Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 18.2-178.1 and by adding in Chapter 22.2 of Title 19.2 a section numbered 19.2-386.33 as follows:

§ 18.2-178.1. Financial exploitation of elderly persons or vulnerable adults; penalties.

A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Caregiver" means an adult who has been entrusted with or has assumed responsibility for the care or property of an elderly person or vulnerable adult.

"Elderly person" means any person 60 years of age or older.

"Financial resources" includes but is not limited to notes, bills, drafts, checks, credit cards, bank cards, debit cards, gift cards, stocks, bonds, retirement accounts, and certificates of deposit.

"Position of trust" means any person who has a fiduciary relationship with the elderly person or vulnerable adult, including but not limited to a court-appointed or voluntary guardian, trustee, attorney, conservator, executor, or person with a power of attorney.

"Property" means anything of value, including but not limited to real property, including things growing on, affixed to, and found in land; and tangible or intangible personal property, including rights, privileges, interests, and claims.

"Undue influence" means domination, intimidation, force, coercion, or manipulation exercised by another person to the extent that an elderly person or vulnerable adult was prevented from exercising free judgment and choice.

"Vulnerable adult" means any person 18 years of age or older who suffers from a mental illness, mental retardation, dementia, organic brain dysfunction, developmental disability, physical illness or disability, or other causes that would impair the person's mental or physical ability to manage his money, assets, property, or financial resources or to the extent that the adult lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to make, communicate, or carry out reasonable decisions regarding his money, assets, property, or financial resources.

B. It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly, by deception, intimidation, undue influence, coercion, harassment, duress, or misrepresentation, use, obtain, convert, or take control of or endeavor to use, obtain, convert, or take control of an elderly person's or vulnerable adult's money, assets, property, or financial resources with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the elderly person or vulnerable adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the money, assets, property, or financial resources.

C. A violation of this section shall be deemed larceny. However, any violation of this section by a caregiver or a person in a position of trust is a Class 3 felony.

D. Venue for the trial of any person charged with a violation of this section shall be in any county or city in which (i) any act was performed in furtherance of the offense or (ii) the person charged with the offense resided at the time of the offense.

E. It shall not constitute a defense to prosecution under this section that the accused did not know the age of the victim.

§ 19.2-386.33. Seizure and forfeiture of property used in connection with the financial exploitation of elderly persons or vulnerable adults.

All vehicles, tools, machinery, equipment, and other personal property used in connection with the financial exploitation of elderly persons or vulnerable adults that constitutes a violation of § 18.2-178.1 shall be subject to lawful seizure by a law-enforcement officer and shall be subject to forfeiture to the Commonwealth pursuant to Chapter 22 (§ 19.2-369 et seq.) by order of the court in which a conviction under § 18.2-178.1 is obtained. A forfeiture under this section shall not extinguish the rights of any person without knowledge of the illegal use of the property who (i) is the lawful owner or (ii) has a valid and perfected lien on the property.

2. That the provisions of this act may result in a net increase in periods of imprisonment or
