96 as otherwise provided in § 16.1-253.2, a violation of the order shall constitute contempt of court.

97 D. At a full hearing on the petition, the court may issue a protective order pursuant to § 16.1-279.1 if 98 the court finds that the petitioner has proven the allegation of family abuse by a preponderance of the 99 evidence.

100 E. Neither a law-enforcement agency, the attorney for the Commonwealth, a court nor the clerk's 101 office, nor any employee of them, may disclose, except among themselves, the residential address, 102 telephone number, or place of employment of the person protected by the order or that of the family of 103 such person, except to the extent that disclosure is (i) required by law or the Rules of the Supreme 104 Court, (ii) necessary for law-enforcement purposes, or (iii) permitted by the court for good cause.

105 F. As used in this section, "copy" includes a facsimile copy.

106 G. No fee shall be charged for filing or serving any petition or order pursuant to this section.

107 § 16.1-253.4. Emergency protective orders authorized in certain cases; penalty.

108 A. Any judge of a circuit court, general district court, juvenile and domestic relations district court or 109 magistrate may issue a written or oral ex parte emergency protective order pursuant to this section in 110 order to protect the health or safety of any person.

111 B. When a law-enforcement officer or an allegedly abused person asserts under oath to a judge or 112 magistrate, and on that assertion or other evidence the judge or magistrate (i) finds that a warrant for a 113 violation of § 18.2-57.2 has been issued or issues a warrant for violation of § 18.2-57.2 and finds that 114 there is probable danger of further acts of family abuse against a family or household member by the 115 respondent or (ii) finds that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the respondent has committed 116 family abuse and there is probable danger of a further such offense against a family or household 117 member by the respondent, the judge or magistrate shall issue an ex parte emergency protective order, 118 except if the respondent is a minor, an emergency protective order shall not be required, imposing one 119 or more of the following conditions on the respondent:

120 1. Prohibiting acts of family abuse;
121 2. Prohibiting such contacts by the respondent with family or household members of the respondent 122 as the judge or magistrate deems necessary to protect the safety of such persons; and 128 location to both the petitioner and the local law-enforcement agency when the person is near or at any 129 prohibited location, the cost for such monitoring to be paid by the allegedly abusing person.

130 When the judge or magistrate considers the issuance of an emergency protective order pursuant to 131 clause (i) of this subsection, he shall presume that there is probable danger of further acts of family 132 abuse against a family or household member by the respondent unless the presumption is rebutted by the 133 allegedly abused person.

134 C. An emergency protective order issued pursuant to this section shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the 135 third day following issuance. If the expiration occurs on a day that the court is not in session, the 136 emergency protective order shall be extended until 11:59 p.m. on the next day that the juvenile and 137 domestic relations district court is in session. When issuing an emergency protective order under this 138 section, the judge or magistrate shall provide the protected person or the law-enforcement officer seeking 139 the emergency protective order with the form for use in filing petitions pursuant to § 16.1-253.1 and 140 written information regarding protective orders that shall include the telephone numbers of domestic 141 violence agencies and legal referral sources on a form prepared by the Supreme Court. If these forms 142 are provided to a law-enforcement officer, the officer may provide these forms to the protected person 143 when giving the emergency protective order to the protected person. The respondent may at any time 144 file a motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or modify the order issued hereunder. The 145 hearing on the motion shall be given precedence on the docket of the court.

146 D. A law-enforcement officer may request an emergency protective order pursuant to this section 147 and, if the person in need of protection is physically or mentally incapable of filing a petition pursuant 148 to § 16.1-253.1 or § 16.1-279.1, may request the extension of an emergency protective order for an 149 additional period of time not to exceed three days after expiration of the original order. The request for 150 an emergency protective order or extension of an order may be made orally, in person or by electronic 151 means, and the judge of a circuit court, general district court, or juvenile and domestic relations district 152 court or a magistrate may issue an oral emergency protective order. An oral emergency protective order 153 issued pursuant to this section shall be reduced to writing, by the law-enforcement officer requesting the 154 order or the magistrate on a preprinted form approved and provided by the Supreme Court of Virginia.
155 The completed form shall include a statement of the grounds for the order asserted by the officer or the 156 allegedly abused person.

