

2010 SESSION

ENROLLED

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 61

Celebrating the life of Rudolph T. Gordon.

Agreed to by the Senate, January 21, 2010
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, January 29, 2010

WHEREAS, Rudolph T. Gordon, former dean of the School of Social Science at Norfolk State University, died on December 29, 2008; and

WHEREAS, a native of Norfolk, Rudolph Gordon, one of two brothers, was the son of Eugene L. Gordon and Eva B. Midgette Gordon; and

WHEREAS, always an industrious and brilliant scholar, Rudolph Gordon was a 1946 honor graduate of Booker T. Washington High School, attended DePauw University and the University of Pennsylvania, and received a doctorate in government and politics from New York University; and

WHEREAS, Rudolph Gordon continued to learn and study about government and politics throughout his life, including engaging in postdoctoral research in comparative East African Societies; and

WHEREAS, a gifted professor and exemplary administrator, Rudolph Gordon led the School of Social Science at Norfolk State University with great distinction and dedication; and

WHEREAS, Rudolph Gordon generously gave of his time and talents in the community as a 40-year member of the Bachelor Benedict Social Club and a 25-year member of The Virginian-Pilot's Scholastic Achievement Scholarship Award Committee; and

WHEREAS, Rudolph Gordon lived his faith through his actions and as a member of the Bank Street Baptist Memorial Church, where he was actively involved in the church's many missions in the community; and

WHEREAS, Rudolph Gordon enjoyed spending time with his family and will be sorely missed by his two sons, Brian and Christopher; his brother, Denny; and his numerous friends and admirers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly note with great sadness the loss of an outstanding educator and administrator, Rudolph T. Gordon; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Rudolph T. Gordon as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

ENROLLED

SJ61ER