2. Patron: Anderson

3. Committee: Passed both houses.

4. Title: Driving while texting; primary offense; increased penalties.

5. Summary: Provides that driving while texting is a traffic infraction punishable, for a first offense, by a fine of $250 and, for a second or subsequent offense, by a fine of $500. The current penalties are $20 for a first offense and $50 for a second or subsequent offense. The bill also changes the offense from a secondary offense (one that can only be charged when the offender is stopped for another, separate offense) to a primary offense.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No. See Item 8.

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Final.

8. Fiscal Implications: Although this legislation could have a possible additional revenue impact from additional convictions and a higher fine, it is impossible to determine the extent of the impact at this time. Any possible additional revenue derived from this legislation will be deposited in the Literary Fund.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Court System.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: None.
