73 § 54.1-3505. Specific powers and duties of the Board.

74 In addition to the powers granted in § 54.1-2400, the Board shall have the following specific powers
75 and duties:

76 1. To cooperate with and maintain a close liaison with other professional boards and the community
77 to ensure that regulatory systems stay abreast of community and professional needs.

78 2. To conduct inspections to ensure that licensees conduct their practices in a competent manner and 79 in conformance with the relevant regulations.

80 3. To designate specialties within the profession.

81 4. To administer the certification of rehabilitation providers pursuant to Article 2 (§ 54.1-3510 et 82 seq.) of this chapter, including prescribing fees for application processing, examinations, certification and 83 certification renewal.

84 5. [Expired.]

85 6. To promulgate regulations for the qualifications, education, and experience for licensure of 86 marriage and family therapists. The requirements for clinical membership in the American Association
87 for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), and the professional examination service's national 88 marriage and family therapy examination may be considered by the Board in the promulgation of these
89 regulations. The educational credit hour, clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour
90 requirements for marriage and family therapists shall not be less than the educational credit hour,
91 clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour requirements for professional counselors.

92 7. To promulgate, subject to the requirements of Article 1.1 (§ 54.1-3507 et seq.) of this chapter,
93 regulations for the qualifications, education, and experience for licensure of licensed substance abuse
94 treatment practitioners and certification of certified substance abuse counselors and certified substance
95 abuse counseling assistants. The requirements for membership in NAADAC: the Association for 96 Addiction Professionals and its national examination may be considered by the Board in the 97 promulgation of these regulations. The Board also may provide for the consideration and use of the 98 accreditation and examination services offered by the Substance Abuse Certification Alliance of Virginia.
99 The educational credit hour, clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour requirements for 100 licensed substance abuse treatment practitioners shall not be less than the educational credit hour,
101 clinical experience hour, and clinical supervision hour requirements for licensed professional counselors.
102 Such regulations also shall establish standards and protocols for the clinical supervision of certified
103 substance abuse counselors and the supervision or direction of certified substance abuse counseling
104 assistants, and reasonable access to the persons providing that supervision or direction in settings other 105 than a licensed facility.

106 8. To maintain a registry of persons who meet the requirements for supervision of residents. The 107 Board shall make the registry of approved supervisors available to persons seeking residence status.

108 § 54.1-3506. License required.

109 In order to engage in the practice of counseling or marriage and family therapy or in the independent
110 practice of substance abuse treatment, as defined in this chapter, it shall be necessary to hold a license;
111 however, no license shall be required for the practice of marriage and family therapy or the independent
112 practice of substance abuse treatment until six months after the effective date of regulations governing
113 marriage and family therapy and substance abuse treatment, respectively, promulgated by the Board
114 under subdivisions 6 and 7 of § 54.1-3505 issued by the Board.

115 [ The Board may issue a license as a professional counselor to an applicant who has received a 116 graduate degree from a program in which the primary emphasis is on preparation for the practice of
117 counseling as defined in § 54.1-3500, as explicitly stated in the program curriculum and as evidenced
118 by the training and experience of the program faculty. ]

119 The Board may issue a license, without examination, for the practice of marriage and family therapy
120 or the independent practice of substance abuse treatment to persons who hold a current and unrestricted license as a professional counselor within the Commonwealth and who meet the clinical and academic requirements for licensure as a marriage and family therapist or licensed substance abuse treatment practitioner, respectively. The applicant for such license shall present satisfactory evidence of qualifications equal to those required of applicants for licensure as marriage and family therapists or licensed substance abuse treatment practitioners, respectively, by examination in the Commonwealth.

Any person who renders substance abuse treatment services as defined in this chapter and who is not licensed to do so, other than a person who is exempt pursuant to § 54.1-3501, shall render such services only when he is (i) under the supervision and direction of a person licensed under this chapter who shall be responsible for the services performed by such unlicensed person, or (ii) in compliance with the regulations governing an organization or a facility licensed by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services.

[ 2. That persons who have applied to the Board of Counseling for approval of a supervised residency prior to the effective date of this act shall not be subject to the provisions of § 54.1-3506 of the Code of Virginia relating to receipt of a graduate program, provided they have completed all coursework and the supervised residence as required by regulations of the Board by July 1, 2017. ]
