Second House	 	In Committee	 	Substitute	 	Enrolled

2. Patron: May

3. Committee: General Laws

4. Title: Collection of social security numbers.

5. Summary: The bill clarifies that no state or local agency may collect a social security number from an individual unless (i) the collection is required by state or federal law or (ii) the collection is imperative for the performance of that agency's duties and responsibilities as prescribed by law. The bill makes technical changes. The bill also sets out the original date, January 1, 1975, when social security numbers were authorized to be collected and required by state and local agencies under federal law.

6. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Indeterminate.

7. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.

8. Fiscal Implications: Though many of the changes are clarifying in nature, the bill may involve costs associated with business actions, computer system modifications, or processing changes, particularly in regards to the setting out of the original date when social security numbers were authorized to be collected and required by state and local agencies under federal law.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Any state agency or political subdivision with records containing social security numbers.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: None.
