WHEREAS, June 6, 2010, is the 66th anniversary of the Normandy Invasion, commonly known as D-Day; this epic and decisive moment in World War II helped defeat Nazi rule in Europe and was the most massive military operation in world history; and

WHEREAS, the only National Guard division of the United States Army selected to participate in the initial assault on the coast of France was the 29th Infantry Division of the Virginia-Maryland-District of Columbia National Guard; this division was assigned as its objective that beach sector designated Omaha, which because of the fierce resistance encountered there soon became known as "Bloody Omaha"; and

WHEREAS, Virginia's historic "Stonewall Brigade," the 116th Infantry Regiment, was chosen to be in the first wave at Omaha and, after a bloody battle on the beach, finally succeeded in taking the high ground above it, and thus secured a beachhead in France; when "the Longest Day" ended, the courageous regiment of over 3,100 soldiers had suffered 1,107 casualties; and

WHEREAS, joining the 116th Infantry Regiment in the assault was Virginia's 111th Field Artillery Battalion and other smaller units from the Virginia National Guard, all elements of the 29th Infantry Division; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia communities represented in the D-Day Invasion were:

60 WHEREAS, many brave individuals participated in the Normandy Invasion and all who worked so 61 hard and fought so valiantly are honored as heroes; and

62 WHEREAS, General George C. Marshall, U.S. Army Chief of Staff, helped plan the Allied invasion
63 of France; he graduated from the Virginia Military Institute as First Captain of the Corps of Cadets in 64 1901; and

65 WHEREAS, a former commander of the 29th Infantry Division, Lieutenant General Leonard Gerow
66 was promoted to command the V Corps (Fifth Corps), made up of the 1st and 29th Infantry Divisions, 67 which were the first troops to land on Omaha Beach; he was a native of Petersburg and a graduate of 68 the Virginia Military Institute, Class of 1911; and

69 WHEREAS, on June 8, 1944, Technical Sergeant Frank D. Peregory of Charlottesville's Company K,
70 from the 116th Infantry Regiment, single-handedly killed or captured over 25 enemy soldiers, earning 71 the Congressional Medal of Honor, only to be killed in action six days later; and

72 WHEREAS, a graduate of The Citadel's Class of 1929 and a teacher and coach at Staunton Military 73 Academy, Major Thomas D. Howie of Staunton's Company L, best known as "the Major of St Lo," was 74 killed in action on July 17, 1944, while in command of the 3rd Battalion, 116th Infantry, during its final 75 drive to capture the strategic city of Saint-Lô; and

76 WHEREAS, commander of the 111th Field Artillery Battalion, Lieutenant Colonel Thornton L.
77 Mullins of Richmond, after his unit lost all of its guns but one in the English Channel when its landing 78 craft were either swamped or destroyed by enemy fire, was killed in action while leading a band of 79 survivors and destroying several enemy positions; he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, the 80 U.S. Army's second highest award for valor; and

81 WHEREAS, today, the 116th Infantry Regiment and other Virginia National Guard units of soldiers 82 and airmen maintain a proud tradition with troops deployed in harm's way in the Global War on 83 Terrorism, such as the mobilization to Iraq of the 1st Battalion, 116th Infantry on January 6, 2010, and 84 deployments of the 3rd Battalion, 116th Infantry to Iraq and Afghanistan, and soldiers of the 116th
85 joined soldiers from across the Virginia National Guard in several Embedded Training Teams serving in 86 Afghanistan mentoring Afghan security forces; and

87 WHEREAS, since the start of the current wars in Afghanistan and Iraq, nearly 10,000 men and 88 women of the Virginia National Guard have served in one or both conflicts, many on multiple tours,
89 and a total of 13 members have died on active duty protecting our liberties, and it is fitting we honor 90 and remember their service and sacrifices; and

91 WHEREAS, the Commonwealth of Virginia and its citizens are indebted to and thankful for the 92 D-Day soldiers, their successors in the ranks of the Virginia National Guard today, and their families for 93 their valiant service and enormous sacrifice; now, therefore, be it

94 RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly
95 commend the 29th Infantry Division of the Virginia-Maryland-District of Columbia National Guard and 96 the Virginia communities represented in the Normandy Invasion on the 66th anniversary of D-Day that 97 occurred on June 6, 1944, honoring the brave troops who served there, especially the soldiers of the 98 Stonewall Brigade, 116th Infantry Regiment who fought in the first wave of attack and the 111th Field
99 Artillery Battalion, both of which are a part of the 29th Infantry Division; and, be it

100 RESOLVED FURTHER, That the General Assembly acknowledge the efforts of the Virginia
101 National Guard to commemorate the Normandy Invasion with a Day of Awareness to remind Virginians 102 of the sacrifices made to preserve their freedoms by those who fought on D-Day and by the men and 103 women of the Virginia National Guard who continue to fight around the world to protect liberty for 104 their countrymen; and, be it

105 RESOLVED FINALLY, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution 106 for presentation to Major General Robert B. Newman, Jr., the Adjutant General of Virginia, on behalf of 107 the General Assembly in recognition of the soldiers of the 29th Infantry Division of the 108 Virginia-Maryland-District of Columbia National Guard and the Virginia communities represented in the 109 Normandy Invasion who fought at Normandy and on into the heart of Germany to help bring about the 110 final victory over Nazi tyranny.
