60 the public.

61 9. Wildlife rehabilitators who possess a permit from the Department to care for sick, injured, 62 orphaned, or displaced wild animals. 63

§ 29.1-580. Conditions for allowable continued possession.

64 The provisions of § 29.1-578 shall not apply to persons who possessed such an animal prior to July 65 1, 2012, provided that such person:

66 1. Shall maintain veterinary records, acquisition papers, or other documents or records that establish 67 that the person possessed the animal prior to July 1, 2012;

68 2. Shall not acquire additional such animals after July 1, 2012, whether by purchase, transfer, 69 donation, or reproduction;

70 3. Shall not have been convicted of an offense involving the abuse or neglect of any animal pursuant 71 to any federal, state, or local law;

72 4. Shall not have had a license or permit regarding the care, possession, exhibition, breeding, or 73 sale of animals revoked or suspended by any federal, state, or local agency; 74

5. Shall not fail to keep the animal properly confined;

75 6. Shall not allow members of the public any opportunity to come into physical contact with the 76 animal;

77 7. Shall register with, and pay a registration fee to, the Department by July 1, 2013, and annually 78 thereafter, indicating the number and species of such animals in his possession and showing proof of a 79 surety bond of not less than $10,000 for payment of all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by 80 the temporary holding facility in caring and providing for the dangerous wild animal should the animal 81 escape from the property of the owner; and

8. At least 72 hours prior to the sale or transfer of an existing dangerous wild animal, shall notify the Department, identifying the recipient of the animal. The possession, sale, transfer, and transport of 82 83 84 the dangerous wild animal shall conform to all applicable state, local, and federal laws. 85

§ 29.1-581. Certain animals not properly confined.

Any animal described in § 29.1-578, excluding noncaptive native populations of wildlife, found to be 86 87 not properly confined, whether on the property of the owner or running at large, may be humanely 88 destroyed by law-enforcement or animal control officers, or other federal, state, or local agents, in 89 order to protect public safety. The owner or custodian of such an animal will be liable for costs 90 accrued to law-enforcement or animal control agencies in humanely destroying or otherwise securing 91 any such animal. 92

§ 29.1-582. Forfeiture and disposition of animals possessed in violation of this article.

93 A. Law-enforcement and animal control officers shall, upon probable cause, impound any or all 94 animals possessed in violation of this article. If such animal does not pose an immediate threat to public 95 safety and is not suffering from apparent animal neglect or cruelty, the animal shall be considered impounded in its enclosure and shall be properly maintained and provided adequate care by the owner 96 97 until judicial determination of forfeiture. If such animal poses an immediate threat to public safety or is 98 suffering from apparent animal neglect or cruelty, the animal shall be seized by law-enforcement or 99 animal control officers and held in a suitable federal, state, or local facility or other facility exempted from this article in § 29.1-579 until judicial determination of forfeiture. 100

101 B. Upon seizing or impounding an animal, the law-enforcement or animal control officer shall 102 petition the general district court in the city or county where the animal is seized or impounded for a 103 hearing to determine whether the animal is possessed in violation of this article. The hearing shall be 104 not more than 10 business days from the date of the seizure or impoundment of the animal.

105 C. Upon judicial determination that (i) the seized or impounded animal is listed in § 29.1-578 and (ii) the owner of the seized or impounded animal is violating any provision of this article with regard to 106 107 such animal, the animal shall be deemed forfeited.

108 D. Any animal judicially deemed forfeited pursuant to this article shall as soon as practicable be 109 euthanized by a licensed veterinarian or humanely destroyed as recommended by a licensed veterinarian 110 unless (i) a person legally able to possess the animal and willing and able to take immediate possession 111 of the animal is identified prior to or at the forfeiture hearing, in which case the court may award such 112 person ownership of the animal, or (ii) the court determines that the animal is listed in 50 C.F.R. 17.11 as protected under the Endangered Species Act (16 U.S.C. § 1531 et seq.), in which case such animal 113 114 shall be ceded to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

115 E. A court may order the owner of an animal seized pursuant to this article to post a bond in surety 116 with the locality for the cost of caring for such animal for a period of time not to exceed nine months. 117 If the court orders the posting of a bond in surety, the bond shall be posted with the clerk of the court within five business days after the hearing. If the person ordered to post the bond does not do so, the 118 119 animal is deemed forfeited.

120 § 29.1-583. Voluntary relinguishment.

121 Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the voluntary, permanent relinquishment of any 3 of 3 animal by its owner to a person legally able to possess the animal and willing and able to take possession or have such animal euthanized by a licensed veterinarian in lieu of seizure or impoundment.

Voluntary relinquishment shall have no effect on any criminal charges that may be pursued by the appropriate authorities concerning possession or treatment of the animal.

126 § 29.1-584. Adoption of regulations.

127 The Board shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this article. The regulations shall 128 include (i) the adoption of registration fees on a sliding scale depending on the number of dangerous
129 wild animals a person possessed prior to July 1, 2012, and (ii) any additional exemptions to this article
130 the Department deems necessary to facilitate management of native or naturalized wildlife.

131 § 29.1-585. Department to notify local officials.

132 The Department shall notify law-enforcement officials and animal control officers of the presence in 133 their locality of any lawfully possessed animal that is registered pursuant to subdivision 7 of § 29.1-580.

134 The notice shall include the name of the owner of the animal, his address, and the species of the animal 135 that is registered.

136 § 29.1-586. Penalties.

137 Any person who violates any provision of this article is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.
