AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the Senate Committee on General Laws and Technology on February 27, 2012)

(Patron Prior to Substitute—Delegate Cosgrove)

A BILL to amend and reenact § 55-370 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the advertisement of time-share estate foreclosure sales.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 55-370 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 55-370. Time-share estate owners' association control liens.

A. The board of directors of the association shall have the authority to adopt regular annual assessments and to levy periodic special assessments against each of the time-share estate unit owners and to collect the same from such owners according to law, if the purpose in so doing is determined by the board of directors to be in the best interest of the project and the proceeds are used to pay time-share expenses. In addition, the board of directors of the association shall have the authority to collect, on behalf of the developer or on its own account, the maintenance fee imposed by the developer pursuant to § 55-369. The authority hereby granted and conferred upon the association shall exist notwithstanding any covenants and restrictions of record applicable to the project stated to the contrary and any such covenants and restrictions are hereby declared void.

B. The developer may provide that it not be obligated to pay all or a portion of any assessment, dues, or other charges of the association, however denominated, passed, or adopted, pursuant to subsection A, if such developer so provides, in bold type, in the time-share instrument for the time-share estate project. If no such provision exists, the developer shall be responsible to pay the same assessment, dues, or other charges that a time-share estate owner is obligated to pay for each of its unsold time-shares existing at the end of the fiscal year of the association and no more if the board of directors of the association so determines. In no event shall either a time-share expense or the dues, assessment, or charges of the association discriminate against the developer.

C. The association shall have a lien on every time-share estate within its project for unpaid and past due regular or special assessments levied against that estate in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and for all unpaid and past due maintenance fees. The exemption created by § 34-4 shall not be claimed against the debt or lien of the association created by this section.

The association, in order to perfect the lien given by this subsection, shall file, before the expiration of four years from the time such special or regular assessment or maintenance fee became due and payable, in the clerk's office of the county or city in which the project is situated, a memorandum verified by the oath of any officer of the association or its managing agent and containing the following information:

1. The name and location of the project;

2. The name and address of each owner of the time-share on which the lien exists and a description of the unit in which the time-share is situate;

3. The amount of unpaid and past due special or regular assessments or unpaid and past due maintenance fees applicable to the time-share, together with the date when each became due;

4. The amount of any other charges owing occasioned by the failure of the owner to pay the assessments or maintenance fees, including late charges, interest, postage and handling, attorneys' fees, recording costs and release fees;

5. The name, address and telephone number of the association's trustee, if known at the time, who will be called upon by the association to foreclose on the lien upon the owner's failure to pay as provided in this subsection; and

6. The date of issuance of the memorandum.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, or any other provision of law requiring documents to be recorded in the deed books of the clerk's office of any court, from July 1, 1981, all memoranda of liens arising under this subsection shall be recorded in the deed books in such clerk's office. Any such memorandum shall be indexed in the general index to deeds, and such general index shall identify the lien as a lien for time-share estate regular or special assessments or maintenance fees.

It shall be the duty of the clerk in whose office such memorandum shall be filed as provided herein to record and index the same as provided in this subsection, in the names of the persons identified therein as well as in the name of the time-share estates owners' association. The cost of recording such memorandum shall be taxed against the owner of the time-share on which the lien is placed. The filing with the clerk of one memorandum on which is listed two or more delinquent time-share estate unit owners is permitted in order to perfect the lien hereby allowed and the cost of filing in this event shall 60 be the clerk's fee as prescribed in subdivision A- 2- of § 17.1-275.

61 D. At any time after perfecting the lien pursuant to this section, the association may sell the 62 time-share estate at public sale, subject to prior liens. For purposes of this section, the association shall
63 have the power both to sell and convey the time-share estate, and shall be deemed the time-share estate
64 owner's statutory agent for the purpose of transferring title to the time-share estate. A nonjudicial
65 foreclosure sale shall be conducted by a trustee and in accordance with the following:

66 1. The association shall give notice to the time-share estate owner, prior to advertisement, as required
67 by subdivision 4. The notice shall specify (i) the debt secured by the perfected lien; (ii) the action
68 required to satisfy the debt secured by the perfected lien; (iii) the date, not less than 60 days from the 69 date the notice is given to the time-share estate owner, by which the debt secured by the lien must be
70 satisfied; and (iv) that failure to satisfy the debt secured by the lien on or before the date specified in 71 the notice may result in the sale of the time-share estate. The notice shall further inform the time-share
72 estate owner of the right to bring a court action in the circuit court of the county or city where the
73 time-share project is located to assert the nonexistence of a debt or any other defenses of the time-share
74 estate owner to the sale.

