

2012 SESSION

ENROLLED

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 248

Celebrating the life of Charles Richard Foxx, Jr.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, January 27, 2012
Agreed to by the Senate, February 2, 2012

WHEREAS, Charles Richard Foxx, Jr., a devoted family man and hardworking member of the business community, passed away on June 9, 2011; and

WHEREAS, a native of Tuskegee, Alabama, Charles Foxx graduated from Booker T. Washington High School, received a degree from Norfolk State University, and earned a degree in clinical psychology from Kansas State College; and

WHEREAS, Charles Foxx, who worked in real estate and was a property management specialist in Norfolk, focused on providing quality customer service and helping people find the perfect home; he retired from the Foxx Real Estate firm in 2008; and

WHEREAS, as a member of First Baptist Church, Charles Foxx enjoyed the worship and fellowship found there, receiving comfort and spiritual direction alongside fellow members of the congregation; and

WHEREAS, a man of many interests, Charles Foxx enjoyed photography and sports; it is no surprise that his favorite collegiate sports team was the Norfolk State Spartans; he also was a fan of the Miami Dolphins of the NFL and baseball's New York Mets; and

WHEREAS, Charles Foxx leaves behind many beloved family members and numerous friends to cherish his memory; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the General Assembly hereby note with great sadness the loss of a respected citizen and loving husband, Charles Richard Foxx, Jr.; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Charles Richard Foxx, Jr., as an expression of the General Assembly's respect for his memory.

ENROLLED

HJ248ER