157 E. The court or magistrate shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day 158 on which the order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information 159 Network the respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each 160 protected person provided to the court or magistrate. A copy of an emergency protective order issued 161 pursuant to this section containing any such identifying information shall be forwarded forthwith to the 162 primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders. Upon receipt of 163 the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any 164 modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by 165 the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established and 166 maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be 167 served forthwith upon the respondent and due return made to the court. However, if the order is issued 168 by the circuit court, the clerk of the circuit court shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the order 169 containing the respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each 170 protected person provided to the court to the primary law-enforcement agency providing service and 171 entry of protective orders and upon receipt of the order, the primary law-enforcement agency shall enter 172 the name of the person subject to the order and other appropriate information required by the 173 Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Network established and maintained by the 174 Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith
175 on the respondent. Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and 176 other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal 177 Information Network and make due return to the court. One copy of the order shall be given to the 178 allegedly abused person when it is issued, and one copy shall be filed with the written report required 179 by § 19.2-81.3 C. The judge or magistrate who issues an oral order pursuant to an electronic request by 180 a law-enforcement officer shall verify the written order to determine whether the officer who reduced it

181 to writing accurately transcribed the contents of the oral order. The original copy shall be filed with the 182 clerk of the juvenile and domestic relations district court within five business days of the issuance of the 183 order. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall 184 also be attested, forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and 185 entry of protective orders, and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the 186 agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and 187 other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal 188 Information Network as described above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to 189 the court. Upon request, the clerk shall provide the allegedly abused person with information regarding 190 the date and time of service.

191 F. The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the fact that the family 192 or household member left the premises to avoid the danger of family abuse by the respondent.

193 G. The issuance of an emergency protective order shall not be considered evidence of any 194 wrongdoing by the respondent.

195 H. As used in this section, a "law-enforcement officer" means any (i) full-time or part-time employee 196 of a police department or sheriff's office which is part of or administered by the Commonwealth or any

411 officer shall verify the written order to determine whether the officer who reduced it to writing 412 accurately transcribed the contents of the oral order. The original copy shall be filed with the clerk of 413 the appropriate district court within five business days of the issuance of the order. If the order is later 414 dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded

463 B. The court shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the 464 order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network the 465 respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person 466 provided to the court. A copy of a preliminary protective order containing any such identifying 467 information shall be forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service 468 and entry of protective orders. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the 482 date and time of service and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police 483 into the Virginia Criminal Information Network and make due return to the court. The preliminary order 484 shall specify a date for the full hearing. The hearing shall be held within 15 days of the issuance of the 485 preliminary order. If the respondent fails to appear at this hearing because the respondent was not 486 personally served, the court may extend the protective order for a period not to exceed six months. The 487 extended protective order shall be served as soon as possible on the respondent. However, upon motion 488 of the respondent and for good cause shown, the court may continue the hearing. The preliminary order

489 shall remain in effect until the hearing. Upon request after the order is issued, the clerk shall provide the 492 to dissolve or modify the order. The hearing on the motion shall be given precedence on the docket of 493 the court.

494 Upon receipt of the return of service or other proof of service pursuant to subsection C of 495 § 16.1-264, the clerk shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the preliminary protective order to 496 primary law-enforcement agency and the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as

 500 and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify 501 and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information 502 required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described 503 above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court.

504 C. The preliminary order is effective upon personal service on the alleged perpetrator. Except as 505 otherwise provided in § 16.1-253.2, a violation of the order shall constitute contempt of court.

506 D. At a full hearing on the petition, the court may issue a protective order pursuant to § 19.2-152.10 507 if the court finds that the petitioner has proven the allegation of a criminal offense resulting in a serious 508 bodily injury to the petitioner, sexual battery in violation of § 18.2-67.4, aggravated sexual battery in 509 violation of § 18.2-67.3, or stalking by a preponderance of the evidence.

 536 respondent.

537 B. The protective order may be issued for a specified period; however, unless otherwise authorized 538 by law, a protective order may not be issued under this section for a period longer than two years. The

550 Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith
551 upon the respondent and due return made to the court. However, if the order is issued by the circuit

572 E. Any judgment, order or decree, whether permanent or temporary, issued by a court of appropriate 573 jurisdiction in another state, the United States or any of its territories, possessions or Commonwealths,

576 to another person, including any of the conditions specified in subsection A, shall be accorded full faith
577 and credit and enforced in the Commonwealth as if it were an order of the Commonwealth, provided 578 reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard were given by the issuing jurisdiction to the person 579 against whom the order is sought to be enforced sufficient to protect such person's due process rights 580 and consistent with federal law. A person entitled to protection under such a foreign order may file the 590 of his duties, rely upon a copy of a foreign protective order or other suitable evidence which has been 591 provided to him by any source and may also rely upon the statement of any person protected by the 592 order that the order remains in effect.

