58 powers of the town and shall hold office during the pleasure of the council. He shall receive such 59 compensation as shall be fixed by the council. The town manager shall see that within the town the 60 laws, ordinances, resolutions and bylaws of the council are faithfully executed. He shall attend all 61 meetings of the council and recommend for adoption such measures as he shall deem expedient. He 62 shall make reports to the council from time to time upon the affairs of the town, keep the council fully 63 advised of the town's financial condition and its future financial needs. He shall prepare and submit to 64 the council a tentative budget for each fiscal year. He shall perform such other duties as may be 65 prescribed by the council and shall be bonded in such amount as the council may deem necessary.

66 § 7. All officers and employees [appointed] [~~under contract by the town council~~] may be 67 removed by the town council at its pleasure. All other employees are under the authority of the town
68 manager.

69 § 16. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the town and it shall be his duty to see that 70 the bylaws and ordinances thereof are fully executed, and he shall preside over the meetings of the town 71 council, voting only in case of a tie.

72 The mayor shall see that the duties of the various city officers, members of the police and fire
73 departments, whether elected or appointed, are faithfully performed. He shall have power to investigate 74 their acts, have access to all books and documents in their office, and may examine them or their 75 subordinates on oath, but the evidence given by persons so examined shall not be used against them in 76 any criminal proceedings.

77 § 17. The mayor shall communicate to the town council annually at the beginning of each fiscal 78 year, or ~~on the~~ January town council meeting, if he be required by the council, a general statement of 79 the condition of the town in relation to its government, finances and improvements, with such 80 recommendations as he may deem proper; and may from time to time communicate to the council such 81 suggestions and recommendations as he shall deem proper.

82 § 17-a. The council shall elect, from among its members, a ~~president pro tempore~~ vice mayor of the 83 council at its first meeting following any regular municipal election who shall preside in the absence of 84 the mayor and who shall assume the duties of the mayor in case of his absence or inability to act.

85 § 18. In case of the absence or inability of the mayor and the ~~president pro tempore~~ vice mayor of 86 the council, some other member of the council selected by majority vote of the council shall possess the 87 same power and discharge the municipal duties of the mayor during such absence or inability.

88 § 19. In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of the mayor, the vacancy shall be filled by the 89 ~~president pro tempore~~ vice mayor of the council; and in case of a vacancy in both such offices, the 90 council shall elect one of its remaining members to serve the unexpired portion of the former mayor's 91 term until such election is required by State law.

92 § 21. The town council is hereby authorized and empowered, by ordinance or resolution, passed by 93 the affirmative recorded vote of ~~two-thirds of the full membership thereof~~ the majority of those in 94 attendance, to be determined by yeas and nays, to provide and fix salaries for its members, at such sums
95 or in such amounts as it may determine, to be payable in such amounts and at such time or times as it 96 may direct.

97 The council may provide and fix the salaries for its members, on the basis of stated amounts or sums 98 for each regular meeting of council attended by members, and may prescribe that no member shall 99 receive any compensation for any meeting of said council not attended by such member.

100 Said salaries, when provided and fixed, shall be payable out of the general funds of said town when 101 approved for payment by said council.

102 § 22. The council shall by ordinance adopt such rules as it may deem proper for the regulation of its 103 proceedings and shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance, provided, however, that it
104 shall hold at least one regular meeting each month. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum 105 for the transaction of business.

106 The mayor, or any two members of the council, may call a special meeting of the council upon at 107 least twelve hours written notice of the time, place and purpose to each member served personally or 108 left at his usual place of business or residence by a town officer, and no business shall be transacted by 109 the council in such special meeting which has not been stated in the notice, provided, however, that 110 these regulations shall not apply when all members of the council attend such meeting or waive notice
111 thereof, nor shall it apply to an adjourned session from a regular meeting. No ordinance or resolution 112 appropriating money exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars shall be passed except by the recorded 113 affirmative vote of a majority of all members elected to the council.

114 No tax shall be levied or corporate debt contracted, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members 115 ~~elected to~~ of council, which vote shall be by yeas and nays and recorded in the ~~journal~~ minutes.

116 Meetings of the council shall be public unless held in executive session as provided by law. Citizens 117 may have access to the minutes and records of the council at any reasonable time.

118 § 23. Four councilmen, in addition to or in the absence of the mayor, shall constitute a quorum for 119 the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided herein or by the general statutes of this State.

But no vote shall be reconsidered or rescinded at any special meeting, unless at such special meeting there be present as large a number of members of the council as were present when such a vote was taken.

§ 24. A ~~journal~~ Minutes shall be kept of the proceedings of the town council, typed in the form of a journal or in electronic form, posted on the town's website, and kept in perpetuity, and at the request of any member present the yeas and nays shall be recorded on any question. At the next meeting the proceedings shall be ~~read submitted~~ and signed by the person who was presiding when the previous meeting adjourned, or if he be not then present, by the person presiding when they were read.

