

Department of Planning and Budget 2010 Fiscal Impact Statement

1. Bill Number: SB589ER

House of Origin ☐ Introduced ☐ Substitute ☐ Engrossed
Second House ☐ In Committee ☐ Substitute ☒ Enrolled

2. Patron: Marsden, D.

3. Committee: Passed Both Houses

4. Title: Child Support

5. Summary: Provides that a person convicted of DUI and issued a restricted license may be issued such a license for travel to and from appointments required as a participant in a court-ordered intensive case-monitoring program for child support. The bill also provides that the Department of Motor Vehicles shall not renew a driver's license or terminate a license suspension imposed for nonpayment of child support until it has received from the Department of Social Services a certification that a person ordered by a juvenile and domestic relations district court into an intensive case monitoring program for child support for non-custodial parents continues successful participation in the program or has completed the program. The bill also provides for the option of home/electronic incarceration of a person convicted of nonsupport.

6. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Final (see Item 8)

7. Budget Amendment Necessary: No

8. Fiscal Implications: According to the Supreme Court of Virginia (SCV), this legislation would likely result in slightly more involved proceedings in juvenile and domestic relations court. The cost associated with these extended proceedings can be absorbed with current court resources.

This legislation also impacts the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) and the Department of Social Services (DSS). According to officials at both of these agencies, this bill creates little to no fiscal impact on agency operations. The cost can be absorbed with current resources.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Courts, DMV, DSS

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No

11. Other Comments: None
