| 10 | Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: |
| 11 | 1. That § 8.01-397 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: |
| 12 | § 8.01-397. Corroboration required and evidence receivable when one party incapable of |
| 13 | testifying (subdivision (b)(5) of Supreme Court Rule 2:804 derived from this section). |
| 14 | In an action by or against a person who, from any cause, is incapable of testifying, or by or against |
| 15 | the committee, trustee, executor, administrator, heir, or other representative of the person so incapable of |
| 16 | testifying, no judgment or decree shall be rendered in favor of an adverse or interested party founded on |
| 17 | his uncorroborated testimony. In any such action, whether such adverse party testifies or not, all entries, |
| 18 | memoranda, and declarations by the party so incapable of testifying made while he was capable, relevant |
| 19 | to the matter in issue, may be received as evidence in all proceedings including without limitation those |
| 20 | to which a person under a disability is a party. The phrase "from any cause" as used in this section shall |
| 21 | not include situations in which the party who is incapable of testifying has rendered himself unable to |
| 22 | testify by an intentional self-inflicted injury. |
| 23 | For the purposes of this section, and in addition to corroboration by any other competent evidence, |

an entry authored by an adverse or interested party contained in a business record may be competent evidence for corroboration of the testimony of an adverse or interested party.
