6 Approved

7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:8 1. That § 32.1-288 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

9 § 32.1-288. Disposition of dead body; how expenses paid.

10 A. After any investigation authorized or required pursuant to this article has been completed, 11 including an autopsy if one is performed, the sheriff or other person or institution having initial custody 12 of the dead body shall make good faith efforts, pursuant to § 32.1-283, to identify the next of kin of the 13 decedent, and the dead body may be claimed by the relatives or friends of the deceased person for 14 disposition. The claimant shall bear the expenses of such disposition except as provided herein. If no 15 person claims the body, the Commissioner may accept the body for scientific study as provided in 16 Article 3 (§ 32.1-298 et seq.) of this chapter. If the Commissioner refuses to accept the body for 17 scientific study, the dead body shall be accepted by the sheriff of the county or city where death 18 occurred for proper disposition.

19 B. Except as provided in subsection C or D, the reasonable expenses of disposition of the body
20 incurred by such sheriff or by the claimant to the extent such claimant is financially unable to pay them 21 shall be borne by the county or city where death occurred, or, if the deceased person was a resident of 22 Virginia at the time of death, by the county or city of residence. No such expenses shall be paid by 23 such county or city until allowed by an appropriate court in such county or city. If the deceased person 24 has an estate out of which burial expenses can be paid, either in whole or in part, such estate shall be 25 taken for such purpose.

26 C. In the case of a person who has been received into the state corrections system and died prior to 27 his release, whose body is unclaimed and whose body the Commissioner refuses to accept for scientific 28 study, the Department of Corrections shall bear the reasonable expenses for cremation or other 29 disposition of the body. In the case of a person who has been received into the state corrections system 30 and died prior to his release and whose claimant is financially unable to pay reasonable expenses of 31 disposition, the expenses shall be borne by the county or city where the claimant resides.

32 D. In the case of a person who has been committed to the custody of the Department of Behavioral 33 Health and Developmental Services and died prior to his release, whose body is unclaimed and whose 34 body the Commissioner refuses to accept for scientific study, the Department of Behavioral Health and 35 Developmental Services shall bear the reasonable expenses for cremation or other disposition of the 36 body. In the case of a person who has been committed to the custody of the Department of Behavioral
37 Health and Developmental Services and died prior to his release and whose claimant is financially
38 unable to pay reasonable expenses of disposition, the expenses shall be borne by the county or city 39 where the claimant resides.

40 E. Unless such act, decision, or omission resulted from bad faith or malicious intent, the 41 Commissioner, the Chief Medical Examiner, the funeral service establishment, funeral service licensee or 42 registered crematory shall be immune from civil liability for any act, decision, or omission resulting 43 from the acceptance of any dead body for cremation or other disposition.
