The Central Criminal Records Exchange, upon receipt of an applicant's or employee's record or notification that no record exists, shall make a report to the commission's chief administrative officer, who must belong to a governmental entity. If an applicant is denied employment or a contractor's employee is denied assignment to the commission's contract because of the information appearing in his criminal history record, the commission shall notify the applicant or the contractor, who shall notify the employee, that information obtained from the Central Criminal Records Exchange contributed to such denial. The applicant or employee shall be entitled to obtain a copy of any background check report, to challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in such report, and to obtain a prompt determination as to the validity of such challenge before a final determination is made by the commission or its contractor. The information shall not be disseminated except as provided for in this section.

The Central Criminal Records Exchange, upon receipt of an applicant's or licensee's record or notification that no record exists, shall make a report to the county, city or town manager, or chief law-enforcement officer or his designee, who must belong to a governmental entity. If an applicant is denied employment or a licensee is denied a license because of the information appearing in his criminal history record, the locality shall notify the applicant or licensee that information obtained from the Central Criminal Records Exchange contributed to such denial. The applicant or licensee shall be entitled to obtain a copy of any background check report, to challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in such report, and to obtain a prompt determination as to the validity of such challenge before a final determination is made by the locality.
