WHEREAS, the mission of the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and Museum is to honor, educate, and entertain through (i) selecting individuals who achieve greatness and serve as role models for Virginia's youth as inductees and (ii) serving as a nonprofit educational resource for math, science, health, and character development; and

WHEREAS, the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and Museum is honored to present its Class of 2011 inductees as follows:

The Class of 2011ATIIM "Tiki" BARBER

Tiki Barber is a native of Roanoke, Virginia, and a graduate of the University of Virginia where he was the Cavalier's second all-time leading rusher. Named the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year in 1996, he was a second round draft pick of the New York Giants in the 1997 National Football League Draft. With the Giants for nearly 10 years, Tiki Barber was selected to three Pro Bowls and finished his NFL career in 2006 as the all-time reception and rushing leader for New York.

JOHN "Johnny" SYLVESTER NEWMAN

Johnny Newman is a native of Danville, Virginia, and a graduate of the University of Richmond where he excelled in basketball and ended his college career as the all-time leading scorer in Spider history. He was a second round draft choice of the National Basketball Association Cleveland Cavaliers in 1986 where he scored 12,740 career points. Mr. Newman's professional basketball career covered 16 years with the NBA.

JEFFREY "Jeff" NORMAN ROUSE

Jeff Rouse is a native of Stafford, Virginia, and was a seven-time NCAA swimming champion at Stanford University. He received three Olympic Gold Medals and one Olympic Silver Medal in the 1992 and 1996 Olympics and in 1996 served as the U.S. Olympic Swim Team Captain. During his career, he won four U.S. National Championships and held a world record from 1991 to 1999.

PERNELL "Sweet Pea" WHITAKER

"Sweet Pea" Whitaker is a native of Norfolk, Virginia, and in 1984 was an Olympic Gold Medalist in boxing. He was a six-time World Boxing Champion and obtained a boxing professional record of 41 - 3 - 1 with 17 professional knockouts. He is recognized in the "boxing world" as, pound-for-pound, the greatest boxer ever.

DR. JAMES "Jim" JARRETT

Jim Jarrett served 43 years as the Director of Athletics at Old Dominion University. The athletic program during his tenure enjoyed a 91 percent student-athlete graduation rate and Dr. Jarrett was the first Athletic Director to offer scholarships to women. He is the recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

WILLIAM "Bill" H. LITTLEPAGE

Bill Littlepage attended Bridgewater College and became the winningest basketball coach in Virginia High School League (VHSL) Group AAA history. At Hopewell High School, Coach Littlepage amassed an overall coaching record of 755 and 320. He received 26 VHSL Regional Tournament berths and advanced six times to the State Tournament. Coach Littlepage was recognized as the 1993 National Coach of the Year by the National Coaches Association.
