Offered January 12, 2011

Prefiled January 11, 2011

A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 19.2-5.1, relating to the Servicemembers and Veterans Court Act.

Patrons—Miller, J.C., Colgan, Deeds, Edwards, Locke, Marsden and Puller; Delegates: Abbott, Landes, Morgan, Pollard, Sherwood and Surovell

Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 19.2-5.1 as follows:

§ 19.2-5.1. Servicemembers and Veterans Court Act.

A. This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Servicemembers and Veterans Court Act." For purposes of this section, "servicemember" means a person who is presently serving in the armed forces of the United States, a reserve component thereof, including the National Guard. For purposes of this section, "veteran" means a person who has served in the armed forces, to include the Coast Guard, of the United States, a reserve component thereof, including the National Guard, and has been discharged under other than dishonorable conditions, except that the term "veteran" shall not include those service members who have been discharged with a bad conduct or under other than honorable conditions resulting from offenses involving moral turpitude.

B. The General Assembly recognizes that the establishment of specialty treatment courts for veterans and members of the military who are nonviolent offenders will enable the criminal justice system to address challenges veterans and members of the military face as a result of their honorable service. It is the intent of the General Assembly by this section to (i) provide veterans and members of the military who are nonviolent offenders with an alternative to incarceration; (ii) permit veterans and members of the military to access proper treatment for mental illness, alcohol or drug abuse, post traumatic stress disorder, or traumatic brain injury, any of which appear to be related to military service, including, without limitation, any readjustment to civilian life that is necessary after service in the armed services; and (iii) enhance public safety, by facilitating the creation of servicemembers and veterans courts as means by which to accomplish these purposes.

C. The goals of servicemembers and veterans courts include: (i) reducing drug and alcohol addiction and drug and alcohol dependency among offenders who are veterans or members of the military; (ii) reducing recidivism; (iii) reducing drug-related court workloads; (iv) increasing personal, familial, and societal accountability among offenders who are veterans or members of the military; and (v) promoting effective planning and use of resources among the criminal justice system and community agencies.

D. Servicemembers and veterans courts are specialized court dockets within the existing structure of Virginia's court system offering judicial monitoring of intensive treatment and strict supervision of offenders who appear to suffer from mental illness, alcohol or drug abuse, post traumatic stress disorder, or traumatic brain injury, any of which appear to be related to military service, including, without limitation, any readjustment to civilian life that is necessary after service in the armed services. Localities, or combinations of localities, may establish a servicemembers and veterans courts. Local officials shall complete a recognized planning process before establishing a servicemembers and veterans court program.

E. Administrative oversight for implementation of the Servicemembers and Veterans Court Act shall be conducted by the Supreme Court of Virginia. The Supreme Court of Virginia shall be responsible for (i) providing technical assistance to service members and veterans courts; (ii) providing training for judges who preside over servicemembers and veterans courts; (iii) providing training to the providers of administrative, case management, and treatment services to servicemembers and veterans courts; and (iv) monitoring the completion of evaluations of the effectiveness and efficiency of servicemembers and veterans courts in the Commonwealth.

F. A state servicemembers and veterans court advisory committee shall be established to (i) evaluate and recommend standards for the planning and implementation of servicemembers and veterans courts; (ii) assist in the evaluation of their effectiveness and efficiency; and (iii) encourage and enhance cooperation among agencies that participate in their planning and implementation. The committee shall be chaired by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia or his designee and shall include a member of the Judicial Conference of Virginia; the Executive Secretary or his designee; the directors of the following executive branch agencies: Department of Corrections, Department of Criminal Justice