593 F. Either party may at any time file a written motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve 594 or modify the order. Proceedings to modify or dissolve a protective order shall be given precedence on 596 G. Neither a law-enforcement agency, the attorney for the Commonwealth, a court nor the clerk's 597 office, nor any employee of them, may disclose, except among themselves, the residential address,

607 proper (i) to compel a spouse to pay any sums necessary for the maintenance and support of the 608 petitioning spouse, including an order that the other spouse provide health care coverage for the 609 petitioning spouse, unless it is shown that such coverage cannot be obtained, (ii) to enable such spouse 610 to carry on the suit, (iii) to prevent either spouse from imposing any restraint on the personal liberty of 611 the other spouse, (iv) to provide for the custody and maintenance of the minor children of the parties,

612 including an order that either party or both parties provide health care coverage or cash medical support, 613 or both, for the children, (v) to provide support, calculated in accordance with § 20-108.2, for any child 614 of the parties to whom a duty of support is owed and to continue to support any child over the age of

 616 possession of the family residence during the pendency of the suit, (vii) to preserve the estate of either 617 spouse, so that it be forthcoming to meet any decree which may be made in the suit, or (viii) to compel 618 either spouse to give security to abide such decree. The parties to any petition where a child whose 619 custody, visitation, or support is contested shall show proof that they have attended within the 12 620 months prior to their court appearance or that they shall attend within 45 days thereafter an educational 621 seminar or other like program conducted by a qualified person or organization approved by the court 622 except that the court may require the parties to attend such seminar or program in uncontested cases 623 only if the court finds good cause. The seminar or other program shall be a minimum of four hours in 624 length and shall address the effects of separation or divorce on children, parenting responsibilities, 625 options for conflict resolution and financial responsibilities. Once a party has completed one educational 626 seminar or other like program, the required completion of additional programs shall be at the court's 627 discretion. Parties under this section shall include natural or adoptive parents of the child, or any person 628 with a legitimate interest as defined in § 20-124.1. The fee charged a party for participation in such

 630 Whenever possible, before participating in mediation or alternative dispute resolution to address custody, 631 visitation or support, each party shall have attended the educational seminar or other like program. The 632 court may grant an exemption from attendance of such program for good cause shown or if there is no
 633 program reasonably available. Other than statements or admissions by a party admitting criminal activity 634 or child abuse, no statement or admission by a party in such seminar or program shall be admissible 635 into evidence in any subsequent proceeding.

636 B. In addition to the terms provided in subsection A, upon a showing by a party of reasonable 637 apprehension of physical harm to that party by such party's family or household member as that term is 638 defined in § 16.1-228, and consistent with rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, the court may enter 639 an order excluding that party's family or household member from the jointly owned or jointly rented 640 family dwelling and may require the excluded person to be subject to electronic monitoring by means of 641 a GPS (Global Positioning System) tracking device or other similar device that sends a signal indicating 642 the excluded person's location to both the moving party and the local law-enforcement agency when the 643 person is near or at the dwelling from which he is excluded, the cost for such monitoring to be paid by 644 the excluded person. In any case where an order is entered under this ~~paragraph~~ subsection, pursuant to 645 an ex parte hearing, the order shall not exclude a family or household member from the family dwelling 646 for a period in excess of 15 days from the date the order is served, in person, upon the person so 647 excluded. The order may provide for an extension of time beyond the 15 days, to become effective 648 automatically. The person served may at any time file a written motion in the clerk's office requesting a 649 hearing to dissolve or modify the order. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the court 650 from extending an order entered under this subsection for such longer period of time as is deemed 651 appropriate, after a hearing on notice to the parties. If the party subject to the order fails to appear at 652 this hearing, the court may extend the order for a period not to exceed six months.

653 C. In cases other than those for divorce in which a custody or visitation arrangement for a minor 654 child is sought, the court may enter an order providing for custody, visitation or maintenance pending 656 legitimate interest who is a party to the suit.

657 D. Orders entered pursuant to this section which provide for custody or visitation arrangements 658 pending the suit shall be made in accordance with the standards set out in Chapter 6.1 (§ 20-124.1 et 659 seq.) of this title. Orders entered pursuant to subsection B shall be certified by the clerk and forwarded 660 as soon as possible to the local police department or sheriff's office which shall, on the date of receipt, 661 enter the name of the person subject to the order and other appropriate information required by the 662 Department of State Police into the Virginia crime information network system established and 663 maintained by the Department of State Police pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52. If the 664 order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification shall also be certified, 665 forwarded and entered in the system as described above.

666 E. An order entered pursuant to this section shall have no presumptive effect and shall not be 667 determinative when adjudicating the underlying cause.