75 2. After expiration of the 60-day notice period provided in subdivision 1, the association may appoint
76 a trustee to conduct the sale. The appointment of the trustee shall be filed in the clerk's office of the 77 circuit court in the county or city in which the time-share project is located. It shall be the duty of the 78 clerk in whose office such appointment is filed to record and index the same, as provided in this 79 subsection, in the names of the persons identified therein as well as in the name of the association. The 80 association, at its option, may from time to time remove the trustee and appoint a successor trustee.

81 3. If the time-share estate owner meets the conditions specified in this subdivision prior to the date
82 of the foreclosure sale, the time-share estate owner shall have the right to have enforcement of the 83 perfected lien discontinued prior to the sale of the time-share estate. Such conditions are that the
84 time-share estate owner: (i) satisfy the debt secured by lien that is the subject of the nonjudicial
85 foreclosure sale and (ii) pay all expenses and costs incurred in perfecting and enforcing the lien,
86 including but not limited to advertising costs and reasonable attorney fees.

88 of the time, date, and place of any proposed sale in execution of the lien, including the name, address,
89 and telephone number of the trustee, by personal delivery or by mail to (i) the present owner of the 90 time-share estate to be sold at his last known address as such owner and address appear in the records
91 of the association, (ii) any lienholder who holds a note against the time-share estate secured by a deed
92 of trust recorded at least 30 days prior to the proposed sale and whose address is recorded with the deed
93 of trust, and (iii) any assignee of such a note secured by a deed of trust provided the assignment and 94 address of the assignee are likewise recorded at least 30 days prior to the proposed sale. Mailing a copy
95 of the advertisement or the notice containing the same information to the owner by certified or 96 registered mail no less than 14 days prior to such sale and to the lienholders and their assigns, at the
97 addresses noted in the memorandum of lien, by ordinary mail no less than 14 days prior to such sale
98 shall be a sufficient compliance with the requirement of notice.

107 following the last advertisement.

108 b. Such advertisement shall be placed in that section of the newspaper where legal notices appear or

110 in addition to such other matters as the association finds appropriate, shall set forth (i) a description of

6. In the event of postponement of the sale, which postponement shall be at the discretion of the association, advertisement of the postponed sale shall be in the same manner as the original advertisement of sale.

7. Failure to comply with the requirements for advertisement contained in this section shall, upon petition, render a sale of the property voidable by the court. Such petition shall be filed within 60 days of the sale or the right to do so shall lapse.

8. In the event of a sale, the association shall have the following powers and duties:

a. The association may sell two or more time-share estates at the sale. Written one-price bids may be made and shall be received by the trustee from the association or any person for entry by announcement at the sale. Any person other than the trustee may bid at the foreclosure sale, including a person who has submitted a written one-price bid. Upon request to the trustee, any other bidder in attendance at a foreclosure sale shall be permitted to inspect written bids. Unless otherwise provided in the time-share instrument, the association may bid to purchase the time-share estate at a foreclosure sale. The association may own, lease, encumber, exchange, sell, or convey the time-share estate. Whenever the written bid of the association is the highest bid submitted at the sale, such written bid shall be filed by the trustee with his account of sale required under subdivision D 10 of this section and § 26-15. The written bid submitted pursuant to this subsection may be prepared by the association, its agent or attorney.

b. The association may require of any bidder at any sale a cash deposit of as much as 33.33% percent of the sale price before his bid is received, which shall be refunded to him if the time-share estate is not sold to him through action of the trustee. The deposit of the successful bidder shall be applied to his credit at settlement, or if such bidder fails to complete his purchase promptly, the deposit shall be applied to pay the costs and expenses of the sale, and the balance, if any, shall be retained by the association in connection with that sale.

9. The trustee shall deliver to the purchaser a trustee's deed conveying the time-share estate with special warranty of title. The trustee shall not be required to take possession of the time-share estate prior to the sale thereof or to deliver possession of the time-share estate to the purchaser at the sale.

When payment or satisfaction is made of a debt secured by the lien perfected by this subsection, such lien shall be released in accordance with the provisions of § 55-66.3. For the purposes of § 55-66.3, any officer of the time-share estate owners' association or its managing agent shall be deemed the duly authorized agent of the lien creditor.

184 regular or special assessments or maintenance fees currently levied against that time-share. Such request
185 shall be in writing, directed to the president of the time-share estate owners' association, and delivered to 186 the principal office of the association. Failure of the association to furnish or make available such

188 created by subsection C as to the time-share involved. Payment of a fee reflecting the reasonable cost of 189 materials and labor, not to exceed the actual cost thereof, may be required as a prerequisite to the 190 issuance of such a statement.
