90 has been set pursuant to clause (iii) or clause (iv) of § 53.1-232.1 or to delay or stay any other 91 post-conviction appeals or petitions to any court. Human biological evidence may not be used as the 92 sole basis for seeking relief under this writ but may be used in conjunction with other evidence.

93 B. Such petition shall contain all relevant allegations of facts that are known to the petitioner at the 94 time of filing, shall be accompanied by all relevant documents, affidavits and test results, and shall 95 enumerate and include all relevant previous records, applications, petitions, appeals and their

101 unless it is accompanied by a duly executed return of service in the form of a verification that a copy of 102 the petition and all attachments have been served on the attorney for the Commonwealth of the 103 jurisdiction where the conviction occurred and the Attorney General, or an acceptance of service signed 104 by these officials, or any combination thereof. In cases brought by petitioners pro se, the Court of 105 Appeals shall not accept the petition unless it is accompanied by a certificate that a copy of the petition 106 and all attachments have been sent, by certified mail, to the attorney for the Commonwealth of the 107 jurisdiction where the conviction occurred and the Attorney General. If the Court of Appeals does not 108 summarily dismiss the petition, it shall so notify in writing the Attorney General, the attorney for the 109 Commonwealth, and the petitioner. The Attorney General shall have 60 days after receipt of such notice
110 in which to file a response to the petition that may be extended for good cause shown; however, nothing
111 shall prevent the Attorney General from filing an earlier response. The response may contain a proffer

117 petition fails to state a claim, or if the assertions of previously unknown or unavailable evidence, even if 118 true, would fail to qualify for the granting of relief under this chapter, the Court may dismiss the 119 petition summarily, without any hearing or a response from the Attorney General.

120 E. In any petition filed pursuant to this chapter that is not summarily dismissed, the defendant is

121 entitled to representation by counsel subject to the provisions of Article 3 (§ 19.2-157 et seq.) and 122 Article 4 (§ 19.2-163.1 et seq.) of Chapter 10 of this title. The Court of Appeals may, in its discretion, 123 appoint counsel prior to deciding whether a petition should be summarily dismissed.
