Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 17.1-258.3:1, 17.1-276, 17.1-293, 17.1-294, and 17.1-502 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 17.1-258.3:1. Electronic filing of land records.

A clerk of a circuit court may provide a network or system for electronic filing of land records in accordance with the Uniform Real Property Electronic Recording Act (§ 55-142.10 et seq.) and the provisions of Article 2.1 (§ 55-66.8 et seq.) of Chapter 4 of Title 55 regarding the satisfaction of mortgages. The clerk may charge a fee to be assessed for each instrument recorded electronically in an amount not to exceed $5 per document. The fee shall be paid to the clerk's office and deposited by the clerk into the clerk's nonreverting local fund to be used to cover operational expenses. Operational expenses shall include, but not be limited to, (i) computer support, maintenance, enhancements, upgrades, and replacements and office automation and information technology equipment including software and conversion services; (ii) preserving, maintaining, and enhancing court records, including, but not limited to, the costs of repairs, maintenance, consulting services, service contracts, redaction of social security numbers from land or other records, and system replacements or upgrades; and (iii) improving public access to records maintained by the clerk, including locating technology in an offsite facility for such purposes or for the implementation of a disaster recovery plan. The clerk shall enter into an electronic filing agreement with each filer in accordance with Virginia Real Property Electronic Recording Standards established by the Virginia Information Technologies Agency. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the clerk from entering into agreements with designated application service providers to provide all or part of the network or system for electronic filing of land records as provided herein.

§ 17.1-276. Fee allowed for providing secure remote access to land records.

A. A clerk of the circuit court who provides secure remote access to land records pursuant to § 17.1-294 may charge a fee as provided in this section established by the clerk to cover the operational expenses. Operational expenses shall include, but not be limited to, (i) computer support, maintenance, enhancements, upgrades, and replacements and office automation and information technology equipment including software and conversion services; (ii) preserving, maintaining, and enhancing court records, including, but not limited to, the costs of repairs, maintenance, consulting services, service contracts, redaction of social security numbers from land or other records, and system replacements or upgrades; and (iii) improving public access to records maintained by the clerk, including locating technology in an offsite facility for such purposes or for the implementation of a disaster recovery plan. A flat fee may be assessed for each subscriber, as defined in § 17.1-295, in an amount not to exceed $50 per month. The fee shall be paid to the clerk's office and deposited by the clerk into the clerk's nonreverting local fund to be used to cover operational expenses. The circuit court clerk shall enter into an agreement with each person whom the clerk authorizes to have remote access, in accordance with the security standards established by the Virginia Information Technologies Agency.

The Office of the Attorney General, Division of Debt Collection, the Department of Transportation, and the Department of Rail and Public Transportation shall be exempt from paying any fee for remote access to land records. If any clerk contracts with an outside vendor to provide remote access to land records to subscribers, such contract shall contain a provision exempting the Office of the Attorney General, Division of Debt Collection, the Department of Transportation, and the Department of Rail and Public Transportation from paying any access or subscription fee.

B. (Expires September 30, 2012) The clerk of the Circuit Court of Prince William County may establish a pilot program under which the clerk assesses a daily fee for remote access to land records and a separate fee per image downloaded in an amount not to exceed the fee provided in subdivision A 8 of § 17.1-275. The clerk shall make a report on any such pilot program to the House Committee for Courts of Justice and the Senate Committee for Courts of Justice on or before September 30, 2012. The report shall provide a summary of the pilot program and include the level of participation, the costs of 60 § 17.1-293. Posting and availability of certain information on the Internet; prohibitions.

61 A. Notwithstanding Chapter 37 (§ 2.2-3700 et seq.) of Title 2.2 or subsection B of this section, it 62 shall be unlawful for any court clerk to disclose the social security number or other identification 63 numbers appearing on driver's licenses or information on credit cards, debit cards, bank accounts, or 64 other electronic billing and payment systems that was supplied to a court clerk for the purpose of paying 65 fees, fines, taxes, or other charges collected by such court clerk. The prohibition shall not apply where 66 disclosure of such information is required (i) to conduct or complete the transaction for which such 67 information was submitted or (ii) by other law or court order.

68 B. Beginning January 1, 2004, no court clerk shall post on the Internet any document that contains 69 the following information: (i) an actual signature, (ii) a social security number, (iii) a date of birth 70 identified with a particular person, (iv) the maiden name of a person's parent so as to be identified with 71 a particular person, (v) any financial account number or numbers, or (vi) the name and age of any minor 72 child.

73 C. Each such clerk shall post notice that includes a list of the documents routinely posted on its 74 website. However, the clerk shall not post information on his website that includes private activity for 75 private financial gain.

