58 § 24.2-947.8. Filing requirements for special elections.

59 A. Candidates for nomination or election to an office to be filled by a special election held on a 60 regular election date shall file the prescribed reports of contributions and expenditures which apply to 61 regularly scheduled elections for that office.

62 B. In the case of a special election held on a date other than a regularly scheduled general election,
63 the candidate shall file as follows:

64 1. A report not later than the eighth day before the special election date complete through the 65 eleventh day before that date;

66 2. A postelection report no later than the thirtieth day after the election and prior to taking office;
67 and

68 3. A postelection report not later than January 15 and July 15 each year until a final report is filed.

69 C. Any candidate, who has been subject to the election year filing schedule set out in subdivisions B
70 1 through B 3 and who has not filed a final report, shall file reports in any subsequent election year for
71 the same office in accordance with the election year filing schedule set out in § 24.2-947.6 or 24.2-947.7
72 as appropriate for that office.

73 D. Any candidate shall also file any report of certain large contributions required by § 24.2-947.9 or 74 ~~24.2-948~~, if applicable.

75 § 24.2-948.1. Exemption from reporting requirements for certain candidates for local office.

76 A. This section shall apply to candidates for local office. A candidate for local office may seek an 77 exemption from the requirements for filing campaign finance disclosure reports set out in this chapter
78 except for the filing requirements of §§ 24.2-945.2, 24.2-947.1, 24.2-947.9, ~~24.2-948~~, and 24.2-948.4
79 pertaining to certain independent expenditures, the statement of organization, large contributions, and the 80 filing of a final report. The request for an exemption shall be filed with the electoral board of the 81 county or city where the candidate resides on a form prescribed by the State Board and in accordance 82 with instructions by the State Board for the time for filing and the process for approval by the electoral 83 board.

84 B. To qualify for an exemption, the candidate shall certify on the form that (i) he has not and will 85 not solicit or accept any contribution from any other person or political committee during the course of 86 his campaign, (ii) he has not and will not contribute to his own campaign more than $1,000, (iii) he has
87 not and will not expend more than $1,000 in the course of his campaign, and (iv) that he has complied
88 and will comply with the requirements of this chapter. This certification shall apply for the duration of 89 the campaign until the filing of a final report in compliance with § 24.2-948.4 after the election. A 90 candidate may rescind his certification and exemption at any time during the campaign and shall file in 91 accordance with the appropriate filing schedule thereafter, provided that the candidate rescinds his 92 certification prior to engaging in the activities described in clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subsection.
93 The first report filed shall account for all prior contributions and expenditures pertaining to his 94 campaign.

95 C. Any candidate who has qualified for an exemption from reporting requirements pursuant to this 96 section shall not be permitted to qualify for any office, enter upon the duties thereof, or receive any
97 salary or emoluments therefrom until a final report has been filed that details all financial activity of the 98 candidate's campaign and states that all reporting for the nomination and election is complete and final.
99 No officer authorized by the laws of the Commonwealth to issue certificates of election shall issue one
100 to any person determined to be elected to any such office, until copies of the final report cited above
101 have been filed as required in this chapter.

102 D. A candidate who has a current exemption under the provisions of this section, or who is 103 otherwise exempt from reporting contributions and expenditures under this chapter, may purchase voter
104 lists from the State Board under the provisions of §§ 24.2-405 and 24.2-406 with a check drawn on the 105 candidate's personal account.

106 § 24.2-953.1. Failure to file the required reports.

107 A. In the case of a failure to file the statement of organization for a candidate campaign committee 108 or political committee required by this chapter, there shall be a civil penalty not to exceed $500.

109 B. In the case of the failure to file a required report, the candidate campaign committee or political 110 committee shall be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $500. In the case of the failure to file a report
111 required pursuant to subsection D of § 24.2-949.6, the political action committee shall be assessed a
112 civil penalty not to exceed $500. In the case of a second or any subsequent such violation pertaining to 113 one election cycle, the candidate campaign committee or political committee shall be assessed a civil 114 penalty of $1,000 for each such failure to file.

115 C. In the case of a failure to file the report of any large pre-election contribution required by 116 § 24.2-947.9, a large contribution report required by ~~§ 24.2-948~~, or a report required pursuant to
117 subsection D of § 24.2-949.6, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the violation was willful.

118 2. That § 24.2-948 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.
