

2010 SESSION

ENROLLED

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 347

Celebrating the life of Jeanice Elaine McMillan.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 5, 2010

Agreed to by the Senate, March 10, 2010

WHEREAS, Jeanice Elaine McMillan, age 42, of Springfield, a respected citizen, a cherished mother, daughter, sister, and friend, and a valued employee and coworker, died on June 22, 2009; and

WHEREAS, a native of Buffalo, New York, Jeanice Elaine McMillan was born on October 5, 1966, and moved to Washington, D.C., over ten years ago to make a better living and provide for herself and her beloved son, Jordan Marquel McMillan; and

WHEREAS, a caring and hard-working single mother, Jeanice McMillan dreamed of one day being able to send Jordan to college, so he would have the opportunity to have a rewarding career and a good life; and

WHEREAS, Jeanice McMillan worked for nine years as a postal worker for the United States Postal Service in Arlington County; and

WHEREAS, when her son was nearing graduation from high school, Jeanice McMillan decided to make a career move, and in 2007, she joined the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA), known as the Metro, as a bus driver for Metrobus, which is part of WMATA; and

WHEREAS, a dedicated and conscientious employee, Jeanice McMillan began working for WMATA's Metrorail as a train operator in 2008, shortly after her son enrolled as a freshman at Virginia Union University; and

WHEREAS, Jeanice McMillan took great pride in being a member of the Metrorail family and loved her job, especially interaction with her passengers, who recall "she always had a kind word and a smile for everyone"; and

WHEREAS, on June 22, 2009, during afternoon rush hour in Northeast Washington, D.C., Jeanice McMillan was operating a Metro subway train when the train collided with another on the Metro Red Line, tragically killing her and eight passengers; and

WHEREAS, it is firmly believed that Jeanice McMillan may have tried to prevent her train from colliding with a stopped train in front of her by engaging the manual emergency brake, possibly saving the lives of many people on board; and

WHEREAS, a happy, confident, and vibrant woman who was always a pleasure to be around, Jeanice McMillan will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by her son Jordan McMillan; her loving parents, Gerald and Betty J. McMillan; her brothers, Gerald II and Vernard McMillan, and sister, Nicola McMillan; her four nephews and three nieces; and a host of other loving relatives and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly mourn the passing of an outstanding Virginian, Jeanice Elaine McMillan; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Jeanice Elaine McMillan as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for her memory.

ENROLLED

HJ347ER