309 § 6.1-494. Interest and other charges.

310 A. A licensee may charge and collect interest on the outstanding balance of a motor vehicle equity
311 loan only at such fixed periodic simple interest rate as may be agreed to by the borrower, provided that 312 the effective rate of simple interest does not exceed 10 percent per month for the first two months of the 313 loan term and three percent per month for the remaining term of the loan. Payments shall be credited
314 by the licensee on the date received. Notwithstanding anything set forth in this chapter or in a motor

317 equity loan shall be deemed to have been made without interest, and any interest accrued on the loan at

319 B. In addition to the loan principal and interest permitted under subsection A, a licensee shall not 320 directly or indirectly charge, contract for, collect, receive, recover, or require a borrower to pay any

334 repossess the motor vehicle:

335 1. At least 60 days prior to repossessing a motor vehicle, a licensee shall send written notice to a
336 borrower advising the borrower how much is owed on the loan and offering the borrower an

339 without charge or additional cost to the borrower; and (iii) pay that amount within the 60 day period,
340 in which event the licensee is prohibited from repossessing the motor vehicle;

341 2. At least 30 days prior to the sale of a motor vehicle that has been repossessed by a licensee, the 342 licensee shall notify the borrower of the date, time, and place of the sale and provide the borrower with

346 licensee shall permit the borrower to redeem the motor vehicle by tendering cash or other good funds
347 instrument for the principal amount due to the licensee, interest accrued through the date the licensee
348 took possession, and any reasonable expenses incurred to date by the licensee in repossessing the motor
349 vehicle and preparing it for sale. Nothing in this chapter nor in any motor vehicle equity loan 350 agreement shall preclude a borrower from purchasing the motor vehicle at any sale; and

351 3. Within 15 days of receiving funds from the sale of a motor vehicle, a licensee shall send to the the motor vehicle being used as security for the loan; (v) an agreement by the licensee that the borrower shall have the right to cancel the motor vehicle equity loan agreement within three days following the date the agreement is executed by returning the original loan proceeds check or paying to the licensee, in the form of cash or other good funds instrument, the amount advanced to the borrower; (vi) an agreement that the borrower shall have the right to prepay a motor vehicle loan prior to maturity by paying the licensee the principal amount advanced and any accrued and unpaid interest; (vii) a requirement that each motor vehicle equity loan be repaid in full, including all accrued interest, within 12 months of the date such loan is made; and (viii) a requirement that the amount loaned be repaid in substantially equal monthly installments of principal and interest. THE INTEREST RATE ON THIS LOAN IS HIGH. YOU SHOULD CONSIDER WHETHER THERE ARE OTHER LOWER COST LOANS AVAILABLE TO YOU.

THIS IS A MOTOR VEHICLE EQUITY LOAN AGREEMENT. IT ALLOWS YOU TO RECEIVE LOAN PROCEEDS TO MEET YOUR IMMEDIATE CASH NEEDS. IT IS NOT INTENDED TO MEET YOUR LONG-TERM FINANCIAL NEEDS.

WHEN OBTAINING A LOAN UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, YOU SHOULD REQUEST THE MINIMUM AMOUNT REQUIRED TO MEET YOUR IMMEDIATE NEEDS AND YOU SHOULD REPAY THE LOAN AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE TO REDUCE THE AMOUNT OF INTEREST YOU ARE CHARGED.

YOU MAY RESCIND THIS LOAN WITHOUT COST OR FURTHER OBLIGATION IF YOU RETURN THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT ADVANCED, IN CASH OR OTHER GOOD FUNDS INSTRUMENT, PRIOR TO THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS ON THE BUSINESS DAY IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO CANCEL THIS LOAN AGREEMENT WITHIN THREE DAYS FOLLOWING THE DATE OF THE LOAN AGREEMENT BY RETURNING THE ORIGINAL LOAN PROCEEDS CHECK OR REPAYING THE ENTIRE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT ADVANCED, IN WHICH EVENT YOU WILL NOT BE REQUIRED TO PAY ANY INTEREST.

YOU ARE PLEDGING YOUR MOTOR VEHICLE AS COLLATERAL FOR THIS LOAN. IF YOU FAIL TO REPAY THE LOAN PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT, WE MAY REPOSSESS YOUR MOTOR VEHICLE IF YOU HAVE NOT REPAYED AN AMOUNT EQUIVALENT TO 100 PERCENT OF THE AMOUNT YOU BORROWED.

IF YOUR MOTOR VEHICLE IS SOLD DUE TO YOUR DEFAULT, YOU ARE ENTITLED TO ANY SURPLUS OBTAINED AT SUCH SALE BEYOND WHAT IS OWED PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT ALONG WITH ANY REASONABLE COSTS OF REPOSSESSION, PREPARATION FOR SALE, AND SALE OF THE MOTOR VEHICLE;

Furthermore, no agreement shall contain (a) an acceleration clause under which a licensee may demand immediate payment of any amount owed to it unless the borrower is in default under the terms of such agreement or (b) a provision by which a person acting on behalf of the licensee is treated as an agent of the borrower in connection with its formation or execution. Any clause or provision in violation of this subsection shall be unenforceable;

2. The person has been (i) convicted of or pled guilty to or pled nolo contendere to any crime or (ii) held liable in any civil action by final judgment, or any administrative judgment by any public agency, if the criminal, civil, or administrative judgment involved any offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a person engaged in the business in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

In any action brought under this subdivision, the refusal by any person, or any employee, agent, or servant thereof, to sell any goods or services advertised or offered for sale at the price or upon the terms advertised or offered, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this subdivision. This paragraph shall not apply when it is clearly and conspicuously stated in the advertisement or offer by which such goods or services are advertised or offered for sale, that the supplier or offeror has a limited quantity or amount of such goods or services for sale, and the supplier or offeror at the time of such advertisement or offer did in fact have or reasonably expected to have at least such quantity or amount for sale;

14. Using any other deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise, or misrepresentation in connection with a consumer transaction;

a. The return of goods for refund, exchange, or credit. If the supplier does not permit a refund, exchange, or credit for return, he shall so state on a similar sign. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any retail merchant who has a policy of providing, for a period of not less than 20 days after date of purchase, a cash refund or credit to the purchaser's credit card account for the return of defective, unused, or undamaged merchandise upon presentation of proof of purchase. 16a. Failing to provide written notice to a consumer of an existing open-end credit balance in excess of $5 (i) on an account maintained by the supplier and (ii) resulting from such consumer's overpayment on such account. Suppliers shall give consumers written notice of such credit balances within 60 days of receiving overpayments. If the credit balance information is incorporated into statements of account furnished consumers by suppliers within such 60-day period, no separate or additional notice is required;