76 D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit access to any original document as provided 77 by law.

78 E. This section shall not apply to the following:

79 1. Providing access to any document among the land records via secure remote access pursuant to 80 § 17.1-294;

81 2. Postings related to legitimate law-enforcement purposes;

82 3. Postings of historical, genealogical, interpretive, or educational documents and information about 83 historic persons and events;

84 4. Postings of instruments and records filed or recorded prior to 1907;

85 5. Providing secure remote access to any person, his counsel, or staff which counsel directly 86 supervises to documents filed in matters to which such person is a party;

87 6. Providing official certificates and certified records in digital form of any document maintained by 88 the clerk pursuant to § 17.1-258.3:2; and

89 7. Providing secure remote access, subject to any fees charged by the clerk, to members in good 90 standing with the Virginia State Bar and their authorized agents, pro hac vice attorneys authorized by 91 the court for purposes of the practice of law, and such governmental agencies as authorized by the clerk.
92 However, nothing herein shall be construed to permit any data accessed by secure remote access to be 93 sold or posted on any other Internet website or in any way redistributed to any third party, and the clerk
94 reserves the discretion to deny secure remote access to ensure compliance with these provisions.

95 F. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Supreme Court or any other court from providing online 96 access to a case management system that may include abstracts of case filings and proceedings in the 97 courts of the Commonwealth.

98 G. The court clerk shall be immune from suit arising from any acts or omissions relating to 99 providing remote access on the Internet pursuant to this section unless the clerk was grossly negligent or 100 engaged in willful misconduct.

101 This subsection shall not be construed to limit, withdraw, or overturn any defense or immunity 102 already existing in statutory or common law, or to affect any cause of action accruing prior to July 1, 103 2005.

104 H. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit any data accessed by secure remote access to 105 be sold or posted on any other website or in any way redistributed to any third party, and the clerk, in 106 his discretion, may deny secure remote access to ensure compliance with these provisions.

107 § 17.1-294. Secure remote access to land records.

108 A. No circuit court clerk shall provide secure remote access to any land record that does not comply
109 with the provisions of this section and the secure remote access standards developed by the Virginia
110 Information Technologies Agency in consultation with the circuit court clerks, the Executive Secretary
111 of the Supreme Court, the Compensation Board, and users of land and other court records.

112 B. 1. Beginning July 1, 2012, any land record made available to subscribers via secure remote access 113 may contain only the last four digits of the social security number of any party. Nothing in this 114 subsection shall be construed to require the clerk to reinsert the last four digits of a social security
115 number on any land record where the redaction of the entire social security number has been completed
116 prior to July 1, 2012.

117 2. However, the original land record maintained by the clerk may contain a social security number if 118 otherwise provided by law, but that original record shall not be made available via secure remote access 119 unless it complies with this section.

120 3. Except in cases where the original record is required by law to contain a social security number,

121 the attorney or party who prepares or submits the land record for recordation has the responsibility for 122 ensuring that the social security number has been removed from the writing prior to the instrument's 123 being submitted for recordation.

124 C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit access to any original document as provided 125 by law.

126 D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit any data accessed by secure remote access to 127 be sold or posted on any other website or in any way redistributed to any third party, and the clerk, in
128 his discretion, may deny secure remote access to ensure compliance with these provisions.

129 E. The clerk of the circuit court of any jurisdiction shall be immune from suit arising from any acts 130 or omissions relating to providing secure remote access to land records pursuant to this section unless 131 the clerk was grossly negligent or engaged in willful misconduct.

132 § 17.1-502. Administrator of circuit court system.

133 The Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court shall be the administrator of the circuit court system, 134 which shall include responsibility for the operation and maintenance of a case management system and 135 financial management system, and related technology improvements, that the Executive Secretary shall 136 deem necessary for the administration of the circuit court system. The Executive Secretary shall permit 137 an interface with the case management system, financial management system, and related technology 138 improvements for the purpose of providing electronic information to state agencies, upon request of any 139 circuit court that uses automation or technology improvements provided by a private vendor or the 140 locality. The circuit court clerk and the clerk's designated application service provider shall comply with 141 the security and data standards established by the Executive Secretary for any such interface between a 142 case management or financial management system operated by a circuit court clerk and the systems of 143 the Executive Secretary. The Executive Secretary shall establish security and data standards for any 144 such interface on or before June 30, 2013. The costs of designing, implementing, and maintaining any 145 such interface with the systems of the Executive Secretary shall be the responsibility of the circuit court 146 clerk. Any reasonable expenses incurred within the office of the Executive Secretary, ~~not to exceed~~ 147 ~~$104,280~~, related to the operation and maintenance of such interfaces with the case management system
148 and financial management system shall be reimbursed through the Technology Trust Fund established 149 pursuant to subsection A of § 17.1-279. Prior to incurring any costs, the Office of the Executive 150 Secretary shall provide the circuit court clerk a written explanation and amount of the expenses for 151 reimbursement from the Compensation Board, notify the circuit court clerk of the amount being 152 requested for reimbursement and an explanation of the expenses incurred, and enter into a written 153 contract with the clerk to provide such services. The Executive Secretary shall assist the chief judges in 154 the performance of their administrative duties. He may employ such staff and other assistants, from state 155 funds appropriated to him for the purpose, as may be necessary to carry out his duties, and may secure 156 such office space as may be requisite, to be located in an appropriate place to be selected by the 157 Executive Secretary.
