

2011 SESSION

ENROLLED

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 450

Celebrating the life of Mukit Hossain.

Agreed to by the Senate, February 17, 2011
Agreed to by the House of Delegates, February 22, 2011

WHEREAS, Mukit Hossain was a telecommunications executive and an admired civic leader during his lifetime and was named the Herndon Times' Citizen of the Year for 2004; and

WHEREAS, a native of Dhaka, Bangladesh, Mukit Hossain came to the United States in the 1970s on a full scholarship to Duke University; after earning a bachelor's degree, he went on to earn a master's degree from North Carolina State University; and

WHEREAS, a respected professional, Mukit Hossain began his exemplary career in telecommunications working for companies across the United States before relocating to the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area in the late 1990s; and

WHEREAS, Mukit Hossain was an innovative and resourceful leader who served as an executive for several telecommunications companies, playing a pivotal role in helping them achieve their missions; and

WHEREAS, Mukit Hossain took an active role in the political and civic life of his community, serving as a trustee of the All Dulles Area Muslim Society Center, as a board member of the Virginia Muslim Political Action Committee, and as a member of the board of directors of the Foundation for Appropriate and Immediate Temporary Help; and

WHEREAS, a tireless advocate for those in need, Mukit Hossain raised thousands of dollars to purchase coats for day laborers; helped found Project Hope and Harmony, which represented a number of faith communities that worked to provide an organized day labor site and social services; and organized the provision of healthy meals to homeless residents; and

WHEREAS, in 2006, Mukit Hossain worked with Muslim and Jewish leaders to lobby the General Assembly to pass a bill making it illegal to label a product halal or kosher if it was not, which was eventually signed by Governor Timothy Kaine; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, Mukit Hossain retired from the corporate world and moved with his family to the Fredericksburg area, where he established a farm where goats could be naturally raised to yield meat that would be halal; and

WHEREAS, a man of great integrity and compassion, Mukit Hossain selflessly reached out to those less fortunate and touched the lives of all who knew him, leaving behind a legacy that others may strive to emulate and that his wife, Sabrina, and children, Maya and Hana, may cherish; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of an admired civic activist, Mukit Hossain; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Mukit Hossain as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

ENROLLED

SJ450ER