5. Summary: Limited liability companies. Authorizes the State Corporation Commission (SCC) to correct its records to eliminate the effects of clerical errors and filings made by a person without authority to act on behalf of a limited liability company. Similar provisions exist in the Code for stock and nonstock corporations. The measure also authorizes the SCC to assess against each domestic and foreign limited liability company an annual registration fee based on the month it was organized or registered to transact business in Virginia. Currently, all limited liability companies are assessed an annual registration fee on July 1, which is due by October 1 to avoid a penalty. The SCC is required to enter an order by August 1, 2010, regarding the schedule for implementing the change in assessment dates. The order may provide for the proration of an assessment or extension of the assessment date, due date, and automatic cancellation date.