§ 25. The clerk of the council shall keep said ~~journal~~ minutes and shall record the proceedings of the council at large thereon, and keep the same properly indexed.

§ 26. ~~The town council shall be judge of the election, qualifications and returns of its members; For the convenient transaction of business, the council may compel the attendance of absent members, and fine them punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence by a vote of two-thirds of its members, expel a member for malfeasance or misfeasance while in office.~~

§ 29. If any member of said council ~~be voluntarily~~ is absent from its meetings consecutively for three months, his seat may be declared vacant by the council, and the unexpired term filled by appointment as provided in paragraph (b) of § 3.

§ 42. The town council shall have the power and authority to lay off public grounds and provide, erect and keep in order all buildings proper for the use of the town; ~~to provide a prison house and workhouse, and employ managers, physicians, nurses and servants for the same, and prescribe regulations for their government and discipline, and persons therein.~~

§ 44. The town council shall have the power and authority to appoint a chief of police and such additional police officers and privates as it may deem necessary or proper and to prescribe their rate of pay; and in addition thereto the mayor, or in his absence, the president pro tempore of the council, or in the absence of both, the councilman, elected by council to perform the duties of the mayor shall have the power and authority whenever the regular police force of the town is inadequate to meet the needs of the occasion, to appoint and swear in such additional or special policemen as he may deem requisite for a term of service not to exceed ten days, and at such compensation as the council may fix for special policemen. The duties and powers of such special policemen shall be the same as that of private of the regular police force.

§ 45. The police force shall be under the control of the ~~mayor~~ town manager for the purpose of enforcing peace and order and executing the laws of the Commonwealth and ordinances of the town. For the purpose of enabling them to execute their duties, each policeman is hereby invested with all the power and authority which belonged to the office of constable at common law in criminal cases. The uniforms and badges of office of such police and the rules and regulations governing such police force shall be prescribed by the ~~mayor~~ town manager.

§ 48. The town council shall have the power and authority to regulate the keeping or ~~storage sale of~~ gunpowder or other combustibles within the town; ~~and to provide magazines for the same, and direct the location of all buildings for the storage thereof;~~ to regulate the sale and use of gunpowder and other combustibles, and firecrackers or fireworks manufactured therefrom; kerosene oil, nitroglycerine, camphene, burning fluid, or other combustible material; to regulate the exhibition of fireworks and the discharge of firearms; and to restrict the making of bonfires in streets, alleys, and yards.

§ 58. A town clerk may be appointed by the council, but in no case shall the mayor, ~~president pro tempore~~ vice mayor, or any councilman acting as mayor be so appointed, and shall attend the meetings of the council and shall keep permanent records of its proceedings; he shall be custodian of the town seal and shall affix it to all documents and instruments requiring the seal, and shall attest the same; he shall keep all papers, documents, and records pertaining to the town, the custody of which is not otherwise provided for in this charter; he shall give notice to all parties, presenting petitions or communications; he shall give to the proper department or officials ample notice of the expiration or termination of any franchise, contract or agreements; he shall publish such records and ordinances as the council is required to publish, and such other records and ordinances as it may direct he shall upon final passage transmit to the proper departments or officials copies of all ordinances or resolutions of the council relating in any way to such departments or to the duties of such officials, and he shall perform such other acts and duties as the council may, from time to time, allow or require. He shall continue to discharge the duties of the office until he is removed by the town council or until his successor shall have qualified. Any vacancy in this office shall be promptly filled by the town council. The town clerk shall be subject to the supervision of the town manager, shall perform such other duties not inconsistent with his office as may be required of him by the town manager, and shall make such reports as may be required of him by the town council.

§ 59. There shall be appointed by the council a town treasurer, who ~~shall hold office during the pleasure of the council; but the present treasurer of the town~~ shall continue to discharge the duties of the 181 office until removed by the council or until his successor shall have qualified. Any vacancy in this 182 office shall be promptly filled by the council. The said treasurer shall be the disbursing agent of the 183 town and have the custody of all money and all evidences of value belonging to the town or held in 184 trust by the town. He shall receive all money belonging to and received by the town and keep correct

185 accounts of all receipts from all sources and of all expenditures of all departments. He shall collect all 186 taxes and assessments, water rents, and other charges belonging to and payable to the town, and for that 187 purpose he is hereby vested with powers similar to those which are now or may hereafter be vested in 188 county and town treasurers for the collection of county, town, and State taxes under the general law; he 189 shall keep, disburse and deposit all money or funds in such manner and in such places as may be 190 determined by ordinance or the provisions of the law applicable thereto; he shall pay no money out of 191 the treasury, except in the manner prescribed by this charter or by ordinance or the general law; he shall
